So it is little son; the events announced by centuries in the divine Gospel of God, shall occur in India; Divine Father Jehovah, what does Orient against

Occident mean? That for your divine grace we read in your divine Gospel; This divine warning means one of the greatest phenomena of emigration, that no human eye has ever seen; it means that being the Son of God in the Orient, the Occident will migrate to the Orient hoping to encounter their physical resurrection; and before so many multitudes coming from the Occident, the Orient will protest through diplomatic channels; the routine foundations of humanity, breaks its mold due to the force of every spirit, which goes in search of its own eternity; the physical resurrection is the transformation of old people, adults, into children of twelve years of age; this law of transformation was taught as the resurrection of every flesh, in the divine Gospel of God; Divine Father Jehovah, who knows everything, why does India revere divinities? What is the cause? I will tell you Son, for the divine light of knowledge has arrived, which humanity itself had requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; the spirits of India have always limited the divine glory of the only true God; they have been doing the same through infinite existences, and while they keep on doing it, they shall not enter the Kingdom of God; the latter is fulfilled for all the beings of the planet who in their forms of faith, worshipped images; all the world was divinely warned not to do it; it was written: You shall not worship either images, temples, or any likeness; Divine Father Jehovah, what does not any likeness mean? It means son, that one should not have fanaticized with the human beings; nor apostles, prophets, statues, kings, magnates, sultans, etc., etc.; for all of them are also in the divine judgment of God; don't forget son that it was stated: And He will judge the dead and alive; which means that nobody escapes; not even the molecules that were part of the dead and alive; one who fanaticized with men in the trials of life, will run the risk of having to take care of the sins, of the one he admired so much in a microscopic form of life; it always happens, when the creature fanaticizes with a creature; he always falls into a drama, when he forgets the real Creator of the universe; Divine Father Jehovah, what identity does the Earth have among the infinite worlds of the Universe? What a sublime question son, for from every divine mandate over every planet, the quality of the form of faith of its creatures is born; the Earth son is the trillionth, trillionth, trillionth planet Earth, that came out of the womb of the divine Solar Mother Omega; the Earth is a planet of trials that belongs to the microcosm; it is so little the Earth, in respect to the sizes of the other worlds, that one could say that almost nobody knows the Earth; this was announced in my divine Gospel as: From dust you are and to dust shall you return; or also: You are from the microscopic, and to the microscopic shall you return; and I tell you son that besides the Earth being a microbe, the Earth was a microbe within its present geometry of Microbe-earth; How is that divine Father Jehovah? I will explain to you son: The divine parable that says: One has to be humble, to become great in the kingdom of heavens, meant that every planet and every spirit, were microbes; The Earth as well as the spirit, are born from the invisible to the visible; nobody is born gigantic; every colossal thing that the eyes can see, was a microbe; and every microbe becomes colossal, by means of the expansive magnetism that each one requests God; Now I understand divine Father Jehovah, why the divine Gospel insisted in humbleness; So I can read in your divine mind son; and I will tell you son that the divine mandates of God, are for the matter as well as for the spirit; it is the divine equality of the Eternal; God makes matter to speak, in its laws of matter, and the spirit, in its laws of spirit; nobody is less before God; neither matter nor spirit; for He gives His law to each one; the proud spirits always deny what they do not yet understand; they are trialed in their evolutions by God; for it was written that every spirit is trialed by God; I see son that you are very interested in knowing more about the Earth; I will tell you son that just as you see it in your mental color scenes, the Earth belongs to the galaxy Trino; all the space of yellow suns, which the eyes see, is Trino; and not having Trino any limits, almost nobody knows Trino, in the thinking expansive universe; Divine Father Jehovah, what does Expansive Thinking Universe mean? It means son, that from every mental idea that is generated daily, microscopic planets are born; the mental idea that is generated by the creatures, does not die; the idea is an Omega wave that being invisible, matures and as the eternal time passes, it turns into a colossal planet; there is no idea that does not become a future world; and I will tell you son that the celestial vessels that the children of the earth, call flying saucers, have as a mission to separate the good ideas from the bad ones; it is for this reason that man was advised to know himself; to generate only good ideas; for one who generated bad ideas, created for himself future planets of evil; and since those planets came out of his own microscopic ideas, the spirit itself will have to go as a Christ, to make those planets advance; for in the divine justice of God, one who caused the harm, repairs the harm; and it is more likely for those who caused no harm to anybody, not even in less than a molecule, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and one who generated good ideas, created his own future paradise-planets, whose future planetary philosophy will be kindness; it is for this microscopic law of the ideas, that was written: Each one makes his own heaven, beginning from his ideas; as all the creatures of the universe, generate ideas, is that all the creatures contribute within their mental measurements, for the universe not to have an end; the children have got the divine inheritance of God; they are creators of planets, in the corresponding degree; the divine Father Jehovah creates in a colossal way, planets whose dimensions have neither a beginning nor end; and His children create in a microscopic way; this is why it was said: What is up above is the same as down below; one who did not believe in this divine law of expansion of his own work, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and will have to start again as a microbe; Now I understand divine Father Jehovah, why men never got to know their own origin; neither theirs nor the planet's; they never conceived a science that penetrated into the invisible; and the divine commandment: Know yourself, proclaimed it; now I understand the infinite meaning of humility; from the moralistic understanding, I pass to understanding in science; now I understand why men failed, in the trials of life; and I understand that this drama was initiated by those who channeled their efforts into creating laws for the world; how wrong they were! If they did not know how to get to know themselves, they were not prepared to create laws for others; So it is son; that was their mistake; they were blind with themselves and with the others; because of them was it written: blinds leading other blinds; because of those who made imperfect laws, which did not have any harmony between the spiritual and the moral, is that not a single human creature who lived with the strange influence of their laws, no-one shall enter the Kingdom of God again; nor has anyone ever entered; one enters the Kingdom of Heavens with the same innocence with which one came out; the strange and unknown life system, based on the interest in gold, which men gave themselves, was incompatible to be able to keep the innocence of a child, through life; men's strange life system, gave the world, customs and sensations, which none of them had requested God; this is why it is said strange and unknown life system; for nothing unfair, unequal, or unbalanced is requested to God; the trials of life that men had requested God, consisted in their unification in the shortest time; for what unifies is from God; what divides is from satan; the strange life system that men chose was conceived by trading spirits; the world has been ruled by individuals who were complex-ridden by gold; who being as such, did not know how to get rid of such strange complex; it was their ambitions based on unequal laws, which perpetuated the division in the world; and the multitudes fell asleep; it is for this that was written: Every spirit sleeps in life; the beings fall asleep in respect of the defense of their rights; they want peace, and they applaud the arms; nobody wants to die, and they boast about exposing themselves to death, by means of the arms improvement; the fall of this strange world, was based on serving good and evil; instead of serving one only master, they served two; and by serving two masters, they were divided and perpetuated their wandering through the universe, not having been able to enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; and the attempts for entering the Kingdom of God, were infinite; the human creature since it started as a microbe, has been attempting to enter the kingdom of God again; it has gone through infinite planets of trials, of the most infinite sizes, from micro to macro; from dust to a gigantic planet; but, as what is of God has no limits, man continues being dust; and the geometric form of his already gotten size, stops when on a determined planet of trials, man violated the divine law of God; this is what has presently occurred to him; and always when two or more masters are served, the evolution itself is stopped; it is more likely for one who by means of his own faith just served the only one God, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; than for one who did not know how to understand Him through faith, which he himself had requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; and I will tell you son, that this hardness to understand God, was called rock in the divine Gospel of God; my First-born Son said so: Upon this rock shall I build my church; he meant: over these mentally hard beings, I shall trial them in beliefs, which will be chosen by their own free wills; for every creature has got the right to choose; and by saying rock, my divine Son, saw in that old time instant, the future violations that the world would commit; Divine Father Jehovah, what did the First-born Son see? What he saw son, is what the present human creature is living; He saw in his solar television of the future, how men filled the planet with luxurious temples and cathedrals; he saw how men forgot the divine mandate that said: You shall not worship any images, temples or any likeness; he saw how they worshipped images; he saw how they kissed the foot of mortal beings, who end up rotten; he saw how a strange sect, blessed the arms with which their own children killed each other; he saw a shameful trading of his divine sacraments; and seeing things that he did not teach, is that he said: Upon this rock shall I build my church; the Solar trinity makes as its own, the future experience of the children; even though they know that the children will fail; for the Trinity knows that if they fail in one existence, in another they will succeed; for every spirit is born again, to be able to know a new life; one who sustained through his faith and beliefs, that there was only one life, failed in the trials of life; they by putting limits to God, doomed themselves; for by respecting their forms of thinking, they shall remain with only one existence and no more; whoever puts limits to God, receives limits; who puts infiniteness to God, receives infiniteness; for just as how one thought in the trials of life, so he receives; one just has to negate something to God, and the spirit does not see that something; this is why it was written: By your actions shall you be judged; and every human action will be judged molecularly; Divine Father Jehovah, what does molecularly mean? It means son that the divine judgment of God shall judge each one, by the ideas they generated in life; one by one; sensation by sensation, virtue by virtue, flesh molecule by molecule; sigh by sigh, hair by hair, eye by eye, ear by ear, tooth by tooth; this divine judgment that covers everything, was announced in the divine judgment of God, written in His divine Gospel; it was written: And you shall be judged above everything; everything, He does not leave anything to chance; it is the everything above everything of oneself, which turns out into microscopic multitudes, which shall be enlarged by the Son of God Himself; His divine solar verb, will magnify what was a microbe; it is for this that was said: Every eye shall see; everybody will see what they did not see in life; everybody will see in physical law, what they only experimented in sensations; so it is that those who had the strange habit, of worshipping God through images, their number of molecules shall be counted, which were contained in such images; for each molecule of image, they will miss one existence of light; it is born son, the law of the molecule-second; I want to tell you son, that the most microscopic mental and physical effort, is infinitely awarded by God; what is of God has no limits; humanity was told that God was infinite; therefore, nobody should be amazed, that one second or one molecule, have the equivalence of one existence of light; and those who get amazed, will sell themselves, of having possessed during their lifetime, a microscopic or mean concept of God; those who are limited in their concept of God, which add up to millions, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; for such strange amazements, were not requested to God; their amazements enclosed the strange sleep that they had in the trials of lives; they were not aware, they were not awake, to not to be caught by surprise in their own sensations; it is more likely for those who were not amazed by what they themselves had requested in the Kingdom of the light, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; amazement at the infinite of God, was not requested by anybody; for nobody requests to be amazed at what is evident; I will continue telling you about the Earth son; So be it divine Father Jehovah; may your divine will come true; The Earth is a planet of trials; spirits that come from infinite galaxies are found there; this means that the human beings act and think, according to the influences they bring, from their places of influence; habits are acquired in the places where one has lived; here the behavior of every thinking creature is explained, before a life system of the light; the human life was requested because it was not known; one requests God to know, what is not known; and when the spirits come to lives that are totally unknown, they request laws; for they know by personal experience, that chaos and licentiousness lead to nowhere; no perfection comes out of them; this means that in every life system, in which His creatures decide to form their own life system, including licentiousness in it, these creatures fail before God; for their evolutions are not prepared to triumph over licentiousness; do you not see it on your planet? So it is Divine Father Jehovah; since I was a boy, I see that licentiousness is called freedom by men; and I see that this strange phenomenon, distorts them and degenerates them; So it is son; this means to fail before God; for not constituting a life system, with a planetary philosophy; for I will tell you son, that when the children request me to go to the remote planets of trials, they promise me to make of such planets, a unified wholeness; they knew that the Celestial Father, was always worried about the unification of the universe; and the children for not being any less, always try to imitate their divine Father, in their microscopic thinking hierarchies; every human spirit saw in the kingdom of Heavens, that what was from the Kingdom, was the most perfect that existed in the universe; everybody saw that the celestial happiness, lay on common laws, egalitarian laws, laws in which the littlest one, is as important as the biggest one; son, does anything alike take place on your planet? What a shame divine Father Jehovah; for here one is important, according to the amount of gold one has; importance is subordinated to a strange complex of possession; So it is son; thus does spiritual meanness work; this is why no-one who let himself be influenced by gold, no-one shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; in fact no complex-ridden one enters; the human trials of life consisted in having created a common philosophy for all the planet, and having kept the philosophy of a child; what one should have taken care of, was innocence; for without a clean innocence, nobody enters the Kingdom of Heavens again; this was son, the tragedy of mankind; men built up their hopes on the ephemeral, and overlooked their innocence; this tragedy has been repeating itself many times; such is the rock's behavior; the spiritual rock has to be born again and live, on millions of planets of trials, to be able to advance in their evolution; this started from being a microbe; Divine Father Jehovah, what is the cause of such hardness? The cause son, is in the degree of magnetism of disobedience, with which the spirit saturated itself, on its way through other worlds; this degree of evil magnetism, makes the spirit's individuality change; this is, when a spirit has reincarnated in millions of planets, its essence also changes millions of times, in these changes that have no limit, the spirit must learn to know how to keep its innocence; that is its utmost trial; one who learns how to keep his innocence clean, on his way through the worlds, has got a clear way towards the Kingdom of Heavens; one who does not accomplish it, does not have the clear way, towards his place of origin; this latter one is reincarnated again and again, in places that are out of the Kingdom of Heavens; places that have achieved merits in an infinite degree, but which are not enough, for the creatures, to be able to enter the Kingdom of God; for the magnitude of the requests to God, is another one that the human capacity does not get to understand; but in them is the sufficient capability and the power, to reincarnate the beings of the microcosm; the beings of the planets dust, being the Earth among them; this is called in the Kingdom of Heavens, a Minor Hierarchy; the men's life system, did not link what is cosmic in their laws; the head of the life system, let the beings understand God, in a total state of licentiousness; and there was never a planetary agreement, in respect to God, this strange disunion that consumed thousands of years, is paid by the seconds, by those who caused it; for each second of disagreement in time, the guilty ones miss an existence of light; Divine Father Jehovah, who knows everything, who are the guilty ones in this planetary drama? The guiltiest ones son, are the ones who made the laws, in the strange life system, based on the strange laws of gold; on them shall fall three quarters of the divine final judgment; the other fourth falls on the popular masses, who got enthusiastic with their wrong guides; blinds leading other blinds; thus was divinely announced, the fall of those who without deepening into things, approve them lightly; they are the usual distorted ones, who have no will, not even for the salvation of their own souls; this was the strange characteristic of the strange world, that emerged from a strange concept of gold; it was the spiritual distortion, because of the complex for possession; in India there was a variation, in respect of gold over the sensations of the spirit; the Indian people exceeded in the spiritual measurement; it is for this that being a power in the number of beings, has fallen much behind their material well being; add to this son, the great antiquity that this flock has; which is one of the oldest on Earth; there is here a strange imbalance between time, and science or achieved well being;

the culprits of this imbalance, will pay by seconds and molecules; for each one of these microscopic units, the culprits of the existing backwardness in India, miss one existence of light; the same law is applied on those who because of their ambitions, delayed the progress of their nations; and I will tell you son that all those who were leaders of nations, shall be called strangers in the divine judgment of God; for them was it written: Strange morals; in fact every violator of the divine law of God, shall be called stranger; for nobody had requested God, to violate His divine law, in the trials of life; it is more likely for one who did not lead any nation, in which he would violate the law of God, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; than for one who took the strange licentiousness of doing it; the men's life system, had been sentenced by God, many centuries ago; Divine Father Jehovah, how was that divine sentence? It was written son, in the divine Gospel of God: It is easier for a camel to pass through a needle's eye, than a rich to enter the Kingdom of

Heavens; neither the rich nor the system that produced rich people, enter the Kingdom of God; I understand divine Father Jehovah; the system that produced rich people, is called capitalism by man; is it so divine Father Jehovah? So it is son; among all the philosophical systems that man tried in his trials of life, the so-called capitalism is the one that produced rich people, there is no other one; and I see son that millions of beings in this world of trials, praise and approve, a life system, which centuries ago, had been sentenced by God; So it is divine Father Jehovah; for our shame, so it is; I consider that such beings are crazy; that they are mentally unbalanced; for only a crazy one, would give the contrary to God; You are infinitely right son; for one who is against me, does not enter my Kingdom; Yes, verily they are crazy because of being proud; I know son that you knew this since you were a child; So it is divine Father Jehovah, by your divine grace; how can I forget the supreme instant, in which by your divine grace, I heard within my mind, your divine call? Yes son, I remember; for that microscopic past, is eternally a divine present to God; do not forget that the Eternal when choosing one of His infinite times that He has created, prefers the celestial time; what can you tell me son in respect to this celestial time? I remember divine Father Jehovah, that since I was a child you taught me, that one celestial second, is equivalent to a terrestrial century; So it is son; I see that you have a prodigious memory; By your divine grace, divine Father Jehovah; This is why it is said, that just some instants ago, God created the world; for he used celestial time; all the times of all the planets, of the ones that were, are and will be, are subordinated to the celestial time; for where times were created, there was in that place, another time; the time of the place, this time, was the celestial time; the father and mother time at the same time, of all the times; for I will tell you son that no-one is disinherited in my divine creation; neither matter nor spirit, no-one is disinherited; and I will tell you son, that speaking of the Earth's time, there are three times within the time; the time created in the Kingdom, and which requested a divine alliance with the human spirit; then comes the time of trials for the time; and the time of trials for the spirit; and since no-one is disinherited, every time has got a trinity of time; and when the human spirit requested life to God, the spirit talked to matter; and within it was the time, the space and the philosophy; since nothing is impossible to God, He makes matter speak, in its laws of matter; and the spirit, in its laws of spirit; this why it was said: Living Universe of God; the trials of life consisted in not taking any merit from God; but, many did so; not only in this life, but in many others; and one who takes it from God, by means of their opinions, it shall also be taken from him in the divine judgment of God; the spiritual meanness that characterizes the spirit of the Earth, has got three causes; one is the little evolution that the spirit brought to the trials of life; the second one is the mental abandonment of the parents themselves, in respect of what is of God; mundane parents who never educated their children, in the law of God; and the third cause of the spiritual meanness, is the creature's own abandonment, to understand God; these three demonic causes, created the strange sleep in humanity; a sleep that affected the defense of the human rights; this sleep that was a strange disdain to the rights that had been requested in the Kingdom of Heavens, was transmitted from father to son and from generation to generation: when being transmitted, it was received as something legal; the divine judgment of God, will demonstrate the humanity in trials of life, that what was considered legal, was illegal; the violations of the law of God, occurred with the influence of illusion, which came out of the life system itself, idealized by men; the ephemeral was deified and eternity was forgotten; the authors of the strange life system, tried to shut the human ideals, within a microscopic present; the strange influence of the traders, who in their spirits brought it from remote galaxies, taught them through their ways of thinking and through the laws, with which they idealized a life system; certainly the more influenced by gold, were the less indicated to form a life system; they did not have any perfection; they only had the ability for profit; but, they never allowed themselves to get to equality; in their imperfections, they were fearful, cowardly, exploiters, and whose last formula was the force; with such demonic qualities, these imperfect beings were never a guaranty, for the happiness of the world; this is why the Eternal anticipating in centuries to their appearance on Earth, sentenced them; they think that what is theirs, is eternal; they forgot that they were only on trial; which means that when being on trials of life, no human spirit, has the certainty of being a human again; it all depends on how each one did in the trials of life; everything depends on the molecular work done by each one; they were all warned, that God gives and takes away; also including giving and taking life away; and it is more likely for one who having the inclination of being avaricious for gold, did not cooperate to constitute a life system, to be able to have the human life again; than for one who got tempted; the beings with the complex of excess for themselves, are not advisable for occupying positions of responsibility; for when doing it, they contribute that pain and injustice expand over millions of beings; and those who are occupying positions, not being the more perfect ones, it would be better for them to quit those positions; and leave it to the ones who are more capable than them; for each second that goes by, such imperfect ones, are missing one existence of light; day and night, instant by instant, they are missing existences of light; the divine justice of God, is molecular in matter and time; and it is an egalitarian law for everything that has been created; Divine Father Jehovah, what does egalitarian mean? It means son, that one second or one molecule of violation or light, have got the same value in the law of God; so it is that one second of kindness, has the equivalence of a future existence of light; and one second of evil, has the equivalence of a future existence of darkness; this is called in the kingdom of Heavens, an Egalitarian Law of Divine Justice; and this justice, was requested by the human being before coming to the human life; and he did not only request it as a justice to an act done, but he promised God, to live it in his own life system; for what is of God is incomparable; man did not totally fulfill, this promise; man got divided in nations; this strange act of division, was never pleasant to God; for the Eternal Himself had warned him, that only satan divides and ends up dividing himself; and by doing it, less has he the chance of entering the kingdom of Heavens; the divine warning of God, was not taken into account in the human laws; the divine Father, shall not take into account the originators of the division of humanity either; anticipating the Eternal, this men's treason, is that in His divine Gospel He sentenced: And there will be a crying and gnashing of teeth; all the future falls of men, were announced in the divine Gospel itself; for man himself, had requested God, to be warned through the psychology of trials, written in the divine Gospel of God itself.-

EVENTS THAT WILL OCCUR IN INDIA...

In India events that have to do with the resurrection of every flesh will occur; Divine Father Jehovah, how is the procedure of resuscitating the flesh? It is a divine process very similar to giving the resurrection to the spirit; the Solar Son Christ with his solar verb, shall order the divine cherubs of the flesh; what I am explaining to you son, is not a human law; it is solar science; it is the divine power that created the elements; Divine Father Jehovah, what is the solar verb? The divine solar verb son, is the mental capacity, that the creatures of the macrocosm have, to create colossal things, in the most microscopic unit of time; they lovingly order the divine cherubs of the universe; Divine Father Jehovah, what are the divine cherubs? The cherubs son, represent the most microscopic of the matter; Cherub means To Want To Become; for in every instant, they are thinking in transformations; they are eternally restless and they are eternal improvers of geometries; the cherub is the matter's most microscopic magnetic unit; the divine cherub is so microscopic that the molecule becomes a gigantic planet at his side; no human instrument, will be able to see the cherubs of the matter; the cherub can be seen with solar power and it is ordered lovingly; and I will tell you son that all the universe is composed of cherubs; thus we have the cherubs of the oceans, of the Earth, of flesh, of the spirit, of gravity, of fire, of the excrements, of blood, of the density of the molecules, of the atmosphere, of velocities and of everything that the mind can imagine; what is known and unknown, are constituted by cherubs; the material and the spiritual universe, form their own wholeness thank to the divine cherub of cohesion; the universes are kept, because magnetic forces form an alliance in the invisible, which in the visible or exterior to them, formed geometries of tangible matter; the expression was from the inside to the outside; the presents follow each other according to what is happening inside; this means that every present was a microbe; and its expansion as it is, will never cease; the divine cherub, is mentioned in the divine Gospel of God; what is not mentioned is its science; the cherub that the everything above everything is composed of, will revolutionize the human science; for by means of the cherub, the Son of God, will demonstrate that matter has life, and that this expresses itself in its laws of matter; everything that I have told you son, had been announced in the divine Gospel of God; it was written: A Living Universe; and one had to deduce by means of faith and belief, that the living was for the spirit as well as for the matter; those who thought contrariwise, made for themselves an imperfect god, a god with limits; they got wrong in their trials of life; and shall not enter the kingdom of Heavens; the trials of life that were requested to God, consisted in not getting wrong even in one molecule; not getting wrong had been requested and promised to God, on His thinking spirits' account; for not getting wrong, constituted for the spirits, an unknown experience; and they requested God to try it, and it was granted to them.-

represents the descent of the flying saucers in India; it will be there where the Son of God, will build a new city that will be called the Celestial Jerusalem; this city will be of an unknown science; it will not be a science of men; the Son of God will use a solar science in its construction; this science lovingly orders the molecules of matter mentally; Divine Father Jehovah, if this Science is mental, how long will the Son of God take in building the Celestial Jerusalem? He could build it in a wink of an eye; but, to fulfill the divine Gospel, He will use three days; even so it will be unprecedented; for the human eye has never seen such prodigy; this city will totally be of precious stones, and of such architectural geometry, that it will recall remote galaxies of the cosmos; the Celestial Jerusalem will represent the starting point of the new Kingdom; the Kingdom or World of child prodigies; it will be accomplished in India, what for centuries had been announced in the divine gospel of God: Let the children come to me, for theirs is the kingdom of

Heavens; and in India shall remain, children with clean records, who will not get to know, the strange influence of gold; the dreadful influence in their sensations of what was a selfish and corrupted world; the new Kingdom announced by God, shall not be done with the so-called adults; for life was just a trial for them; and they knew it very well; for they had been told; it was written, that every spirit is trialed in life; which had been requested to God; and it is more likely for one who never forgot, that he was being trialed in life itself, to enter the Kingdom of God; than for one who forgot; to forget the trial itself, was not requested to God by anybody; Divine Father Jehovah, why did the world almost never speak that life was just a trial? The cause for that son, lies on the so-called religious who emerged during the reign of capitalism, who were of a very poor illustration; add to that son, that the religious beings did not oppose any mental resistance to the strange influence of capitalism; the spirits' own sensations, who said they were the representatives of God on Earth; did not have anything extraordinary as far as morals are concerned; they simply were from the ordinary people; they became the second capitalism in the world; they were from an excessively materialistic faith; the religious beings failed the search; their fruit includes the division of the beings, through the plurality of beliefs; the psychology of the so-called religious who emerged in the trials of life, did not have the sufficient quality, to be able to unify the world; they lacked of a planetary philosophy; this explains why they could never unify the world; in despite of so many centuries of reign; and while they keep on existing; humanity shall never get unified; their failure in respect of the unification of the world, has been widely demonstrated; I know son that you knew this truth since you were a child; and I will tell you son that it should have been known by all humanity, for a very long time; for it has been for centuries, that it was written: You shall know them by their work; and the world is witnessing their work, for centuries; Divine Father Jehovah, what is strange is that nobody wakes up, before a mental division that perpetuates the disunion of the world; So it is son; it is for this that was written: Every spirit sleeps; the world sleeps on what it thinks is correct and legal; the crying and gnashing of teeth, which was also announced to them, shall wake them up into a desperation never lived; I know son, for I see it in your mind, that you are thinking of the Holy Scripture of God, and its relationship to India; you have always wondered why India did not guide itself by the psychology, which men created in their bibles; So it is Divine Father Jehovah, by your divine grace; I will explain to you son; you know very well that in my divine Gospel was written: He who seeks shall find; the human free will, had to seek, the best it could; for search did not have any limits; nor anybody should have felt satisfied, for the knowledge one got to know by inheritance and by tradition; for such thing was adventurous; one ran the risk of falling in limitations before what is of God; and learning the errors that others had known; search should have been an individual search; for the individual search, is the most sincere before God, and this individual search, neither harms anybody nor divides anybody, and it is the one that never deceives the interested one, the individual search, shall receive a complete award, second by second, in the divine judgment of God; the other search, the religious search, was a search with a support and imitation, learnt from others; those others were wrong, and transmitted their errors, to those who imitated them; on the other hand the individual search is more systematic, and goes on knocking down the errors, that the others had adopted by imitation; the experience through the centuries had demonstrated, that regarding the search for God, man should not have trusted man; for the errors, the mistakes are transmitted by means of heredity; this is why I said in my divine Gospel: He who seeks shall find; for only the interested one can select the best for himself; nobody else can give him something better, in his search for God; the Eternal is moved in His divine free will of Eternal, before those who try to understand Him by themselves; and He is not moved as much, by those who trying to understand Him, looked for the wrong support of others; the true merit, starts in oneself; the shared merit is not the true merit; for it is a divided merit; behold son, the error of entire generations, of the trials of life; the world in its interpretations of God, through faith, forgot that the divine justice of God was molecular; they forgot that it covered the infinite of the macro and the micro, of the infinite that the eyes saw, and of the inside, which everybody perceived by their sensations; the limit itself of the interpretation of what is of God, is per se, the greatest drama of the human beings; for such limit should have been attended by the spirit itself; and everybody should have nullified it, the most they could; the mental limitation that each one had in the trials of life, in respect of God, is paid and is discounted in the divine judgment of God; one who had limits to what is of God, receives also, a limited award; limit by limit; for humanity had been warned, that God was infinite, that He had neither a beginning nor an end; therefore to have interpreted God, in a correct way, one did not have to do it with the human psychology; for what is human has limitations; one had to project himself to the infinite; to what has no limits; faith with projection has got an award before God; faith with no projection, a merely intuitive faith, with no search and no illustration, has not got any award before God; for it is more likely for one who made an effort in the trials of life, to be awarded by God; than for one who did not; the faith of the world, never imagined, that one second of thinking, had the equivalence of one existence of light; the world forgot to apply the infiniteness of God, in their own microscopic acts; and the world had been taught, that God was everywhere; and the world did not want to recognize this divine truth either; for the world preferred to surround itself with material temples; if God was everywhere, luxurious and expensive temples were not necessary; for home itself, was according to the divine mandate, a temple; and it is more likely for those who made what was taught by Him to be respected in themselves, for God to award the faith; than for those who did not take it into account; the world will not want to miss the unprecedented happenings that will occur in India; for the fascination of witnessing the man whose face shall shine like a sun, will be universal; the Emigration to India, will be worldwide; and it will be a consequence of the biggest revolution, which has ever been known on Earth; and the biggest revolution does not come out from the human beings; it comes out of a divine Solar Father, who was announced to the world of trials, as the Son of God; and in India, terrifying earthquakes will follow each other; for the presence of so many divinities, statues, monuments, material temples, shall fill with rage the Son of God; He will not be pleased with what was promised to God by the human beings, had been betrayed; thus one part of the crying and gnashing of teeth is fulfilled; the other part corresponds to the rest of the planet; for the divine judgment of God shall not have any limits; it will be so immense, that of the so-called nations, shall remain no-one; nothing that represented division, nothing shall remain.-

EVENTS THAT WILL OCCUR IN INDIA...

Divine Father Jehovah, I see multitudes at the shore of the sea, in India; they are so many that they darken the sun! What are they doing? They are multitudes coming from all over the planet; they are waiting for the Son of God, who will come to open the waters of the ocean; that multitude never seen by any generation, has been gathering for many days; the so-called occident is almost empty; only those who are waiting to die at home and in hospitals, are the remaining ones in the occident; and they are alone; for nobody wants to lose his soul, being the Son of God on Earth; the terrible problem in India, is the lack of food and space; many shipping fleets, are with their ships crowded with people, waiting for the greatest prodigy in the history of humanity, there is no space on board in the thousands of ships; which like a multitude of little points, sway over the sea waves; So I can see by your divine grace, divine Father Jehovah; And I will tell you son that never so many ships had been seen together, in human history; all the planet is revolutionized and the organization that had served as a basis to humans, is falling apart; what you see son, is the chaos of the crying and gnashing of teeth, which for centuries, and before the humanity was born, had been announced to the planet Earth; Divine Father Jehovah, who knows how the events are going to happen, before their protagonists are born, how can that be explained? I will tell you son, that nobody is unique, is it not written like that in my divine Gospel? For your divine grace, it is so divine Father; Well, if it was announced by my divine word that nobody is unique, such affirmation means that before there were humans on the Earth, there were already others; I see son that you are thinking about something; Yes my divine Father Jehovah; I am thinking about the divine parable that you taught us, in your divine Gospel: There is everything in the vineyard of the Lord; and I am linking it to what in these instants, your divine kindness teaches me; So it is son; Adam and Eve were and forever will be the parents of mankind; but, they are not the only ones; for before them, there were parents that corresponded to other planetary life stems; those stems and those lives, which existed before the humans did, will be seen by all the world on the solar television; Divine Father Jehovah, what is the solar television? I will tell you son that the solar television, had been also announced, in my divine Gospel; it was written: The Book of Life; the Book of Life and the Solar television, are the same thing; for I will tell you son, that in the divine terms of the divine Gospel of God, the Eternal does not prefer absolutism; so it is that one thing can be expressed in many different psychologies, and it is always the same thing; the trials of life consisted in that the human creatures, would agree into one only psychology, to understand what is of God, in a unitarian form; the harvest performed, which has many centuries, and which is on sight, demonstrates that humanity could not make it; this is why the planet did never get unified in its totality; development continued by causes of division and with a strange influence of selfishness; which as a sensation or unknown experience; nobody had requested it to God; what humanity had requested the Eternal, was to continue keeping the unification, which they were accustomed to in the Kingdom of Heavens; in their place of origin, everybody knew that a dispersed flock or planet, would not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; disunion is incompatible with the eternal happiness; neither from inside the Kingdom nor from outside, division or disunion is accepted, in the divine law of God, such was satan's destiny, who from inside the kingdom of Heavens, divided the angels of God; initiating one of the so many eras of evil, in the eternity of time; for as it was written, nobody is unique in what one does; not even satan was unique; Divine Father Jehovah, since I was a child I can see by your divine grace, the scenes of the future, of what is to happen; what fascinates me the most is the opening of the waters carried on by the Son of God; could You in your divine kindness, explain to me how one commands the molecules of water? I knew son you would ask me that question; you have not changed; you are the same as always, concerned about the causes of things; you are doing the right thing son, by being concerned about what was given to you as an alliance; and on the way, you fulfill the divine mandate that says: He who seeks shall find; I will tell you son that every Solar First-Born Son, has solar cords, also called Solar Lines; as you know since you were a child, the First-Born Son was telepathic with the divine Father Jehovah; So it is Divine Father Jehovah, by your divine grace; What do you remember son from what I told you and made you see through mental scenes, when you were a boy of seven years of age? I remember divine Father Jehovah, that when Christ said: I am going to the Father, he thought by telepathic communication; he thought in a psychology towards up above; and I remember when he was expiring on the Cross, and said: Father, Father, why have you abandoned me? I saw that in that instant there was a telepathic cut off; I saw that trillions of trillions of solar lines, which came out of the pores of his body of flesh; and whose ends were linked to the molecules of nature, got abruptly torn or detached in an unprecedented form; and I saw that for this cause invisible to the human eyes, the earth trembled and the sun got dark; and not only that; I saw that all the galaxy shook; Yes son, so it is; I see that your prodigious memory, makes you remember scenes of past reincarnations; and I will tell you son that these same solar cords, are the ones that operate in the molecules of the waters; I see son that something is worrying you; So it is divine Father Jehovah; I was thinking divine Father, about the other solar cord; the cord that we all have in our brains, and whose end is connected to the place of cosmic origin; which to us human beings, that place of origin are the suns Alpha and Omega, of the Macrocosm called

Kingdom of Heavens; So it is son; the First-Born Son said so himself: I am the Alpha and Omega; he wanted to tell the world of trials, that he came from the place of origin of humanity; this is called the beginning, and Omega is called the end; and since Omega is a closed circle, Omega means a total judgment to the world; it means that nobody can escape from the divine judgment; neither the dead ones nor the microbes; I will tell you son that Alpha means angle; and it represents the initial geometry, with which the Earth was born, in the divine womb of the Solar Mother Omega; Alpha fertilized Omega; Now I understand divine Father Jehovah, why it was said that what is up above is the same as down below; I see that just as it is fertilized on Earth, it is also fertilized in the solar; So it is son; it is fertilized in the macro and it is fertilized in the micro; continuing with the explanation of the opening of the oceans; I will tell you son that it is the same solar line that acts; for everything comes out of the same law, and it is manifested in infinite different ways;

men ignore their points of departure, and their stories occur in their developments; and the trials of life consisted, in getting to know, their point of origin; for it is more likely for those who tried to decipher, the enigma that they themselves had requested in the Kingdom of Heavens, for the Son of God to make them see their point of origin; than for those who were indifferent with their point of origin; How fair divine Father Jehovah! So it is son; the divine justice of God is molecular; and its limits are provoked by the creature himself, who made the action; in the opening of the waters, a divine mental dialog is established, between the solar mind and the molecules; this divine dialog is called Solar Verb; and it could be done in a sonorous way, that is by speaking, or in silence; accompanied by gestures or without gestures; and I will tell you son that this new law of power over matter, will fascinate the world in such degree, that the world will paralyze their work; the reigning status collapses; and the Earth's privileged ones, start getting to know poverty; by means of the human work itself and through its own transformation, because of the divine presence of a Solar Father; the privileged ones start living in the flesh, what they in part, contributed to its development, during the trials of life; it is fulfilled in them, the content of the divine parable that said: With the same rod that you measure, you shall be measured; and the world's production, will be commanded by the Son of God; for through his solar cords, the elements will obey him; nobody among the humans, had ever witnessed such infinite power; the opening of the waters by a solar individuality, will make humanity know, that their time as mortal, has come to an end; the end of the trials; the end of an unknown life form, which had been requested to God; the end of a strange world that served good and evil; which produced but at the same time destroyed; a world whose creatures, intended to abolish the primitive that was in them, but who were very slow; for in their attempts, they were caught by surprise by the divine judgment of God, and it was a work poorly finished; it was the most strange of works; and its creatures, will think again, of a new attempt to get rid of the primitive and the imperfect, on some other planet of trials; the attempts had been following each other since the human being was a microbe; and it is the microbe that judges him; for the most microscopic that the human mind can imagine, becomes his judge; the most microscopic that one had in oneself, will speak and express itself in the divine judgment of God; for it had been taught that nobody was unique; this is, not only the human being will speak; everything that surrounds him, will too; the Eternal demonstrates His infinite justice, making all His creation speak; making matter and spirit speak; each one in its law; for in His infinite kindness, nobody is less; neither matter nor spirit; one who did not conceive God this way, that one did not know how to understand His divine glory; he was mentally mean, with The One who had created everything; one who thought this way, was wrong in the trials of life; and shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; he will continue attempting in other life forms, until he gets not to be wrong; until he gets rid of the strange mania, of belittling God; and while he belittles Him, he will not be allowed to enter the Kingdom of God; this is while the spirit keeps on insisting in being mentally mean, towards his Creator, he will not enter the Kingdom of God; it is more likely for one who was not mentally mean with Him, to enter; continuing son with the opening of the waters, I will tell you son that this divine solar process, is done by talking lovingly to the cherubs of water; I can see them now Father Jehovah! There are so many multitudes of beautiful beings! So it is son; its number is such, that the number of human beings simply disappears; I know son that you have a volcano of questions to ask me, in respect of the multitudes of divine cherubs that you are seeing; So it is divine Father Jehovah; I will tell you in advance that my divine answers have no limit; therefore I will tell you up to what the human psychology, gets to understand; the rest of the infinite that they do not understand, is understood by other psychologies of other planets; do not forget son, that nobody is unique; I do not forget divine Father Jehovah; The cherubs of the water and all the rest, which matter is composed of, and which man requested to know, have a cherub's free will; just as the creature has a human free will; a cherub's sensations, are felt and lived, within the invisible dimensions to the human eye; they have their own presents of development, just as man has his own; then man is surrounded by infinite presents, in which other creatures live; since the world exists, it has always been like that; and one of the most renowned dimensions, is that of the spirits; this invisible dimension is the most mentioned in humanity, for it is in a direct relationship with the human creature itself; Divine Father Jehovah, do the spirits see the cherubs and vice versa? Yes, and it is not the divine answer; I will explain to you son:

Everything depends on the expansion of the dimension; for the microscopic has also got an space; even more; besides space, it has got time and philosophy; then the spirits see the cherubs, according to their frequency of feeling; with the divine cherubs it happens all the same; I will talk to you about this son, with more depth, when I dictate to you the Origin of Matter; it will be a work of 3,000 Telepathic Rolls; I work with limits, because the human creature in his present evolution, has limits; what is new is that within his limits, he knows laws and new things; Divine Father Jehovah, has limit got an expansion? What an interesting question son: Limit has got an expansion of its own sign; What I mean is that while a spirit does not want to advance in knowledge, the limit expands in ignorance; and the imbalance between the time requested as a trial of life and the backwardness, is greater; the expansion of the limit has got a quality; the quality corresponding to the light, is provided by illustration in everything; the fall regarding the expansion of the limit, is provided by darkness; on the solar television, the world will see the color of the magnetism of good and evil; for it was written that every eye shall see; and they will see the physical features that their sensations had; they will see the intimate turned into matter; they will see the microscopic eternity that there was within their bodies of flesh; in the law of the opening of the oceans, the solar magnetism talks with the cherubs of the waters; this conversation will also be seen by all the world; and when they see the multitude of creatures that the oceans contained, the world will understand why they were warned that nobody is unique; and a shame never seen on Earth, will seize every human creature; this shame will become critical, in those who believed in nothing; and the so-called materialism, will break all the records of suicides, in all the history of the Earth; just then the world will unfold their eyes from a blindness, which had lasted incredible centuries; there, in that instant of divine Revelations, they will understand that those who governed the world, had weak morals; all of them were easily afraid and full of complexes; all of them were living nullities; all of them had caused harm, by not studying themselves; by not knowing their own individualities; the harm of the complex-ridden to gold, had been warned by God, in His divine Gospel; for it was written: Know yourself; which meant: Take off from your interior, every sensation, from which a harm can emerge, which may harm others; it is so son, that in India itself, its creatures by not taking off the strange complex of venerating images, statues, temples from their individualities, they themselves contributed for their fellow men not to enter the Kingdom of God; for if millions did it, millions imitated them too; the thinking creature, always has the tendency of imitating his older ones; and if their older ones had not improved the quality of their illustrations in their search of God, they themselves transmitted the tragedy to the rest; for it is more likely for those who transmitted others, inheritances that led to the Kingdom of God, to enter the Kingdom of God; than for those who condemned others; the strange human morals, were not based on God's morals; by not doing it, the human creatures themselves, belittled their own fruit; only what is of God is infinite; the strange morals of the world, which included in them the right of worshipping images, worshipped themselves; they did not want to admit the only one God; and the only one God is only understood by illustration and work; and while the creatures insist in their free wills, in worshipping or venerating the microscopic, such creatures will not see God; the resignation of adoring images, must come out of oneself; if it does not happen in a determined existence, it happens in another; in the case of the human rock, the adoration of images, has been occurring since thousands of existences before; and in the present it happened again; therefore, they shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; the inhabitants of India will go on with their strange customs, in other existences, in other worlds; Divine Father Jehovah, who knows everything, what effect will cause on them, the divine presence of the Son of God? The effect among them, will be the greatest event of their lives; for on the Son of God, will depend the existence of India itself, and of the planet itself; the greatest Revolution will emerge, when millions of beings see with their own eyes, a Man, whose face shines like a Sun; in that supreme instant, all the so-called governments of the Earth shall fall; nobody will obey the laws of men; everybody will want to be governed, by the one who never dies; by the First and Last; it will be the end of the mortal beings' work; it will be the fall of the great beast; the fall of one of the strangest worlds; so strange was this world, that they had even forgotten, the advent of the divine Solar Judge, having the world itself requested it; Divine Father Jehovah, what does the beast mean? The beast, son, represents the human selfishness, which made the human genre itself, suffer through centuries; the most representative of the beast, was constituted by the beings who were more influenced by gold; the beast was cold, shrewd and calculating; the beast believed that it understood everybody, and did not understand anybody; for the beast did not have a planetary philosophy; the yoke of the beast, was its own ignorance in respect of the unification of the planet; the beast's demonic dream was to consider the division of the world, as the most normal and natural thing; such was the beast's tragedy; and the beast did not wake up but until doomsday itself; the beast led the trials of life, building entire generations' hopes up, which remained with no entrance to the Kingdom of Heavens; the beast's illusion, contained a demonic psychology, to forget God; the expectant beings fell into a forgetfulness or distortion towards God; the beast made them forget about eternity; and all the seconds of life, were dedicated to the ephemeral; and the ephemeral is not from the Kingdom of Heavens; the human thinking fell into a strange dream, which made them forget about their own rights; the distorted conformism, was the spirit's normal psychology; one lived more for the comfortable sensations than for the sensations, which could guide to improvement; nobody agreed, in respect of the only one God; and if there was something, it was done with a strange licentiousness, in what was done ended up into nothing; the human knowledge did not want to recognize the only one God; in their customs and thinking, the human creatures did not include Him; thus everybody is caught by surprise in multiple beliefs; the long-awaited planetary unification, was never achieved; the demonic slowness triumphed over what could have been happiness; the beast could not enter the Kingdom of God, and did not let others to enter either; the beast's complex, will be repeated in other uncountable planets; other future dramas, will be created by the beast; for the beast will be born again; the beast will request opportunities to God; the beast will try with other forms of life; just as it has been doing it since it was a microbe; the beast represented satan on Earth; for satan had taken the form, of a strange life system, whose basis lied on inequality; satan the beast, managed to introduce himself into the human beings' customs; and the humans fell asleep and helped themselves with satan; the beast guided itself by instincts in the trials of life; for the beast did not know anything about the content of the divine Gospel of God; and the beast's followers, fell into its game; no-one who got to know the beast, no-one knew the divine Gospel of God, by memory; forgetfulness was being inherited from father to son, and from generation to generation; the life system itself thought by the beast, snatched the human happiness; for humanity to have overcome the beast, they had to have known themselves; and they did not; they had to have created within themselves, a superior psychology than that of the beast; for it had been taught that every perfection is attained in the sweat of one's face; the comfortable sensations of humanity, perpetuated the blindness to the point of becoming condemned; the total number of seconds lived by humanity, in the trials of life, arrives to its total consummation; its time has its hours counted; the end of the mortals is coming and the immortals' time starts on Earth; the beast will know nothing, until the end; for only the earthquakes provoked by the Son of God, will be able to get the beast out of its strange coldness; and when the beast awakes, it will be the end of it; the beast will try to show, that it was so; for in its final pride, the beast in its desperation, will recur to the atomic arms, to confront the Son of God; this useless pride of the beast, provokes such an earthquake on Earth, that one eighth of men, are swallowed by it; the Son of God in his divine rage, provokes dreadful earthquakes that last entire days; and which had never been witnessed by humans; the beast lives its last moments of terror; the divine Power that it never believed in, provokes its fall; it is the immortal astonishment of the beast; for in other planets, in other trials of life, the beast had already had other astonishments, other terrors, other fears, of the divine justice of God; for the beast is full of complexes by nature; its sentimental salvation is committing suicide; a resource proper of those who have not get to understand eternity; a resource of beings, who are strange to the Kingdom of Heavens; the beast up to its last instant of demonic reign, will think about profits; it will exploit others up to the last moment; and I will tell you son, that with the beast's disappearance, in the trials of life, an unprecedented happiness, never known on Earth, is born on the planet; it is the happiness, of the meek at heart; it is the happiness of those who always rejected the possession of temporary things; it is the happiness of those who did not build their hopes up on the ephemeral; it is the happiness of those who never hid anything; not even their imperfections did they hide; it is the happiness, of those who told everything; it is the happiness of those who had fulfilled the divine mandate that said: He who has a mouth speak; it is the happiness, of those who knew how to live with the psychology, which a child lives with; it is the happiness of those who always waited for it and who did not dismay; for they fulfilled the divine parable that said: He who seeks shall find; they with the patience of a child, sought, waited, and found; this happiness will be called the Happiness of the New kingdom; the so-called adults of the trials of life, will not participate in it; for to be able to participate in this new Kingdom, one has to have the innocence of a child; the so-called adults, the mortals of the trials of life, had had a sublime opportunity, of participating in this new Kingdom; as long as in their trials of life, they would have known how to keep, throughout all their development as creatures, the innocence of a child; such was the supreme goal of life; with the beast, one could never keep the innocence of a child; for the beast with its psychology characteristic of a trader, disgraced everything; the beast missed the way that led to life; for the beast lacked of spiritual interest, in what was happening in the cosmos; the beast cut itself off from the infinite; the beast isolated itself from eternity by its own will; nobody had forced the beast, to be a beast; it was the strange complex of possession, what made of the beast, a beast; the beast was pleased of dividing the planet, in nations; for with such a way of coexistence, the beast exploited; the unity of the planet, was not convenient to the beast; for a united planet, represented something that intellectually, the beast did not understand; and its pride got uneasy; verily the perfection sought by the beast, was very strange; its power of a beast lied on temper, and not on the eternal laws of the universe; the strange complex-ridden-to-gold beast, planned without the divine participation of God; the beast thought of itself as being almighty; it did not even remotely think that its strange reign, could be interrupted; even much less that another power would nullify it; the beast in its dreams of greatness, ignored where it came from; from its own ignorance of origin, comes its fall; of what voluntarily did not want to understand, comes the one who will make it disappear from the human evolution; the beast always allowed licentiousness in the understanding of God; for such licentiousness produced fabulous profits for the beast; and as it produced profits to the beast, this strange licentiousness in understanding the Eternal, was called freedom by the beast; if it would not have been profitable for the beast, this strange phenomenon, would not have been called freedom; for everything that resulted in a balance of profit, was good for the beast; and by means of their own customs, the creatures of the Earth, served the beast; and the beast used them, up to the end of the times of trials; the beast is agonizing in these moments, within the human laws; for the beast is getting poor; but the beast in its pride and arrogance, which are characteristic of it, does not say anything about its poverty; to explain it to the world, the beast disguises the explanation with technical terms of its avaricious economy; getting to the extreme, of blaming others, of its misfortunes; the beast, a product of avaricious, cold, and calculating beings, always thought of itself more than what it accounts for; for it manipulated with its gold, the customs of the people; the beast believed that the thing would always be the same; but the events that are approaching the world, will make the beast go pale; for now Jehovah-Only-God, will make spirituality triumph over materialism; as nothing is impossible to God, it will be the Lamb of God's knowledge, who will defeat the beast; it will be the divine Living Word of God, made a Revelation-Doctrine; the beast will be terrified, to see that nobody pays attention to it anymore; its military barracks, where the children of God were made aware of and taught to kill shall remain deserted; not a single human soul, will remain there; only dust and oblivion will inhabit them; the sinister warships of the beast, will all remain abandoned and full of rust; the beast will not find either a clientele or volunteers, as the old custom was; then the beast will admit that it was accustomed to living, violating the law; and just when the beast acknowledges its error of centuries, is when the beast has to disappear from the history of the world; the beast is living the last stage of its fall; this stage is characterized by the beast turning against its own laws; in the past the beast was horrified to kill; now killing, to the beast, is the most natural; the emotional instability of the beast, which accompanied it from beginning to end, makes the beast to end up in chaos; in India so many happenings will take place, related to the divine final judgment, which in the future we will write them in innumerable telepathic scrolls; So be it divine Father Jehovah; may your divine will be done; I will tell you in advance son, that in India and China, the first Government by Children, shall be established on Earth; they will achieve the unification of the planet; they will achieve, what in centuries the so-called adults of the trials of life did not accomplish; Divine Father Jehovah, why did the children have to be the ones? A sublime question son; it will be the children, because they do not have the complex to gold; and because the children believe in everything; by believing in everything, they believe in the infiniteness of God; the child with his innocence, only serves one Master; the so-called adult with their emotional complexes, served many masters, in the trials of life; and those who serve many masters, do not inspire so much trustworthiness in God; it is more likely for those who knew how to define themselves in one only master, to inspire trustworthiness in the Eternal; the first ones with their imperfection, perpetuated the division among the creatures; the second ones contributed to the unification; in India and in China, all the children of the world will be concentrated; and they will multiply themselves in eternal flesh, in such a number, that no human mind will be able to calculate it; these genius children, will be born talking to their elders; and will bring in their infantile concepts, the Science of the Kingdom of Heavens; they will not bring the sensations that the mortals brought; they will not die; they will not know the decay of their bodies; the decay that was known by the mortals of the trials of life, was requested to God by them themselves, because they did not know it; all the sensations that each one feels and has, was requested to God, for they were not known; this is why it was written: The trials of life; every spirit is trialed by God; all of you are trialed second by second; and nobody notices it; the infinite perfection of the Eternal, makes nobody be affected in their free wills, when they are being trialed; God shows His infinite power, in seeing others, without being seen; and not seeing God in the present life, was also requested to God; the human spirits did not know the experience of not seeing God, on the remote planet of trials Earth; and not seeing God, was granted to them as a trial; the life of the centuries of the Earth, are just an instant or a sigh to God; it is because the Eternal chooses His own time, among the infinite times that He has created Himself; God turns the times, into micro or macro; He contracts and expands them; in the case of the Earth, he chose the celestial time; in which one second of celestial time, had the equivalence of a terrestrial century; in the place where God is, is the Macrocosm, also called the Kingdom of God; a place where everything imaginable exists; a place where things and beings have no limits; a place where matter speaks in universal telepathy; a place where everything that exists came out of; what there was, what there is, and what there will be; a place which will be shown to every human eye, for every human being requested to see it, in the events of the divine final judgment; and the world of trials when seeing their place of origin, will burst into tears; and from millions of weeping souls, a new psychology which will transform everything will be born; the millions of weeping souls will accuse those who tried in vain to transform them into a little less than cold and calculating machines through the centuries; and for taking them through a strange way that did not lead them to the Kingdom of God; and the millions of weeping souls will become critical, when the Son of God, tells them that to be able to enter again, in what they are seeing, they will have to undergo a divine judgment, in which neither a single molecule of the spirit nor of the body of flesh that one had in the trials of life escapes; to be able to enter the Kingdom of God again, one did not have to repeat the oldest imperfection of adoring God again through images or through creatures that had been created by the Eternal Himself; the divine judgments of God are molecular and His divine law penetrates, where no any other science can penetrate; what is of God covers even the sensations that everybody felt in life, and that nobody was able to explain; it covers the invisible that was lived, through the virtues.-

ALPHA AND OMEGA.-

EVENTS THAT WILL OCCUR WITH THE ADVENT OF THE REVELATION TO THE WORLD; THE MEANING OF THE ROLLS OF THE LAMB OF GOD; THOSE WHO DENIED.-

Yes little son; the judgments of the worlds are public; that is how the human spirits requested them, to Father Jehovah; for in the Kingdom of Heavens, nothing is in the occult; selfishness is not known ; what is of the Father is universal; so were His doctrines in the past; for everything that exists, has been created by the Father; whatever was in the occult, will be known; and those who presumed of being benefactors, will be demons before the world; I verily say unto you, that there will be no thief that will not be known; nor an occult murderer, that will not be unveiled; every demon who thought of outwitting God and the world, will flee from the presence of my First-born Son; they will be afraid of being read in their minds by him; that is how it happened in the past; when he requested the Father to be born in this world, as a Christ; those who have led this world, will be appalled; just as the demons of the past were terrorized; in the pharaonic era, its members were fearful since many centuries before; the serpent's worshippers, were fearful of the advent of a God of Justice; they were fearful of the Supreme Hierarchy of the universe; every child of a pharaoh, was submitted to a strict surveillance; for they were afraid that among themselves, could be the Justice coming from the Cosmos; many were executed by mere suspicion; it was an era of unknown powers, to you; these damned galactic creatures, carried the mission of colonizing your world; they were telepathic; at the beginning they abided the laws and the divine alliances with Father Jehovah; as the centuries passed by, they became tyrants; of such a degree, which has never been repeated in this world; these demons were the first ones who created slavery, in this world; the exploitation; they made others adore them as terrestrial gods; they taught by imitation, for the people of Israel to become avaricious; this avariciousness was transmitted to the world; from generation to generation up to your times; the pharaonic dynasty, is the author of materialism in this world; from this materialism emerged your life system; a life system, which is a complete shame before the justice of God; this is the inheritance of those who came to colonize you; for just as you colonize in this world, up above is also colonized; what is up above is the same as down below; when the worlds are being born, Father Jehovah sends solar fathers; who with their science and wisdom, make the worlds that are being born advance; no single world is abandoned; all of them receive the visit of the Solar Trinity; I verily say unto you, that these visits to the planets, are written in the Kingdom of Heavens; just as your existences are written; everything that is born is written in the eternal Solar Books; from the invisible microbe to the colossal sun; nobody is less before the Father; for everything has been created by the Father; all the scenes and violations occurred in all the epochs of the Earth, will be written on the Rolls of the Lamb of God; for when you requested the final judgment, you also requested, how things were done; you requested a judgment with a full awareness of what you were doing; this full awareness of what one is doing, has no end; for the first cause, which is the Father, has neither a beginning nor an end; and from His divine cause, have all the causes come out, that your mind can imagine; the Father's cause gets to be understood, by eternally passing through causes; every existence is a cause; and every cause is an existence; for everybody with no exception in matter and spirit, have got the same rights to life; and both choose their laws; matter has its free will, as the spirit does; nobody is less before the Creator; neither matter nor the spirit; this equality in the Father, was witnessed by you; and you promised the Father before departing to the world where you are, to imitate Him in everything; even to the most minimal; I verily say unto you, that the life system that the spirits were finding in this world, as they were arriving, spoiled all your promises made to the Father; it is a little less than impossible, that you can keep the same innocence with which you came out of the kingdom; your system built your hopes up on things that are not of the Father; it divided your own promises made in the Kingdom; and I verily say unto you, that no-one who got divided in his promises, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; only satan divides himself; only satan divides so that the children do not fulfill what they promised the Father; you failed the same law of Adam and Eve; your first earthly parents, were also divided in their promises made to the Father; the pharaonic serpent deceived Eve; with full awareness of what it was doing; your life system, is the continuation of the same deceit; your life system drew you apart from the Scriptures of the Father; because of your life system, it is more important to you to become rich, than the salvation of your soul; I verily say unto you, that one cannot enter the kingdom of Heavens, by serving two masters; whether you serve the living God, or you serve the god of gold; I verily say unto you, that gold itself, was created by the living God; behold the supreme error of this world; the gold god will never be able to give you eternity; it will never be able to resurrect your flesh; it will never be able to turn you into children; for that is all what the resurrection of every flesh is about; every resurrected one will be so to a child of twelve years; for theirs is the Kingdom of the future world; every world is surrounded by a heaven; and every world when passing from evil to goodness, its heaven is called Kingdom of Heavens; for goodness inhabits it; the worlds are transformed in their own evolutionary pace; the transformation comes from you yourselves; for each one makes his own heaven; I verily say unto you, that every mental dimension, even though you do not know how to explain it, is a future heaven; you are surrounded by 318 microscopic heavens; living microscopic virtues; your heavens are of all the imaginable colors; and since each one makes his own heaven, your ideas are the ones that create your heavens, with their magnetism; every idea travels to space physically; this fascinating process, you cannot see it; for you requested the Father, not to see it; by virtue of your life being a life of trials; all your past was requested by you with forgetfulness, and it was granted to you; there is forgetfulness of the spiritual past and planetary forgetfulness; forgetfulness of up above and forgetfulness of down below; forgetfulness in the spirit and forgetfulness in matter; forgetfulness in the virtue and forgetfulness in the molecule; I verily say unto you, that the forgetfulness of your origin, was requested by you to struggle against uncertainty itself that this cause provokes in everybody; I verily say unto you, that this forgetfulness of the place that one came from, is the Alpha and Omega of your faith; it is the most tenacious struggle that your request of trials has; and many succumbed in this trial; the life system, made of them easy-attitude spirits; enemies of effort; improvers of commodities; your Creator does not prohibit you what is of your free will; what He does not like, is that you violate what you promised; and what you promise is contained in the Ten Commandments; to violate the law of the Father, is to deny the Father; for being the Father in everything, He is therefore in every custom; every forgetfulness about the Father, is ungratefulness towards the Father; and I verily say unto you, that every happening coming from you in life, will be an unforgettable happening in your judgment; for from them, depends your entrance to the Kingdom of heavens; it was written that every humble one is first in the Kingdom of Heavens; and what else humbler than your own acts in your daily life?

From the most simple act, even if it was an instantaneous one, your entrance to the Kingdom is at stake; for in the final judgment, not only your spirit participates; your flesh participates too; your pores, cells, hair, excrements, blood, etc.; everything that you are participates; for nobody is less before the Father; neither the spirit nor the body; both were created equal in their rights; I verily say unto you; that every equality is in nature itself; the elements requested equality in their laws; the eternal succession in their characteristics; the inheritance is the same when the mandate is not exceeded; the contrary is inequality, imbalance, and injustice; nature is immutable for it respects the Father's living mandate; you cannot find the perfect happiness, for you forgot the living mandate of the Father; His divine word gives living morals to creatures like you; and it also gives living laws, to every known or unknown element; that is why matter and spirit, are in the same justice; for both came out of the same law; your death is your flesh's transformation; it is the opposite to reincarnation; death is the exit of the spirit from a magnetism called flesh; and reincarnation is the entrance to the magnetism called flesh; flesh and spirit came out of the same law; flesh requested ephemeral laws and the spirit eternal; what is ephemeral is a microscopic dimension; what is eternal is a dimension that has no end; flesh becomes spirit and the spirit becomes flesh; when it is requested; their magnetisms' qualities change in the requests; they change philosophy and hierarchy; and they never lose the free will; matter and spirit are alive; they are born together in life; for both of them requested it in the Kingdom of Heavens; matter has a free will as the spirit does; and they get together by a common alliance; the Ark of the Covenants, is a materialization of thinking creatures; the beginning of this union, starts in the suns; the starting point of the understanding; the starting point of all the planetary beginnings; of all that were, are and will be; your starting point was originated in the suns Alpha and Omega; when these suns, by virtue of their free wills, decided to create planets earths, they got united in an amorous solar courtship; and became one only sun; this is equivalent to Father Jehovah's universal mandate: and you shall become one only flesh, one only marriage; this divine mandate was fulfilled up above and down below; in infinite couples of suns; and in infinite planets; for there are infinite kinds of flesh; what is of the Father has no limits in anything; the solar fires, create flesh in the creatures and for themselves; they turn into all the forms they had in their infinite births; for every spirit is born again; the suns of the universe, were also spirits like you; they had a humble and microscopic beginning just like you; for the laws of Father Jehovah, are fulfilled in everybody; and His laws have been being fulfilled since endless eternities, before all the suns; for the Father is before everything that was, is and will be; that is why it is said in the universe, that the Father is unique; the universe's existence itself, searches as a supreme goal, the supposed beginning of the Father; and they have never found it; nor will they find it; to find it is necessary to escalate the knowledge from world to world; from existence to existence; the Father can be seen, as He estimates to be seen; He has got a free will just as you have; seeing the Father as Moses and Christ saw Him, does not mean to know the origin of the Father; what is of the free will, is intimate; the Father's divine origin itself, is just like your keeping of intimacies; nobody can force you, to reveal your intimacies; the same happens with the Father; what is up above is the same as down below; I verily say unto you, that anyone who forced the free will of another, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; may the law of damnation fall on them; nobody will defend them in the Kingdom of Heavens; neither spirit nor matter; for their free wills were violated; virtues and molecules complain before the Father who created them; and their complaints are heard first than anything; for they are very little and humble; therefore, they are great in the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that everything that is little, every microbe is the first one to be heard in my Kingdom; it was taught to you that every humble is great in the Kingdom of Heavens; just as you give the best care to your babies, so are the little ones taken care of in the kingdom of Heavens; what is up above is the same as down below; your world is normal to you; so it is in the Kingdom of Heavens; every living normality came out of there; they are accustomed to living in the eternal wonders in the Kingdom; and in every instant, infinite creatures leave the Kingdom, to go gaining experience in unknown lives; they travel to unknown and very remote planets; just as you did; and all the generations that preceded you; the requests of life in their quality, are infinite; number does not exist in them, as you understand it; the number of spirits will never be able to be counted; only the Father knows it; and among infinite life requests, yours emerged; your request was all promises to the Father; the Father listened to all of you; and He granted life to all of you; a life that should have never been divided in the most minimum; all of you knew in the Kingdom, that only satan divides himself; you contemplated the arrogant from afar, exhorting his damned legions of spirits that followed him; for everyone has a free will in the Kingdom of Heavens; it was like contemplating a crowd on Earth, led by rabble-rousers; what is up above is the same as down below; I verily say unto you, that many of you were influenced by the demon; many of you heard him; behold the cause of the arrogant on Earth; it is a living philosophy that came out of satan; which was learnt in a state of free spirit; with no compromise with any physical body; one learns a lot when being in the Kingdom of Heavens; the maximum expression of wisdom is there; one is happy there because knowledge is everybody's fruit; life is created there; you were created there; and you saw how others were being created; everything exists there; you just need to think about what you want, and you get it instantly; it is the supreme glory for some reason; everything is colossal there; immense silvery vessels, come and go from the Kingdom; their number is infinite; infinite are arriving from remote galaxies, universes, cosmos, solar systems; and from universes that you will never know; for being so infinite; so it is my little son; just as you see it with your mind; I see divine Father Jehovah, colossal vessels emerging from colossal worlds; I do not know which one is more immense, either the vessel or the world; I do not see any limits in anyone; So it is son; nothing in the macrocosm has any limits; for nothing is static there; even if it could be; worlds are created with the mind there; just as you create objects; what is up above is the same as down below; you are limited and up above they are unlimited; but, up and down, came out of the same law; which keep on creating infinities up and down; and will create worlds up above and worlds down below forever and ever; I verily say unto you, when Father

Jehovah dictates the First-born Son, the subject entitled: Things and Laws that are seen in the Kingdom of Heavens, you will be dazzled; never had the Heavens been open to you; and your Eternal Father opens them by intellectuality; for you requested it so in the Kingdom of the Father; a Doctrine that has no parallel, is initiated; for it is the only one that teaches, how things were done; the only one that has no end; for what is of the Father has no end; I verily say unto you, that before this Doctrine, every false Doctrine shall fall; including the concept of the so-called religions; erratic forms of interpreting the Scriptures of the Father; the Scriptures of the Father are eternal; those who interpret them, are not eternal in their interpretations; for they were not fair, in the strict meaning of the word; one just has to violate a microscopic part of the Scriptures, and he becomes an anti-christ; and the so-called religions by trying to interpret the Scriptures, violated them much more than in a microscopic part; I verily say unto you, that the so-called religions are unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; for in the Kingdom the philosophies that divide their fellow-beings, are unknown; only satan divides himself; the religions had their time as all the trials in life have; every spirit is trialed; the so-called religious, requested the divine Father to teach His Word on Earth; what they did not request, was to divide the world of faith, with so many beliefs; for only satan confuses and divides the flocks; the religious are the responsible ones of this confusion; no human creature has entered the Kingdom of heavens, because of them; they are guilty before the Father, of the greatest tragedy of the human spirit; for not a single divided spirit enters the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who studied the Father, and divided nobody, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who learned a religion, and transmitted the division to others; the first one fulfilled God's mandate: It was written that he who searches shall find; the second one fulfilled men's mandate; who were blinds leading other blinds; they transmitted all the errors of their false interpretations, to the world; and the world transmitted them from father to son for twenty centuries; for this cause, the world has got a backwardness of twenty centuries on their moral and spiritual plane; the so-called religions, are the rock of the spiritual selfishness of the world; for they were never humble at heart; they talked about God, and they had hearts of stone; if they had had real humility, they would not have rejected the Revelation; they would have studied it, to see if its fruit was of God; they did not even do that; knowing that by the fruit one knows the tree; that is to say that by the content of a doctrine, one deduces if its fruit is of God; they did not fulfill with the divine mandate: He who searches shall find; they did not search and therefore they did not find; I verily say unto you, that all these children of false humility, who rejected an Emissary of the Father, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the divine purposes of the Father, was them to be the first ones; for they requested it so in the Kingdom; my First-born Son by telepathy, knocked on door after door and nobody received him; those who requested to be the first ones to receive the Revelation had the greatest incredulity; behold why your Father Jehovah, through his First-born Son, told these false prophets of His word: Upon this rock shall I build my church; for the Father who sees the future in an infinite degree, saw the improper behavior of a real Christian; He saw their rock of intellectual selfishness; He saw their own falls; He saw the unfulfillment of what they requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; and even seeing them that they were going to fail Him, He allowed them; to fulfill the law that says: Every spirit is trialed in life; I verily say unto you, false prophets of my word, that none of you shall see the glory of the Father; just as you denied Him on Earth, so will you be denied in Heavens; all your names shall be known by the world; for just as everybody, you requested the public judgment; a universal judgment; just as the judgments are done in the Kingdom of Heavens; the same judgment will have those up above who parted from this world; those who you call dead; death does not exist; yours is a transformation that you yourselves requested; its process on you, is slow; in other worlds, this process is instantaneous; those creatures' death, is by disappearing instantaneously, without leaving the most minimal trace; as everything is requested in the Kingdom, the kind of death as you call it is also requested; as everything in the Father is infinite, infinite kinds of death exist; in its quality; and I verily say unto you, that the so-called death is also living; and it accuses in the Kingdom, those who ridiculed it; it is more likely for one who respected the kind of death he requested, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who did not respect what he requested; without the transformation that you call death, no-one would come out of his flesh covering; you would want the spiritual freedom perpetually; your union with the body, would become a torment as the centuries passed by; you would fall into the greatest boredom; and you would be one step closer to committing suicide; death accompanies you in the existences, as your virtues do; each one plays its roll, in your spiritual evolution; without death, you would not fit on the planet; for nobody would die; the generations would follow each other without a law of departure; I verily say unto you, that if it would have been so, monstrous laws would be dictated in your world; for one part would be survival, and the other part getting prepared to die; voluntarily or forced, and your world would not be a world of trials; it would be a real hell; though it is a hell of injustices and scandals; for a group of demons of ambition, wants the best for themselves and the worse for the rest; now the Omega is reversed; now it is the opposite; those who unfairly had more, will be now, the ones who have nothing; and those who had nothing, will have in abundance; for the abundance to be even, it is necessary that you pay up to the last debt to the Father; for you requested it so in the Kingdom of Heavens; the Father always starts from what is clean; from innocence; by paying up to the last debt, you become innocent before the Father; it is as if you had never violated the law; the Father can do anything; were you not taught that He overcomes death? I verily say unto you, that the real death, is not of the body; the real death is when the spirit has sinned; for he has divided all his 318 virtues; and indeed for each committed sin, the virtues accuse the spirit, of having been induced to violate their own laws; the spirit has a free will, and the virtues have a free will; to sin on the spirit's account, is to scandalize his own virtues; and every scandal is also a sin; a sin accompanying a sin; and it is just enough a microscopic sin, and you are already divided in the opinion of the virtues; and the virtues that accompanied you in an existence by a loving covenant, refuse to accompany you in a future existence; for by making use of their free will, they do not want to be divided again; they do not trust the spirit; and they tell all the virtues of the universe, the inconvenience of getting united to this or that spirit; and the spirit remains alone; behold darkness then tries to get possession of him; for nobody defends him; without the divine intervention of the Father, he is lost; all the sinners of this world, swarm around out of the Kingdom of Heavens; for not a single virtue that was violated by their sins, want them in the Kingdom; for being the virtues smaller than the spirit, they are first in the Kingdom of heavens; were you not taught that every humble, is first in the Kingdom of the Father? And whatever humbler than a virtue, which lets itself be felt in your thinking, and does not let itself be seen? And without being seen, makes your evolution advance; I verily say unto you, that without the little ones, you would never be anything; the virtues are the microscopic cherubs; the littlest thing that your mind can imagine; so little, as your ideas are; you make use of them, and nobody in the world has ever seen an idea; and it will never be seen in this world; all the ideas that you generated with your thinking in life, you will know them in the Kingdom of Heavens; even if you are judged in this world, your ideas are received in the Kingdom; for they are little and humble; and every little and humble, is received by Father Jehovah; behold the other justice that awaits you up above; the ideas that you generated in life, complain before the Father; they expose all your violations; for you made use of them; if you are called to the Kingdom of Heavens, it is for justice; not for glory; for because of the so-called religions, and of your life system, all your living ideas, are divided; the tragedy of your spirits are in them; behold the work of satan in your world; behold the crying and gnashing of teeth; behold the Armageddon; which means People that get armed; and regarding the judgment that came out of the Father, the people will get armed with their own mental work; for there is no work that you have done, which is not composed of ideas; behold an Armageddon where everybody participates; for all of you have thought in life; all of you have generated ideas in life; and it is enough to think one idea, and one is before a judgment; I verily say unto you, that the rock of human selfishness, which made itself be called holy mother Church, shall be the first in being judged; for it was the first in casting the first stone, in the human philosophy; for the Father is first; above everything; were you not taught that way? Therefore whoever refers to the Father in any way, he is in fact casting the first stone; after the Father, in every instant, you are casting first stones; I verily say unto you, there is no-one who has not casted a first stone in his life; it is more likely for one who lived silently in life, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who casted his first stone; for silence is the philosophy of the great ones of the Kingdom; and casting the first stone, is proper of imperfect creatures; but who fulfill their law; to throw the first stone, is to leave the way open to the free will; it is to place the spirit between good and evil; I verily say unto you, that those who casted the first stone to defend my humble, defended the Father; the Kingdom of Heavens is theirs; and the ones who casted the first stone to defend those who were not humble, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; you were taught that every humble is first before the Father; comments are needless; one who did not defend my humble above everything, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who lived humbly, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who just defended humility but did not live it; and one who lived and defended humility, has got a double merit; I verily say unto you, that the world of the easy-attitude ones who had everything, will envy the humblest among the humble; for his is the Kingdom of Heavens; for every humble shall be extolled and every big one shall be despised; the renowned War of Armageddon, is a war of knowledge; the spirituality of the orient, will prevail over the spirituality of the occident; it was written: the Orient against the Occident; there will be no more world war; for the Doctrine of the Lamb of God, will be expanded all over the Earth; frightening away the demons who make wars; I verily say unto you, demons of war, that nothing will remain of you; you shall die isolated; with nobody to give you a hand; for you are damned up to the fourth generation; and woe to those, who say a word to you! By the same words, shall the law of damnation befall them; such is the expansive universe of Father Jehovah; every mandate, penetrates matter and spirit; I verily say unto you, that every demon that conspired against my children, shall cry out all his sins, beating his chest; and many that you thought were humanity's benefactors, will be unveiled as being real demons with a lamb's clothe; you will witness what every generation wanted to witness; you will witness, the fall of the beast of the thousand eyes; the one that created the espionage against my children; I verily say unto you, that the living justices of the Father, are accompanied by the molecules of nature; the hills shall tremble, the waters shall be opened; the earth shall be opened, when the First-born Son orders it; for in Glory and Majesty, he will judge you; from the times of Moses, such prodigies have not been seen; for Moses and Christ, are the First-born Son himself; for every spirit is born again; and the Trinity, makes use of the same law that it created; I verily say unto you, that never has been nor will be a greater revolution; in the Armageddon participate all the nations of the world; all the thinking beings, for all of you came out of just one only God; from the same law; from one only place of the universe; and from this place, Father Jehovah talks telepathically with His son; being able to do it from any point of the universe, were you not taught that your God is everywhere? And He has a divine free will, just as you do; what is up above is the same as down below; I verily say unto you, that many who saw my son writing and were not moved, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; did you not know that what is of God is first, above everything?

Where did then such strange attitude come from? Let those who saw and did not believe answer; I verily say unto you skeptical of the world, that you yourselves requested having the Rolls of the Lamb, before your eyes; every instant that is lived, and its circumstances, was requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; even the number of ideas that came out of your minds, was requested by you and every molecule that you saw and touched; the everything above everything was requested by you; I verily say unto you skeptical of the world, that it would have been better, not to have requested to see what is of God; if you despised it; so will you be despised in this world, and in the Kingdom of Heavens; the judgment starts in the city of Arica; and it irradiates to all the world; Arica, city of corruption, falseness and licentiousness; Arica that despise my prophets; you shall be razed to the ground; city of vice and sin; I verily say unto you my little son, that because of those who despised you, I shall devastate this immoral city; refuge of filth and moral rottenness; woe betide you, false announcers! You shall be damned by the First-born Son, for deceiving the people; liars of the world; deceivers of satan; it would have been better for you not to have been what you were; for because of what you were in life, you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide you, go-between authorities! You promised in the Kingdom of the Father, to struggle against the demon of corruption, to your last breath of life; but you just overlook; it would have been better for you, backward spirits, not to have requested to be authorities; you have to respond before the Father, for all who got corrupted in this immoral city; for you did not fulfill what you promised in the kingdom; because of you, not a single child of this city, who could at least be near the Kingdom of Heavens, shall be so; for the seconds lived in corruption, are abysmal; I verily say unto you, that much innocence was corrupted in this immoral city; and woe betide you, corrupted cities of the world! None of you shall remain; you requested in the Kingdom of Heavens, the judgment of fire; just as Sodom and Gomorrah requested it; cities of sin of the ancient world; woe betide you, corruptors of innocence! Only ashes shall remain of you; for you followed the example of Jerusalem; woe betide you, demons of the lion and the Eagle; heathen exploiters; nothing shall remain of you, builders of my children's hopes; because of you, damned ones of gold, not a single human creature, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for you divided everyone, with strange morals; I verily say unto you, that you will witness these things; yes little son; I see that you are seeing the multitudes of the city that denied your mission, beating their chests; So it is divine Father Jehovah; I see seaquakes and fire from the skies; I see the multitude gone crazy; I see your divine justice; I see you divine Father Jehovah, in the clouds over this scandalous city; So it is little son; and all just because of a few demons; for not any so-called authority, cleaned up this city; not anyone worried about my humbles' spirit; and because of them, not a single inhabitant of this corrupted city, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, children of the world, that many corrupting cities of my children, shall disappear; you yourselves requested it so, in the Kingdom of Heavens; you requested it to the Father, in case vice would trap you; and I verily say unto you, that the corrupted cities, trapped you; your virtues shall accuse you, in the Kingdom of Heavens; of having taken them to live in the demon's den; for where there is gold, the demon is; the forgetfulness of what is of the Father is; the violation of my law is; I verily say unto you, that you fell into sin, just like Adam and Eve did; they were also trialed by the Father; you requested an opportunity to mend the past, and it was granted to you; for every spirit is born again; he requests for new opportunities, new existences; your falls have occurred in many existences, and all of you have got an addition that comprises all your past; each existence makes its history; you are a pile of living histories; there is no life in the universe, that has not got its history to be told; for nobody is disinherited; your histories, become legends; satan's is one of them; but the concept you have of the demon, is a microscopic concept; without putting aside, that you were told to struggle against the demon in any of its imagined forms; your demon is unknown in the rest of the infinite; there are other demons that you will never know; my creation is so infinite, that one does not get to know it all; only the Father knows it all; for He has created everything; I verily say unto you, that just now, you will understand everything that was veiled to you; for in all your acts, you requested a time that should be fulfilled; and everything that is requested by the children, is respected by the Father; it is respected up to the last instant; behold the answer, to those who claim the Father's justice, before time; since the formation of this world, your Father Jehovah listens to the wails, prayers and His children's mental requests; in all the generations it has been like that; and it will always be so in the worlds, like yours; who requested the trials of life; with forgetfulness of your past; this life tests the virtues and the spiritual patience of the creatures; and I verily say unto you, that with the arrival of the Doctrine of the Lamb of God, your life trial is put to an end; for you will learn how things were done; the cause that was covered by the mental forgetfulness, becomes light; when a Doctrine that comes out of the Father, becomes present in a world, it gets expanded all over the face of that world; for what is of the Father is universal; all the things and the thinking creatures, were created by Him; all the nature is subordinated to its Creator; matter and spirit; it is for this divine cause, that the Father always prevails; and He does it in the precise moment; I verily say unto you, that that moment was delayed by the selfish ones who requested to be the first ones in receiving the Revelation; and they did not want to receive it; the Father changed the laws and it always, at the same time, takes place in the time that the Revelation must take place; but this delay that came out of these selfish ones, affects you in the time that you should enter the Kingdom of Heavens; this delay is of four years, four years that my First-born Son walked around, trying to be heard; for every Trinity sets itself tests; for it is in everything; calculate the seconds that are contained in four years; and add them to your score of darkness; I verily say unto you, that the selfish ones by rejecting what is of the Father, did it because they were influenced by the strange morals, which came out of an unknown life system; it is called unknown, because exploiting each other, is not in the Father's Commandments; neither is it in the Kingdom of Heavens; in the Kingdom, the philosophies based on ambition and exploitation are not known; your life system, is a tree that the divine Father Jehovah did not plant; and it shall be pulled from its roots from the human evolution; this life system of strange morals, came out of a group of demons, with human form; and your life system, is your own yoke; because of it, you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for you were divided and drifted away from the Scriptures; only satan divides to drift away the children of the Father; there is no other satan in your world; for every evilness, comes out of the evil ideas themselves; and every goodness, from the good ideas themselves; I verily say unto you, that satan came out of your own selves; for with your own ideas, you shaped him; you do not know anything about how evilness is originated; beyond your world, you only know of the rebellion of the angels; you do not know how things occurred in every detail; what happened there, you will know it now; for you requested with the final judgment, to know how things were done; of the spirit and matter; this request is called Judgment by Intellectuality; by understanding and reasoning; I verily say unto you, that by your understanding and reasoning, your crying and gnashing of teeth shall begin; for the virtues that are part of your feelings, also requested the final judgment; the everything above everything requested the final judgment; what your spirit requested, was also requested by matter in its own laws; there are infinite laws and processes, which escape from your mental powers; facts that your eyes do not see; for there is everything in the flock of the Father; I verily say unto you, that every intellectual judgment, is preceded by a material judgment, a mental judgment, a spiritual judgment; for the Creator is everywhere; the divine psychology of the Father, is the Father's own one; just as you have yours; what the Father has, the children have too; what is up above is the same as down below; what is of the Father is infinite; what is of the children is microscopic; therefore, the final judgment is just how the Father wants it; and not how men would like it to be; I know children of the world, that many claim to tears, for the Father's justice; but, every earthly act, has its time; every living act requested its time of development; and your Father respects His children's requests; whether these are of the spirit or matter; all of them are equal in rights before the Father; I verily say unto you, that every time has its time in time; it has got the Trinity in time; for no-one is disinherited; neither the spirit nor the matter; everything that exists even if it has a different form, are equal in rights before the Father; for alike and unlike, they came out of the same law; the attribute of each virtue and each molecule, is being able to manifest themselves according to their free will; one requests and it is granted; the physical form and the mental form; the geometry is born from the knowledge's geometry itself; every knowledge is physical before the Father; behold the origin of your future physical body; it comes out from yourselves; from your own knowledge; from your own salt of life; for knowledge shines like salt exposed to the sun; it is a brightness made of multiple colors similar to the glitters of a ruby; the variety of colors is due to your mental actions being varied in quality; in philosophy and hierarchy; and all your actions turn into colors; these colors come out of yourselves; and you came out of the same place, where the colors came from; which means that you and the mental colors, are the same thing; both have identity, while the planetary life lasts; the place where you came from, is a place of eternal time; every psychology has come out of the same place where the Earth and its creatures were created; the everything above everything has a development; this development is the one you are going through; the development of every planet, starts being microscopic; every planet grows in a progressive way and in spiral; the creatures like you, also were microscopic; you were humble, very little, microbes, to finally become big in the Kingdom of Heavens; this parable is the same for both matter and spirit; for spirit and matter, are equal in rights before God; I verily say unto you, only the humble at heart, have got the right; the right that you were told to gain in the sweat of your face; for out of the celestial right, there are infinite rights in their quality; the most supreme of the rights, is to see the Creator of life; is to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; is to become eternal again, being on Earth; the sublime right is not to get to know death; it is to have the right to be resurrected physically, to become a child again; becoming a child again, represents the triumph of innocence, in the creature; for I verily say unto you, from all the philosophies that this world has given itself, only the philosophy of the children shall remain; that is why it was written: Let the children come to me, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heavens; for theirs is the new world; the world Omega; the world that will replace the world Alpha; or materialistic world; I verily say unto you, that the final judgment, is the fall of one world, which having forgotten that what is of God is first, above everything, it got corrupted; the living morals have been degenerated; scandal is a normal law; nakedness has gotten naturalization papers; children of the world! Your world shall be punished by Father Jehovah; all the corrupted and corruptors, shall die by fire; that is how they requested it, those who have violated the Father's law; just as it was requested by the spirits who lived in Sodom and Gomorrah; they died burned by fire; I verily say unto you, where there was gold, there will be death, desolation and weeping; for where two masters were served, Father Jehovah is not there; your Creator created you complete; and He claims for a complete love and respect; not even the most microscopic mental division, would open the Kingdom's doors for you; for even the invisible that belongs to you, was created by the Father; everything microscopic, is as important as the everything; whether you love God entirely or you do not love Him; this is equivalent to the term: Above everything; above everything microscopic and macroscopic; the affection and love that the Father claims from His children, does not come out of what you were told; it does not come out either of the Scriptures or the Commandments; the children are the ones who force the Father to punish them; every violation of the laws of the Father, brings itself a judgment; violation and judgment are inseparable; as goodness and reward are inseparable; I verily say unto you, that your life system gives you a very bitter fruit; for such life system, did not take God's law into account; Father Jehovah was not consulted; for every Scripture that leads to goodness, represents the divine free will of the Father; therefore, the creators of your life system, are guilty of your crying and gnashing of teeth; they are guilty of no human creature, enters the Kingdom of Heavens; for they divided you in strange morals; the Father's Scriptures teach you a moral standard, in which nobody is divided; only satan divides himself; and your satan divided you; I verily say unto you, that the trials of life, surprised you with the same easiness as you feel the influence of commodity; the more easy-attitude one was, the farther he got from the Kingdom of Heavens; illusion, which satan instilled in you, was greater; you were more entertained by him; you were taken further apart from the morals of the Scriptures; the number of seconds that you accumulated in your life of darkness, was greater; they are darkness-seconds; and the more suffering a life was, it gets closer to the Kingdom of Heavens; for it was closer to the Scriptures; my Word says: In the sweat of your face you shall earn bread; I meant: With your own merit; with your own effort; with your own spirituality; the suffering fulfilled it; his life and his obstacles that he endured, ennobled him before the Father; I verily say unto you, that it is more likely for a suffering to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than an easy-attitude one; the suffering is so because the easy-attitude one violated the law; for Father Jehovah, you are all the same; the inequality that makes millions of my children suffer, came out of you yourselves; for you did not measure with the rod of the Commandments of the Father; if you would have measured with the Commandments of the Father, there would not be either rich or poor in this world; your rod, is a rod that creates suffering; the same ones you measured, you make them cry of pain; just as you impoverished them, you will also be impoverished; you will feel it in your own flesh, what you made others live; you forgot the Father's parable that says: Do not do to others what you would not want them to do to you; the so-called rich, individuals and nations, shall remain in the greatest poverty; for my Commandments, did not tell anyone to have more than another; all of you are equal in rights, before God; wealth as a living philosophy, does not lead to the Kingdom of Heavens; it is totally unknown in the Kingdom; for in the Father's Kingdom, nobody has more than another; what is private is not known; property does not exist; nobody knows the word: This is mine; what is of the Kingdom is everybody's; nobody exploits anybody; the Celestial Communism exists, with a child's philosophy; neither rich nor poor exists there; necessity is not known; nobody gets old; everybody is eternal; I verily say unto you, that all of those who defended what is private, no-one shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for with such philosophy, they denied the love of the Father; they denied the Universal Equality; they denied the way that would lead them to the Kingdom of the Father; it is easier for a camel to pass through a needle's eye, than a rich to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; he does not enter up above and gets poor down below; there is punishment up above and punishment down below; what is up above is the same as down below.-

THE STORY OF MORONI, A SPIRIT OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS; MORONI MEANS ONE ONLY LOVE; EVERY PROPHET FULFILLS A DIVINE REQUEST TO TEST HIS FORM OF FAITH IN THE FATHER, IN REMOTE WORLDS; EVERY PROPHET HAS GOT HIS OWN TIME; THE REVELATION IS RELATIVE AND SUBORDINATED TO THE BEING'S LIVING EVOLUTION.-

Yes little son; Moroni is the same Isaiah of the ancient world; for every spirit is born again; he requests new existences; just as Moses who is the First-born Son himself; Moroni is a spirit who requested Father Jehovah, to test a free will in a living faith; and it was granted to him; every prophet requests to be a prophet in remote worlds; but, many are called and just a few are chosen; Moroni requested the Father, to leave in this world, a form of faith that it would exalt the Father's Scriptures above everything; for every prophet knows that every spirit is tested in life; including the faith; there are many kinds of faith; and in the kingdom of Heavens, the prophets compete lovingly, in who can or could bring more children, to the Father's light; to be a prophet requires more knowledge; to have been born a a greater number of times; to have a greater salt of life; every prophet has got a hierarchy in his knowledge; every prophet requests trials in his life; for everybody knows that all of those who requested to overcome difficulties, greater is the award in the kingdom of Heavens; every prophet has got an older Trinity than the rest of the creatures; Moroni has lived 3000 reincarnations as a human creature; that is why it was written: Feeble is the flesh; every knowledge learnt in succeeding existences, becomes fire; to Father Jehovah's own image; one comes out of the solar fire and returns to the fire; all the human creatures, including every prophet, have come out of the suns Alpha and Omega; of the galaxy Trino; from these same suns the First-born Son Christ came out of; that is why it was written: And he shall come to the world shining like a sun of wisdom; I verily say unto you, children of the world, that soon shall you see his face shine like a sun; from each little pore of his flesh, a solar ray shall come out; the prophets shine according to their divine hierarchy; the brightness is infinite and variable; just as the individualities in the humanities of the Father are infinite; Moroni is reincarnated on Earth; he requested to be born again; he is in the Orient; he is a humble farmer; he is in India; Moroni has a forgetfulness of the past, just like the other beings, he requested Father Jehovah to be present in the great biblical events that are approaching the world; Moroni has already gained the resurrection of the flesh; in many worlds he has received the same celestial award; he has become a child many times in his respective planetary dwelling; for the resurrection of every flesh, is a magnetic transformation that occurs in the physical body; all of those who believed in this law of the resurrection of oneself, will become children again; at any age; those who did not believe in it, will not be resurrected; for they themselves opposed to it; by denying the infinite power of the Father, they denied themselves; they denied their own entrance to the kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for those who recognized the heavens, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens than those who denied it; I verily say unto you, that you will soon know the personality of Moroni; for every doubt is turned into light, in the Lamb of God; every mystery will turn into an understandable knowledge; for everything that was done and imagined by men, is restored in the father; every prophet fulfills the divine universal parable that says: Every spirit is trialed in life; this divine parable explains every persecution made against them; for every spirit when requesting a new form of life, he requests to gain experience in good and evil; perfection can do anything in the Father; for the Father has created everything; Moroni as many other prophets, was killed because he did not know the experience of being killed; everything that happened and all that can be imagined is requested to the Father; nothing is done without the father's knowledge; many times the Father lovingly objects, to many of his children's requests; but the spirits in virtue of their free wills, insist in this or that trial that they do not know; many spirits request to pay debts of the past, in the same circumstances in how they made evil; Moroni is not in this law because for those who request to pay debts, in the same way that they sinned, it was written: An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth; cell by cell, molecule by molecule; idea by idea; every experience occurred in every trial of life, reverberates in the everything above everything; it reverberates in matter and spirit; in the cells and in the virtues; in the physical laws of the carnal body and in the human thinking; every prophet renders divine account of his mission to Father Jehovah; and his award is parallel to the number of creatures that his own law transformed; every belief that came out of every creature, is measured by its number of molecules and virtues; and every belief is measured in the Kingdom of Heavens; the most perfect belief before the Father, is the one that is closer to the Father's command; the one that got closer to His divine Commandments; for they represent a divine free will that came out of the Father; and every free will of every creature, including every prophet, are subordinated to its Creator; for having the Father created everything, He also created the free will; every prophet exerts an influence in the worlds, according to his hierarchy; so it is that Buddha, Allah, Moroni, etc., had a hemispheric influence; only the First-born Son constituted in this world, a Planetary Doctrine; behold the meaning of the divine parable; A tree is known by its fruit; it means that by the intellectual content of a doctrine, its hierarchy is deduced; one who totally transforms a world, that one is first in knowledge before the Father; for there are infinite kinds of first; nothing has any limit in the father; everything is infinitely relative in its eternity; I verily say unto you, that every prophet has already fulfilled his time; now comes the harvest; now comes the intellectual judgment of your acts; a divine judgment that was transmitted to you century after century; by the Father's Scriptures, the Son's and the prophets'; the judgment that will be expanded all over the world is the Doctrine of the Lamb of God; which will also be called the Celestial Science; its author will be known by the pseudonym of Alpha and Omega; for it is more likely for one who used a pseudonym, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; than for one who used his own name; every pseudonym is a form of humility; in which the concerned one himself, does not want to be known by the mundane beings; without the value of his work being diminished because of it.-

Yes little son; this celestial drawing teaches the same that you have been seeing since you were a child; every human act, every future event requested to the Father, is written in the books of living fire; just as you see it, in the Macrocosm called the Kingdom of Heavens, everything is alive; there matter talks to the spirit; So I see divine Father Jehovah; for your divine grace, I see all the prophets before your divine presence; What a divine sight of materialized fire! I see infinite books of life! I see that each creature has got his own Book of Life! So it is little son; nobody is disinherited; for everybody has got equal rights before the laws of Father Jehovah; I know little son that a Mormon son invited you to his church; I verily say unto you, that each one requested his mission before the Father Jehovah; I verily say unto you, that the divine Revelation of the Father, does not constitute any church; for the Doctrine of the Lamb of God, comes to the world, to judge everyone; and in that everyone are the ones who professed religious ideas; every church with no exception, has already got its time; a time written in the Book of Life; a new psychology is born from the same Scriptures of the Father; the Father gave you Scriptures and Commandments; and by the same ones, He shall judge the world; I verily say unto you, that the human's free will, created the religions; to interpret the Scriptures of the Father; and in this way of interpreting it, all the religious of the world, fell before the Father; I verily say unto you, that every religious spirit, is accused by Father Jehovah, of dividing the world, in many beliefs; being only just one God; only satan divides and he divides himself; for every division perpetuates the division; the so-called religions, have reigned in this world, for many centuries; and they have never ever got the world to be unified, in one only concept, in what respects to the Father; nor will they ever achieve it; for they have served two masters; they say they serve the Father, and they get into an alliance with a strange life system, which recognized gold as the only master; behold the hypocrisy of every church; not a single hypocrite shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for nobody requested the Father to be one, not even in the most microscopic degree; every religious being must add up all the seconds of the time, in which he served two masters; I verily say unto you, that there is no religious being, that will not have his crying and gnashing of teeth, for because of them, no human creature shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for the trials of life, did not consist in living divided, under any concept, they were told that only satan divides himself and divides others; I verily say unto you, to every spirit that was religious, that you will be accused before the world and in the Kingdom of Heavens, of struggling against the equality taught by Father Jehovah; by expanding the Father his living Doctrine, every religious being will have a public judgment; just as all this humanity will have; you were blind children of division; just as you divided a world, you shall also be divided; with the rod you measured others, you shall also be measured; it would have been better for you not to have requested the trial of being religious; for your Father, would not have a cause against you; this proves the world, that you did not fulfill the divine mandate of the Scriptures, above everything; if you would have done it, above everything, you religious beings, would not have admitted the strange life system based on gold, you would have struggled against satan himself; did you not know, that no rich enters the Kingdom of

Heavens? And if you knew it, why did you get into an alliance with them? I verily say unto you, that for each child that followed you, in your beliefs, you shall pay molecule by molecule; for they are also alive before the Father; they also complain that they got to know strange morals that divided them; they complain that they did not get to know the divine equality taught by the Father; they complain and cry; behold demons what a false adoration to the Father leads to; behold the terrible consequence of serving two or more masters; the everything above everything gets divided; all the divine covenants made by your spirit, are torn apart; the promise of serving the Father above everything, when not fulfilled, brings along the greatest tragedy to every spirit; this tragedy was announced to you as the crying and gnashing of teeth; for each second of violation of an entire life, is paid in existences that must be fulfilled out of the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that not a single religious being shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who was not religious, to enter the Kingdom of the Father; than for one who was; it is more likely for one who did not either belong to any religion or philosophy, that had divided a single son, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; than for one who did belong to them; behold the crying and gnashing of teeth of an entire world; a world that trusted the blinds leading other blinds; for all the ignorance that came out of every religious being, was received as an inheritance by the world; that is why the divine Father Jehovah, told them by His First-born Son: Upon this rock I shall build my church.-

OF THE WORLD; THE END OF THE CENTURIES OF MATERIALISM; A NEW UNIT OF TIME IS BORN; A YEAR OF 318 DAYS.-

Yes little son; the calendar of the future, will be a galactic calendar; the present calendar comes to an end; for the creatures that used it, arrive to their end of their life trials; when a life trial is requested, in the Kingdom of Heavens, it is a life that has and end; it has its time and epoch; in your evolution, you used the calendar to calculate time; the time of your activities in the trials of life; this time is coming to an end; for the most culminating moment for this world is approaching: The apparition of the First-born Son; the one who will change all things, which were wrongly done; everything shall remain according to the Scriptures of the Father; just as it was told, many centuries ago; the trial of the world, consisted in not getting out of the Scriptures; not even in a microscopic part; I verily say unto you, that that means to establish things; I verily say unto you, if this world falls, is just because things were not done as told; pain and happiness comes out of you; if your brothers suffer, is because the human evilness wanted it so; evilness is not of the Father; it is of men; by forgetting the Father's mandates, they provoked an imbalance in matter and spirit; I verily say unto you, that my First-born Son when restoring the things, he will restore the right position of the Earth's polar axle; this axle was in balance with the planet's molecules, at the beginning of the world; it was then a paradise, when the first human couple fell into disobedience, the Earth's axle suffered a microscopic deviation; along with all the elements of the Earth; through the centuries and without the humanity's knowledge, this deviation of the Earth's polar axle, has come to 42°; this deviation corresponds to the world of trials, or materialistic world; with the presence of the First-born Son in the world, the Omega Era or Spiritual Era, the Earth's polar axle returns to its original position; and it becomes a paradise again; for that was its destiny among infinite worlds.-

Yes little son, time is also living; just as the spirit is; the calendar of the future will be galactic; for time was also born in the suns Alpha and Omega; the year will have eleven months; composed of thirty days; this calendar will have weeks of six days each week; the names of the days will be kept; one will work five days and the sixth day is for relaxation and prayer; this calendar's time will be called, the Millennium Time; for it will last a thousand years of the known ones; time will be expanding, as it has been so far; this is the cause why an eternal calendar does not exist; I verily say unto you, that every calendar that was made and when doing it, the Father was not exalted, its creators do not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for the living time makes worthy the divine mandate: You shall worship your Lord and Creator, above everything; above every making of calendar; it is what the creators of calendars should have taken into account; no-one did it; no-one has entered the Kingdom of Heavens; they created calendars, exalting the life system, which did not teach the Scriptures of the Father; they were created with the intention of regulating the exploitation, which characterizes the life system, created by men; they molded the time to their interests; no-one who thought like that, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who did not know any calendar, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens than for one who got to know it; the first one did not live in alliance with it; the second one did; I verily say unto you, that time has philosophy; just as the spirit has it; for nobody is disinherited; everybody is equal in rights, before God; even if they do not have similar laws and forms; time accompanies the worlds in all their events; just as the elements do; time made divine alliances with the spirit; with each creature of creation; and with matter itself; each spiritual happening and each physical process, requested in the Kingdom an alliance with time; time participates in every final judgment; every time has got hierarchy; just as the human idea itself, which contains quality; philosophy and hierarchy; every time has got its Trinity; just as the microbe has it; nobody is disinherited; time is born with an infancy; for nobody is born with any philosophy in creation; everybody is born in the sun; in innocence and ignorance; the philosophies are learnt in the planetary existences; when the spirit requests to be born again; I verily say unto you, that time asks for reward and punishment to the Eternal, according to the behavior that the creatures who made alliances with it had; and I verily say unto you, that all the elements that got to know you in this world, fulfill the same law; you were taught that all of you are equal before the Father; matter and spirit; the Father's equality, is not the same as the equality concept of men; He is infinite; and has created everything; nothing is impossible to the Creator; I verily say unto you, that for one molecule, many times one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for every little and humble one as the molecule is, is great in power and wisdom in the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that just now you are going to understand the living universe of Father Jehovah; a universe that has been a mystery, for all the generations of this world; for you requested in the Kingdom, to ignore everything, about how you were created; for you requested the trials of life; this forgetfulness comes to its end, with the advent of the doctrine of the Lamb of God to the world; by understanding the living universe of Father Jehovah, you will understand His justice and your justice; the everything above everything, participates in the justice of the final judgment; for everybody, matter and spirit, requested the trials of life; now you will understand the equality of the Father; an equality that you should have imitated above all the human equalities; for it is more likely for one who imitated the Father, to enter the kingdom, than for one who did not; I verily say unto you, that this equality that came out of the Father, and your interests, constitute the supreme trial of your free will; your material interests are a complex and an imperfection of your spirits; rushed by the life system itself; based on gold and therefore on calculation; this calculation takes men further apart from equality; it establishes a demonic rivalry; for one group tries to be superior than the other; they bury the real humility of their hearts; I verily say unto you, that you were all blind; the seconds just slipped by; for each second or less than a second, has got an infinite importance, for the spirit's entrance, to the Kingdom of Heavens; for neither the second lived nor the total existence, are less before the Father; both are equal before the father; I verily say unto you, that just one second or less of violation of the Father's law, and one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who did not violate the law not even in a second, to enter the Kingdom, than for one who violated it one second; this thoroughness was requested by the human spirit; he requested not to forgive himself the most insignificant fault; he requested to fulfill the most unconceivable morals; behold the biblical meaning: Above everything else; imitating the Father is a little less than impossible; but, there are infinite kinds of imitations; within the creature's hierarchy: I verily say unto you, that the tragedy of crying and gnashing of teeth, is that your request of elevated morals, conflicted the selfish demons, who gave you a life system, which has nothing of being moral; but a lot of being immoral; the first immorality within the immoralities, is to forget the law of God; every forgetfulness towards what is of the Father, leads to tragedies for the creature; and every recognition towards what is of the Father, results in awards; and it could not be otherwise; the Creator is light and not darkness; to ignore the Father, is darkness; one cannot serve two masters; one cannot serve two philosophies; you cannot serve your shameful life system, and at the same time serve God; you fall into hypocrisy; every good work that you have done in life, you nullify it at every instant; for you are living a life system, which did not take what is of the Father into account; this means to serve the demon; you know very well that this life system, keeps you divided in rich and poor; and only satan divides and he divides himself; the Father divides nobody;

every thought that is divided, does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that every life system, which is not governed by what is of the Father, such system causes tragedy; just as it happened in the ancient world; for this world has had many judgments; your final judgment is the last one; I verily say unto you, that every judgment is requested in the Kingdom, by the children themselves; in the Kingdom of Heavens, everything is requested; including the judgments; judgments that are characteristic of the imperfect worlds; and I verily say unto you, that there is no-one in the universe of the Father, who has not undergone a judgment; for everyone has gone through imperfection; nobody is born wise; even the divinity has undergone such experience; and I verily say unto you, that it is more likely for one who had more experience than another, to enter the Kingdom; even regarding judgments; this is because the most microscopic effort, is awarded in the Kingdom; and the lightest violation is punished; I verily say unto you, that in your judgment, your 318 virtues participate; the elements that saw you being born participate; your Ark of Covenants participate; I verily say unto you, that each one of you, is an ark full of surprises; for the Ark of Covenants are you yourselves; everything comes out of you; for each one makes his own heaven; including the characteristics of the final judgment; I verily say unto you, as there is everything in the flock of the Father, there are many who do not believe either in their judgment or in others'; but the law is fulfilled anyway; only that in these skeptics, the crying and gnashing of teeth, is much greater; the final judgment takes its characteristics, from what each one did in their lives; second by second, instant by instant, molecule by molecule, cell by cell, an eye by an eye, and a tooth by a tooth; virtue by virtue; for matter and spirit are judged; I verily say unto you, even your excrements, came out of the Father; its living philosophy is to keep the internal process of your body; without the excrement, all of you would die rotten in life; your body would explode in gases; I verily say unto you, that all of those who ridiculed by word their own excrements, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for everyone is equal before the Father; every offended one claims for justice; being it spirit or matter; nobody should have ever ridiculed anybody; for you were told to be humble, above everything; I verily say unto you, that if you stopped being humble even one second, you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who was humble even one second, to enter the Kingdom, than for one who was not; this means that humility, is almighty in the Kingdom of Heavens; and its power is such that if a blessed one stopped being humble, in less than a second, that blessed one does not enter the kingdom of Heavens; he must pay its debt being born again; in another existence; and I verily say unto you, that for each second of violation in any of the virtues, it is paid with another existence; for you promised to fulfill the law of the Father, above everything; what is of the Father has no limits; it is for this divine cause that the judgment requested by yourselves, is rigorous; in the Father's divine opinion, you requested something too superior to your capacities; you were not capable of rejecting a shameful life system; if all of you with no exception would have been revolutionaries, such system would not have been known in this world; this revelation exalts every revolutionary that searched for justice; giving even his own life for others; my First-born Son is for you, the First Revolutionary, who tried to live in this world, a Doctrine that came out of the Kingdom of Heavens; a divine Doctrine; and he fulfilled the same law of those who created these human doctrines; there will not be a greater sacrifice in this world; for my First-born Son had solar powers; your nature was subordinated to him; did he not order the winds to calm down? Did he not resurrect the already dead flesh? But he did not want to use his divine powers, against you; he preferred the Father's divine will; if the human revolutionaries render their lives for their ideals, how will the Trinity Son not render it? I verily say unto you, that the infinite Trinities that go to the infinite worlds are the first ones to fulfill the laws of sacrifices, in those worlds; for the Trinities are the maximum expression after the Father; I verily say unto you, that the elements are also trinities in their laws; for matter and spirit, have got the same rights before the Father; the calendar that will replace the present one, is the product of your actions; all what you are is the product of your knowledge; you are the salt of life; for every knowledge that was gained, shines like salt exposed to the sun; and you are a miniature sun; you are so little, that not even you can see the brightness; but you will see the brightness of my First-born Son; who will come to the world, shining like a sun of wisdom; for you will see brightness on his Face; you will see a Solar Father; one of the infinite ones that exist in the universe; for what is of the father has neither a beginning nor an end; there are as many solar first-born sons, as there are suns in the universe; and all the Solar Trinities, are assimilated into one; the Father is in all of them; and the children in the Father; what is of the Father, is of the Son; and what is of the Son is of the Father; behold the celestial communism in the Solar Trinity; in the Kingdom of Heavens, reigns the celestial communism, with a children's philosophy; there the perpetual joy reigns; and one who did not fulfill the trials of life, with a child's joy, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that you yourselves requested in the Kingdom, to imitate on Earth, the Kingdom's philosophy; but, the demons that gave you an unfair life system, transformed what should have always been joy; they transformed you into bitter beings distrusting everybody; behold the fruit and the influence of a life system, based on ambition; behold the demon and his work; for no-one who forgot joy, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who was cheerful, to enter the Kingdom, than for one who let himself get down; for every spirit is trialed in life; and he promised the Father to undergo his trials with joy; imitating the happy philosophy of the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that it is very difficult to live cheerfully, when one lives in an unfair life system; for bitterness takes over the spirit; because of the injustice of a few; I verily say unto you, that the few that subjugate the world, are condemned; the world will know them; for the same world they gave bitterness and injustice to as an inheritance, will crush them; the world itself will measure them with the same rod they measured; and these ambitious and selfish beings that sustain the life system, based on gold, shall remain in the greatest poverty; individuals and nations; I will extend over them, poverty and ruin; for they requested it so in the kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that the world knows its oppressors; where there is prosperity the demon is there; there are many kinds of demons; the oldest one in his exploiting philosophy, is the head of the serpent; the same one of the earthly paradise; I verily say unto you, that from these will the crying and gnashing of teeth begin; for they requested to be the first; the first in abundance and commodity; and the first in the final judgment; I verily say unto you, that every beginning, is so with a life request; and every request turns into life; up above as well as down below; for the worlds are up above and down below; they are infinite; I verily say unto you, that in infinite worlds, which will never be able to be counted, their creatures express themselves up above and down below; and it is not the only way of expressing the beginning and the origin of divinity; for there is everything in the vineyard of the Lord; I verily say unto you, that every living beginning, as you are, came out of you; it came out of your own ideas, which you generated in other existences; in other births; for every spirit is born again; he requests and requests again existences to the Father; for with only one existence, the spirit will never know everything; this will know everything, is eternally relative; only the Father knows everything; before the everything is born; there is in the universe the galactic organization; just as you have it in your world; what is up above is the same as down below; I verily say unto you, that your world, will get in contact with other planetary dwellings; and these contacts, will be led by the First-born Son; for just as you were taught; He is the first one in everything; that everything escapes the human mind; for the divine hierarchy of the First-born Son is solar; it is from Trinity Son in Trinity Father; He has the knowledge that has neither a beginning nor an end; for what is of the Father is of the Son; behold a new and unknown concept of the Trinity; a concept that you yourselves requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; the Father can do it all; everything that has been imagined coming out of the creatures, He turns them into reality; He turns them into universes; and your life requests, turned into the planet you are on; I verily say unto you, one who does not believe, denies the Father; who has created everything; to deny is to deny oneself; for everything exists; that is why you were told: You shall adore your Creator, God and Lord, above everything; but there are many ways of worshipping; and I verily say unto you, that the most sublime to the Father, is when one adores Him through work; it is the supreme adoration; for the Father is extolled, as well as the Son; the Father is elevated, and the son gains merit; it is the only adoration that leads to the Kingdom of Heavens; for it is more likely for one who worked in my name, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who adored me in temples; the first one fulfilled the Father's law; the last one fulfilled his law; it was written: In the sweat of your face you shall gain your bread; I wanted to tell you: You will earn your bread, with your work; just as the Father, who with his divine work created the universes; and one who has not worked in life, as it was ordered, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; behold the crying and gnashing of teeth, of those who never worked; of those who lived off from exploitation; of the easy-attitude ones; of those who lived at the expense of others; I verily say unto you, that none of these demons, shall remain in this world; the law of the final judgment, which begins by a Doctrine, was requested by these demons; in case they fell into violation; and they fell because they did not work; for they defended a licentiousness that is a strange moral standard in the Kingdom of Heavens; and I verily say unto you, that the concept of liberty of this world, is a strange moral standard in the Kingdom of Heavens; for it is a liberty, that came out of a life system, which did not recognize the Father above everything; it started from the living violation; that liberty has ended up in licentiousness; this liberty's quality of this world, proves the consequences that result from moving away from the mandates of the Father; what is of the Father does not corrupt; what is of the demon corrupts and divides; I verily say unto you, that all of those who lived and defended this corrupted licentiousness, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who did not know the liberty that came out of violation, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; than for one who got to know it and lived it; the first one did not commit scandal; the second one did commit scandal; I verily say unto you, the Doctrine of the Lamb of God, will put things in order; the false concepts, like defending a corrupted liberty, will fall; only the righteous shall remain in this world; to believe of oneself as being righteous, one should have lived only for his brother; not for oneself; your life system, prevented you from practicing that law; for every effort done in life, took with it the interest, calculation and shrewdness; you made progress, by being indifferent to others; I verily say unto you, it would have been better for you not to have made progress, if at the same time you violate the law of the Father; you nullify yourselves; for one cannot serve two masters; whether you serve God, by serving your brothers, or you do not serve Him; I verily say unto you, that the master of amusement and the master of illusion, got you astray; you let the living seconds slip away; you missed the opportunity of entering the Kingdom of Heavens again.-

THE ORIGIN OF DREAMS; DREAMS ARE REQUESTS MADE BY THE SPIRIT; DREAM IS THE TRAVEL OF THE LIVING IDEAS THROUGH SPACES, TIMES AND PHILOSOPHIES, THAT THE SPIRIT LIVED IN OTHER EXISTENCES; EVERY DREAM IS PROPHETIC FOR THE PAST LOOKED AT THE FUTURE; ITS PROPHECIES ARE FOR EVERY PRESENT THAT IS LIVED AND IS TO BE LIVED.-

Yes little son; dreams are ideas in free will; dream is the experience of every idea that travels again through where it traveled before the spirit got united to a body of flesh; before the union with the flesh, the spirit traveled through spaces, dimensions, suns, galaxies, cosmos, worlds; when getting united to a body of flesh, the spirit got enclosed into a present; this present brought the spirit, obligations with the physical laws of the flesh; the spirit requested a free will, which included going along through where it had already gone through when it was free; every dream is equivalent to a third of a total of a spiritual knowledge; a spiritual knowledge is, at the same time, equivalent to a third of an intuition formed in the present; this means that every dream has got a quality, which is equivalent to a third of depth in the past; this third is what is prophetic; the other two thirds of a dream, correspond to the influences that the spirit undergoes, in his present life; there are dreams that do not coincide with the experiences of the present that the spirit lives; this is because certain spirits have a marked influence of experiences occurred in other existences; which left more profound marks in his thinking; when dreaming, the spirit tends to feel better; nightmares are debts in the respective psychology, that the spirit requested to know; nightmares are from darkness; and every darkness subjugates at the same time, its laws, to be trialed in a world of light; light and darkness are living; both request the Creator their laws to be trialed; those trials occurred when the spirits request to get united to matter; and matter requests to get united to a spirit; every dream is understood, when the spirit knows how his own spirit was made; for all things came out of the same law; from just one God, dreams have a physical and spiritual explanation; for the spirit is also formed by flesh; flesh and spirit, constitute the creature that produces dreams; every dream represents what happened in another point in the universe; other places; other lives; for every spirit is born again, in an infinite number; all the experience of a past, tries to express itself when the physical body is at rest; in that instant the spirit is lying in wait, to travel through where it had already traveled in remote points of the universe; dreaming is similar to the time when the transformation called death arrives; many experiences that were dreamed in life, the spirit meets them again in death; for every spirit returns to his point of origin, through the same way or dimension he used when being born in a body; he does it by means of the solar cord; the human solar cords, are united to the suns Alpha and Omega of the galaxy Trino; a galactic concept from which the term Trinity was born; the Trinity refers to the place or point of the universe, where the creature was formed; the Trinity as a knowledge in the origin of each spirit, makes its entrance to the world, by the Revelation; what before one knew a little or nothing, now it will be known; dream is the normal life of a spirit; until the instant in which he requests to know a life in a remote planet; it is a momentary interruption in the spirit's life; once the planetary life is finished, the spirit returns to the living dream; he returns to eternity, which he had left for an instant; it is called instant the time a human life lasts; lives as seen from a spirit's point of view, are only instants; for he lives forever a sensation that does not know any limit; every dream is a product of two concerns in the creature; the living influence of the flesh, which claims for the fulfillment of its physical laws; and the influence of the spirit, for his wishes to come true; both flesh and spirit claim for them to the creature's free will; being dream boundless in space, it is also united by a solar cord; it is united to each virtue of the spirit and to each molecule of the flesh; if this expansive cord would get cut, the creature would die; for the spirit to part; this has occurred in certain beings; who requested the Father to know such experience, for they did not know it; many requests made by the spirit, are not of the Father's pleasure; but the spirits insist in knowing this or that experience; the Father grants everything; every dream has its reason of being; for neither chance nor luck exist; everything is law before the Father; every dream is inseparable from the events that a creature has to live; for each human event or happening, is also united by solar cords; I verily say unto you, that the solar cords cover everything; the Alpha lines are in every idea, virtue, fibers and molecules; this knowledge explains infinite phenomena unexplainable up to now; every dream comes true in time; many times it happens in the present life; others, in other existences; for the quality in a dream, is different from the quality of a material happening; and it happens that the spirits request the Father, to know in the life of the remote planet they are going, an experience they got to know as a dream; therefore, many existences are born from a future made present in a past; every dream forms out of the Earth its own reigns; for everything imagined is as expansive as the material universe itself; for imagination and the planets, came out of a same point of the universe; of the same law; of just one only God; every dream lives a law which gives place, to many invisible intelligences; these intelligences are the divine cherubs; they are in the Father's Scriptures; but, now its law is explained; the Cherubs are the intelligences that command the molecules; the winds move because of them, the oceans, the Earth movements; every movement in the planets' nature, is done by the action of the cherubs; for each element and for each virtue, there is a hierarchy of cherubs; the Cherub is the Alpha and Omega of creation; the First-born Son acted through the cherubs; it was a mental command; I verily say unto you, that you will soon see the prodigies of a Solar Son; soon you will see what is the power that comes from the Kingdom of Heavens; just as the generations of the ancient world saw it; I verily say unto you, that the time of the crying and gnashing of teeth of every tyrant and violator of the Father's law is coming.-

Yes little son; so it is as you see it daily; every dream is an observation done by the spirit; the spirit observes without occupying the body of flesh; it disregards the physical laws; just as every spirit dreams and observes scenes of remote worlds, the Earth is also observed from other worlds; by creatures that also dream; what is up above is the same as down below; and you are not only observed by the dream; you are also observed by powerful instruments; just as you have them on Earth; the dream is constituted by laws that irradiate expansive magnetism; every dream does it at the speed of a thought; every dream in its mental velocity, is subjected to its Trinity made present; every dream is subordinated to the destiny of each molecule of the flesh; every dream makes alliances in space; the universe of the instantaneous comes out to meet it; every dream is a microscopic universe of colors; which has space, time and philosophy; for a spirit to dream, constitutes an alliance with the cherubs of the dream, every dream is written in the kingdom of Heavens; just as all the scenes in life are written; every dream generates other dreams, and these others; for they are as expansive as the universe itself; just as the physical ideas that you generate daily; which give place to colossal planets in the eternity of time; every dream is requested to the Father by the spirits; just as life is requested with all its scenes; every dream travels in space along with the physical ideas that are generated in life; the flying saucers pick up ideas and dreams; behold a divine mission, ignored by the knowledge of this world; the flying saucers have got infinite names; for the humanities that observe them are infinite; Father Jehovah in his divine free will, calls them silvery vessels; for they have a shiny metal; the flying saucers' crewmembers, know everything about you; for they brought you to the universal life, when the Earth was a microscopic spark that came out of the suns Alpha and Omega; every planet came out of an invisible idea; a magnetic spiritual principle; which will never ever stop expanding; there is only one universe; the thinking expansive universe; and within this universe, are all that the minds can imagine; the cause of the universe, is the same cause of the dream; for every dream comes true in other dimensions; it becomes a universe; every dream constitutes an inheritance, which as time passes by, waits for the return of the father that created it; the mind that generated it; for nobody is disinherited; everyone has a beginning; and the expansive dream has it in the one who dreamed it; many do not believe in their dreams; I verily say unto you, that one who did not believe, does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for everything exists in the Father; the unbelief should not exist in this world; for were you not taught that your God is infinite? One who did not believe even in his own dreams, nobody will believe him, out of the Earth; the living laws of the light, will abandon him; for out of the Earth, everything is mental; everything is telepathic; and wherever the spirit goes, they will read its mind; the dreams that are negated, complain before the Father; they accuse the spirit, of being spiteful; for they negate them, being a divine alliance between spirit and dream; which was written in the Kingdom of Heavens; behold a crying and gnashing of teeth, for the ones who despised their inheritance; it is more likely for those who treated their dreams with respect, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; than for those who did not believe and even made fun of them; matter and spirit demand the same respect before the Father; every dream is at the same time scenes that constitute the beginning of new causes; the cherubs of the dream, have awaited for immemorial times; the materialization of a dream; just as a world has awaited for centuries, the arrival of a prophet; what is up above is the same as down below; in every dream happens what happens in every planet; hustle and bustle, crowds moving, and everything is influenced by the individuality that had the dream; his philosophy, his psychology, the quality of his actions; I verily say unto you, that it is frequent in the universe, that the spirits request the Father, to be born again on a planet, which had as a principle, a dream lived by the spirit himself, in a world of the past; behold a law called the Return of a Solar Father, in celestial science; for the mind that generated the dream, is like a gigantic sun for the cherubs of the microcosm; for the everything above everything, is constituted by dimensions that are invisible to the eyes of the creatures themselves; every dimension is hierarchic; this means that from one emerge others in an infinite succession; the succession has no limits; it never ceases of being expanded; until it becomes a macrocosm; every dream is born coming out of the same law from which the maker of the dream came; and every dream constitutes a reincarnation; for it came out of the spirit and flesh; behold everything that comes out of you, is of the same essence as yours; even if it presents different qualities; every microbe generated by your body, has got your characteristics; behold for every spirit who violated the Father's law, the influence of the violation, also falls into their microbes; behold the cause of why you were instilled to cultivate goodness in life; if you cultivated goodness, everything that has come out of your body and soul, will defend you before the Father; they request awards for you; for you made them also advance towards the Father; if you cultivated evil, everything microscopic that came out of you, accuses you before the Father; for the influence of sin and condemnation, falls on them too; just as the spirit provokes its tragedy, it also provokes it for its inheritance; everything is expansive in the universe; from each generated idea's proper quality, comes out an eternity that keeps the characteristics; and so it is that every microbe in its development through the cosmos, speaks of a father's story, who having sinned, transmitted it his sin; behold a microscopic replica of what Adam and Eve did with their future earthly inheritance; in each individuality as well as in each microbe that came out of you, the spirit's free will, repeats the inclinations that Adam and Eve had; I verily say unto you, that there is no human idea, that does not have the influence of his first parents; so it is that all of those who having seen the Rolls of the Revelation and did nothing in the first second of the passing time, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; Father Jehovah reminds these creatures, that the promise they made to the Father, was to make others know, the Revelation, above everything else; the term: Above everything else, means Above every time of delay; for what is of the Father, is first among all the firsts; He is first than the first second gone by; from the same instant that the eyes saw the Scriptures of Revelation; all those who saw the Rolls of the Lamb and said nothing, must add up all the seconds gone by in which the time of indifference lasted; up to the same instant of repentance; what is of the Father should have never been postponed; this postponement even if it was just a second, reverberates in the virtues, microbes, dreams, molecules, and ideas; and the will complain weeping before the Father; for they have feelings, whose qualities are the same as the spirit that generated them.-

TO THE CHILDREN THAT STUDY MY SCRIPTURES; EVERY CONCEPT HAS ITS TIME AND END; ONE LIGHT FOLLOWS ANOTHER; JUST AS THE GENERATIONS FOLLOW EACH OTHER.-

Yes children that search for the knowledge that leads to the Father; it was written: He who searches shall find; every effort as microscopic as it could be, fulfills the divine mandate: In the sweat of your face you shall earn your bread; behold the oldest mandate among the divine mandates; every mandate that came out of the divine Father Jehovah, has neither a beginning nor an end; His mandates are not only for one world; for the creation of the Father is not limited to only one world; as many believe; nobody is unique in the universe; only the Father is unique; and being unique He allows everything to exist; every concept was requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; and every request includes time, space and philosophy; what the spirit requests, matter also requests it; for nobody is less before the Father; neither matter nor spirit; everything is alive before the Father, death corresponds to the requests of life trials; for one is born ignoring everything; even death; every concept that refers to the Father, must distinguish three things: The study of my Scriptures, the so-called religions and the Revelation; for these three concepts were requested by you yourselves; three requests and just one law; one who studies my Scriptures, is first in the Kingdom of Heavens; for every Scripture is the Father's own free will; and one who gives preference to the Father in his heart and mind, is first in the Kingdom; the so-called religions, are a form that came out of the human psychology, to interpret the Father's Word; and every interpretation is also a trial; just as all the trials of life; I verily say unto you, that every religion is the first one to be judged, for thus was requested by the children of the rock; I verily say unto you, that the so-called religions, shall be accused before the world, of dividing my children in many beliefs; being just one God only; only satan divides himself; I verily say unto you, that the so-called religions are unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; as well as every philosophy that divides the planetary flocks; I verily say unto you, that it is more likely for one who did not know a religion, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who got to know it; the first one divides no-one; the second one is divided in spirit; and I verily say unto you, that no divided spirit, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; everybody promised the father neither divide themselves nor divide anybody; the Revelation is the addition to the already existing light; your Father Jehovah to make the worlds advance, does not need to divide them; for a father unifies his work; he does not divide it; your Creator uses living Doctrines; for they are Doctrines to be lived; they change the customs of my creatures; you know very well studious of my Scriptures, that in the past I sent you the Mosaic Law; then came the Christian Doctrine; and the third one is the Doctrine of the Lamb of God; I verily say unto you, that this Doctrine will cover all the face of the Earth; what is of the Father has no limits; by the fruit a tree is known; by the content of a doctrine, one knows if it is of God or not; I verily say unto you, that if you are the first to see the Rolls, is because you requested it so; your Father Jehovah has no privileged ones; if my son receives a Telepathic Writing, is because he has earned it; and all of you will receive it by your merits and work; I verily say unto you, that the so-called privilege is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; in the macrocosm called the Kingdom of Heavens, one lives the celestial communism with a child's psychology; that is why it was written: Let the children come to me, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heavens; for in the Kingdom of the Father, one lives in eternal happiness, and I verily say unto you, that one who did not live in constant joy, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who endured his trials with joy, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who endured them complaining; the most microscopic merit, is awarded by the Father; and the most microscopic violation is punished; you children of the studies are going to enter, a new era; an era that is once more initiated by the Father's living Word; and I verily say unto you, that you are going to witness, the greatest revolution in the human knowledge; for what is greater comes out of the Father; this world will know its Final Judgment by illustration first; with full knowledge of the facts; for each judgment has a cause; up above as well as down below; I verily say unto you, that even the most minimal detail in this judgment, you requested it so, and it was granted to you; the Christian world will be shuddered by what they requested in the Kingdom; and what is going to happen here, also happens in infinite points of the universe; points are called the planets in the Kingdom of Heavens; every new knowledge carries along controversies; for each one is a living truth; one is born searching for the truth; the free will is a fire or magnetic saturation, which came out of the suns Alpha and Omega, from the galaxy Trino; there is only one universe; the Expansive Thinking Universe; and within this universe, are all that the mind can imagine; what does not exist on Earth, is out of it; the Father's living universe, is so infinite, that the so-called fantasy becomes a reality; were you not taught that what is of the Father has no limits? It is equivalent to say that everything exists; one who doubts the Father's power, he will be doubted as well, in the Kingdom of Heavens; one who denies the Father, denies his own entrance to the Kingdom; I verily say unto you, the greatest spiritual revolution that this world will know, is the war of Armageddon itself; behold a light to one of the interpretative mysteries, that the human creature requested; Armageddon means in Celestial Science, People who get armed; for each one will get armed with their own work; to confront the intellectual judgment; it is not a material war; as many scholars believe; the Father does not need by principle, to use the force against His children; only when the children's hearts turn into rock of the human selfishness, does the Father intervene in nature itself; just as it happened in your world's judgments of the past; for this world has had many judgments; every judgment of the Father, is parallel to the creatures' acts in their respective evolution; so it is that your judgment could not be applied to the ancient world; for the spirit of antiquity, requested other trials in life; other morals, other understanding, other customs and another philosophy; these creatures were more primitive; intuitive; the intellect was not born in them yet; they did not have any concept of the eternity of the living God; no matter how immoral they could have been, they were in their laws; they were very easily impressed by the natural tremors; their free wills, were influenced by matter; such was their awakening to life; these spirits of antiquity, requested in the Kingdom, to know what they did not know; and every life in the universe has no other objective but their own improvement; each existence represents a momentary absence of the spirit, from the Kingdom of Heavens; the existences have a termination of what they represent; the spirit is eternal; it does not have a termination; the existences were taught in the parable: Every spirit is born again; for knowledge in the Father is so infinite, that one existence is not sufficient to know it all; indeed, nobody knows everything; only the Father who has created everything; the ancient world known by you, emerged from the elements themselves; from matter itself; just as so many other microscopic creatures are born; for one has to be very little and humble, to become greater in the Kingdom of Heavens; nothing in the Father's creation, was originated gigantic; all of you were microbes, even the Kingdom of Heavens itself; for the mandates of Father Jehovah have no limits; they are not only for one or two worlds; they are for infinite worlds; which will never be able to be counted; every beginning whether it is in spirit or matter, fulfills the same law; nobody is less before the Father; neither matter nor spirit; for all are equal before God; I verily say unto you, that everybody has the same rights; be it matter in its laws, as well as the spirit in his; matter and spirit are the same thing; which came out of the same law; of one only God; and manifested in different free wills; the spirit has life as well as matter, in their respective laws; for everything is alive before the Father; He is a living God who creates living things; the death that you know is one of the characteristics of the living; it is the ending between the living alliances that the spirit requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; it is the termination of his ark of covenants; I verily say unto you, that the ark of covenants, is the union of the spirit, with the elements of nature; nobody is born alone; along with the spirit other microscopic creatures are developed; they are the virtues and the molecules; I verily say unto you, that every human flesh, is composed of 318 virtues; in any instant and daily your thinking uses these 318 virtues in its ideas; just as the Father is creator of gigantic worlds, so are you creators of ideas; I verily say unto you, that your ideas are the most microscopic things that you have in this world; the ideas do not die; they have the same rights that the spirit has; your spirit is eternal; and your ideas, a product of the spirit himself, keeps the inheritance; it becomes eternal in an expansive way; just as the universe of the colossal gets expanded; what is up above is the same as down below; for what is up above was also, in the galactic past, a microscopic and invisible idea; the divine mandate of the Father of let there be light, was the first divine mental idea; from this idea have all the rest come out of; and this creation shall never end; I verily say unto you, that from your invisible ideas, the future worlds of your future heaven are born; it was written: Each one makes his own heaven; for each one creates his own work; and in every work there are ideas; they are inseparable; the Father creates in infinite sizes; and you in microscopic sizes; what is up above is the same as down below; for nobody is disinherited; what the Father has, the children have too; yours is so microscopic, that you are unknown in the kingdom of Heavens; that is why it was written: For you are dust, and to dust you will return; it means in other words: from the microscopic you are, and to the microscopic you return; for you are born again, going through infinite planets earths; I verily say unto you, that being born again is the reincarnation itself; one law can be expressed in many forms, and it does not stop being the same law; to reincarnate or be born again is the entrance of the spirit to a new flesh; when it requests a new existence; it is entering into living a new ark of covenants; it is to know a new world, new laws, new virtues, new knowledge, new salt of life, new science and new philosophy; I verily say unto you, that the salt of life, is the knowledge itself learnt in each existence; every knowledge shines like salt shines to the sun rays; that is why it was written: And He will arrive into the world shining like a sun of wisdom; for my First-born Son's salt of life, is of a solar hierarchy; the suns are as living as you; what is up above is the same as down below; there is life up above and life down below; you are earthly parents, and up above solar parents; and just one God only; I verily say unto you, that the laws that were given to you, were also given up above, the Father makes the microcosm and macrocosm, fulfill the same law; and it does not affect in anyway, the variety of the free will; an intelligent attitude in the creature when he meets something that is unknown to him, is not to argue at first hand; but to deepen; search; for he who searches shall find; and it is more likely for one who searched to enter the Kingdom than for one who did not; he who searches, investigates, fulfills the parable; he who does not search, does not fulfill it; every mental activity, even if it is microscopic, is awarded in the Kingdom of the Father; for being in everything, I am also in the microscopic; I verily say unto you, that you will witness extraordinary facts; for just as I give my son wisdom, I can also give power over matter; this generation, demands signs; for they have not cultivated the real faith; the faith that believes without seeing; it was written that the living faith moves mountains; I verily say unto you, that one who did not cultivate faith in life, will not be resurrected the year 2001; for he did not believe in his award; Father Jehovah respects the beliefs; and those who did not believe in Him, continue their destinies through the worlds; but they shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that all of you requested a judgment with first-hand knowledge; you requested to know how things were done; behold the cause of a judgment with infinite wisdom; an intellectual judgment; a judgment within everybody's reach; a judgment that establishes all the things that were deviated since the past; since the precise moment you got to know gold; before knowing gold, this world was a paradise; for its creatures did not know temptation; nobody deceived anyone; nobody divided anybody; neither in the material nor in the spiritual; your life system, divided you in rich and poor; and the so-called religions divided my flock in many beliefs, being one God only; and you know very well, that only satan divides himself; satan is among you; for evil is among you; and I verily say unto you, that the only satan that this world has, is those who sustain the life system, based on gold; in ambition and calculation; I verily say unto you, that because of these demons, this humanity shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for they received division as an inheritance; its creatures do not have the same innocence with which they came out of the Kingdom of Heavens; it would have been different if this humanity, would not have found itself in this shameful life system; they would enter the Kingdom of the Father; for they would not be divided; their virtues that made divine alliances with their spirits, would not accuse them; for all the being would be a unity; I verily say unto you, that it is more likely for one who did not get to know gold, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who got to know it; behold one of the major causes of the crying and gnashing of teeth; for every custom, habit, tendency, vices, determination, fashion came out of the life system itself, which scandalizes the Father's divine morals; you did just the opposite to what it was commanded; if there were slaves in the past, you have them now too; only that you cannot take their lives; but you take eternity from them; every life system, in every world, are the first ones to be judged upon; for they have the responsibility, of the customs in the children; every life system, is alive before the Father; it accuses its creators, when they did not guide themselves by the mandates that were given to them; for every act requested up above, is trialed down below; if there is censure down below, up above there is too; what is up above is the same as down below; I verily say unto you, that those who created such life system, it would have been better for them, not to have been born in this world; for the world that they themselves divided in rich and poor, shall despise them; and I verily say unto you, that every rich nation, shall remain in the most appalling poverty; every poverty known in this world, came out of them; with the rod they measured, they shall be measured; and so will be for every rich; it was written: the humble are first in the Kingdom of Heaven; if they are first up above, so should they have been down below; and it means that according to the divine mandate, all the poor nations of this world, will make one only power; the biggest that the Earth will know; there was never such nation on this planet; nor will there ever be; its children will multiply like the sand grits of a desert; this nation will be led by the Lamb of God, for the Father's living word, expressed in a new doctrine, will make the trees that He did not plant fall; the trees that the Father did not plant, are the philosophies that divided the world; the ones that were not led by His Scriptures; behold the meaning of another parable; the Earth shall pass, but my Words shall not pass; I referred to the earth created by men; a world and its customs; my Words shall not pass, means that a new Doctrine remains on this planet; for every Doctrine that came out of the kingdom, comes out of the living Word of Father Jehovah; I verily say unto you, that you will witness the transformation of this dwelling; which requested a life form, with forgetfulness of the past; not all the lives of the worlds, have this forgetfulness, of what they were in the past; there are so many forms of life, in the universe, as there are worlds; nothing has a limit in the Father; every life, is a request made in the Kingdom of Heavens; and every request, is a life; every life has its quality<sup>1</sup> and its quality; quality<sup>1</sup> is the philosophy in life; and quality is the hierarchy; for each one, is a living power in the Kingdom of Heavens; the knowledge learnt in the existences, constitutes the hierarchy; every power in the Kingdom, is a creative power; microscopic replicas of the Father's power; for nobody is disinherited; what the Father has in an infinite degree, the children have it too, in a microscopic degree; I verily say unto you, that everything that exists, was made to the image and resemblance of the Father; for nobody is less in rights, before the Creator; your life is so microscopic, that it is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; only the Father and certain solar fathers, who were prophets on the Earth, know it; that is why it was written: From dust you are and to dust you return; it means: From the microscopic you are and to the microscopic you return; for every spirit is born again; it goes through infinite planetary dwellings, without coming out of the microcosm; gradually, it passes to the macrocosm; I verily say unto you, that no-one in the universe, is gigantic, if they have not been microscopic; everyone with no exception, was a microbe; for one has to be very little and humble, to be greater in the Kingdom of Heavens; whoever says the contrary, belittles his own merit; renounces the law, which gave him an evolutionary progress; for being his spirit eternal, one human existence, is not enough, and will never be, to learn what has no end; if you are of the Father's creation, what is yours has no limits; behold children, a Revelation that will make millions of creatures cry; for they were never concerned about their eternity on Earth; it is more likely for one who tried to understand his eternity, to enter the Kingdom of heavens; than for one who did not do it; in the Kingdom of the Father, the most minimal effort is awarded; and the most microscopic violation, is punished; yes little son; let us proceed to get ready; the time is coming for you to gather together with your brothers of the life trials; one of the so many gatherings, that were requested and written in the kingdom of Heavens; So be it divine Father Jehovah; may your divine will, come true in me; I know little son that you are afraid of the present generation; for there is in their hearts, a rock of selfishness; there is a spiritual hardness; they have built their hopes up in the demons, who forced them to accept the life system; for only in the presence of the armed forces, they feel safe; I verily say unto you, that no government that hid itself behind any form of force, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for a government that governed without the presence of the force, to enter the Kingdom; neither its so-called armed forces, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; they were warned through the centuries; it is written: He who kills by sword, dies by sword; it means in the telepathic concept of Revelation: He who thought of using the force as a means of solution in the laws of the world, others will use the force against him in other existences; in other worlds; do not do to others, what you would not like them to do to you; the members of the so-called armed forces, forgot that the Creator's mandate says: You shall not kill any conceivable way; this is for the intention of killing just for killing; like the demons, who entertain themselves by hunting my creations; I verily say unto you, that every hunter of this world, will be hunted in other worlds; no damned hunter, murderer of the innocence of other children, shall enter the Kingdom; it is more likely for one who did not know hunting, to enter the Kingdom, than for one who got to know it and practiced it; I verily say unto you, that all the creatures that you killed, damned hunters, all of them are waiting for you in the Kingdom of Heavens; they are waiting for you, to accuse you before the Creator, of being their murderers; the Father's justice is for everyone; for all are equal before the father; equal in rights; whatever physical form one may have; those who you call despitefully animals, are spirits like you; and even if they were not spirits, they always have the right, to be equal in justice before the Father; nobody has the right to kill another, for he is not the owner of that creation; to kill another, is to kill a creation of the Father; one who kills, would not like another to kill him; but he likes to kill; all those who killed in this world, are damned; they are condemned; nobody must talk to them; for one who talks to them, the law of damnation falls on him too; I verily say unto you, one who killed, the law of damnation falls on his inheritance too; up to the fourth generation; only the children up to the age of twelve, are innocent; once he passes the age of twelve, he fulfills the hereditary law; everything is expansive in the creation of Father Jehovah; that everything covers matter and spirit; for the everything above everything, requested to participate in everything; the word damned means spirit of darkness; beings that came out the universes of evil; and who requested to try a life in the universes of the light; darkness is also a living philosophy; and they represent galactic histories that rebelled against the Scriptures and Laws of Father Jehovah; for each world like yours; has got its Holy Scriptures, nobody is disinherited; neither matter nor spirit; darkness has distorted the quality<sup>1</sup> and quality of the Father's law; just as in your planet Earth; the teachings of the Father contained in His Scriptures, represent the highest quality<sup>1</sup> and quality that you can imagine; and you children of the Earth, by violating the Father's law, you distort the quality<sup>1</sup> and the quality; your quality<sup>1</sup> and quality as a thinking human creature, does not give you the entrance to the kingdom of Heavens; for it is there where the universal knowledge is created; there came your individual psychology and philosophy from; and I verily say unto you, that psychology and philosophy are as living as your spirit; philosophy and psychology have also got free will; just as the spirit has it; behold the essence of your individuality; behold the quality<sup>1</sup> and the quality, of the Father's Scriptures; which have eternity as the characteristic of their quality<sup>1</sup> and quality; an eternity that is also living; and which also has a free will; an eternity that requested to be studied and understood by your individuality; all your 318 virtues, have got a free will; one independent from the other; and all of them with a first-hand knowledge; for everything is alive before the Father; before coming to the planetary lives, the spirits request the Creator, to know the qualities<sup>1</sup> and qualities of their virtues and elements; they requested to know the quality<sup>1</sup> and quality of matter and spirit; quality<sup>1</sup> is the thinking philosophy, and quality the hierarchy; the characteristic of the hierarchy that prevails as intelligence, above other intelligences; requesting qualities<sup>1</sup> and qualities; requesting qualities<sup>1</sup> and qualities of planetary lives that the spirit does not know, is what is called the Ark of Covenants; or materialization of a thinking being; everybody with no exception, in matter and spirit, have got equal rights to their Ark of Covenants; I verily say unto you, that the Ark of Covenants is the Alpha and Omega, of creation; of what was, is and will be; the Ark of Covenants is the beginning of each one; the beginning of all what you are; a physical, mental, spiritual, or individual

Beginning; your organism is composed of infinite living creatures; from which you only feel the cause but not the effect; the cause is your behavior; you behave but do not know its origin; you know the exterior behavior of these creatures; the interior you will understand it after the transformation called death; these invisible creatures are called the divine Cherubs; which are magnetic lines that arrange the development of every molecule or virtue in the creature; the cherubs shine like a ruby; or like salt exposed to the sun; behold the law by which my First-born Solar Christ acted, over your planetary nature; He ordered the elements, water and the winds, by telepathy to the cherubs of matter; and these ordered the molecules, it was a process from the interior to the exterior; which means that it started from microscopic dimensions to finish in yours; this divine process is at the speed of thought; I verily say unto you, that your sight does not penetrate everything; a whole universe surrounds you; and you have never seen it; a universe infinitely more microscopic than the universe of your microbes; a universe that your sciences will never penetrate; nor any instrument; one has to be born again, to see these intelligences, which made life possible for you; I verily say unto you, that you will soon see my First-born Son, ordering nature again; and I verily say unto you, that it will be the crying and gnashing of teeth of every evil spirit; of every demon; every violator of the Father's law, is a demon; he cannot be an angel; for he acted opposing the light; I verily say unto you, that every psychologist and philosopher of this world, will be amazed about the content of the Scrolls of the Lamb; such mental amazement, was requested by them in the kingdom of Heavens; and it was granted to them; psychology is a virtue like the other virtues; every virtue is at the same time, a psychology with an alliance of philosophy; and every number is a numeral philosophy; and it is a psychology of mental calculation; I verily say unto you, that even the molecules and microbes, are philosophical and psychological; matter thinks in its laws, just as you think in yours; I verily say unto you, that the materialistic philosophy, has its days numbered; for every philosophy, whatever it could be, requested a time or period, to be trialed; and this time comes to its end; the world you are accustomed to, is a world about to fall; every reign has got its time; and every time is also a reign that also has quality<sup>1</sup> and quality; psychology and philosophy; this world and its customs, is the world Alpha; and the one that is coming, is the world Omega; a world in which one will not see any philosophy that divides the creatures; for that belongs to the trials of life; to the world Alpha in which every spirit was trialed in his thinking philosophy; I verily say unto you, that the new philosophy of the new world Omega, will be very similar to the philosophy and thinking of a child; just as it should had always been; if this world had been conducted as it should have, by my Scriptures and Commandments, this world would have had only one psychology; only one government, only one symbol and the same destiny; it would not need a final judgment; for there would not be any reason; but the opposite took place; man did the contrary; instead of letting the humble govern this world, they relegated them to the last place; was it not written that every humble is first before the Father? And if every humble is first before the Eternal, why do my humble not govern this world? Behold a question that will shudder the foundations of the world Alpha; and you were taught: You shall not steal; and if it was taught not to steal, who invented money? Another question that will appall those who gave you the life system; for I verily say unto you, that none of them shall remain; I verily say unto you, that just as the demons of gold, divided my children, in rich and poor, likewise will they will be divided; just as poverty came out of them, so will they be the poor; Father Jehovah will measure them with the same rod they measured others; I will take from every rich, what he has; individual or nation; and I verily say unto you, that they will remain in the most appalling poverty; my laws, do not command any one to be rich or poor; for all of you are equal in rights before God; in the Kingdom of Heavens neither rich nor poor are known; nor any philosophy that divides others; that is why everybody is a brother there; in the most perfect order of the word; your philosophy as earthly creatures, is a calculating philosophy; you measure others, for what they have; not for what they are; not for their knowledge; I verily say unto you, that no calculator of the philosophical selfishness, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who avoided in himself his own selfishness, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who let himself be carried away by it; each one's thinking philosophy, should have never had as quality<sup>1</sup> and quality, the calculating division; with such philosophy, none of you shall enter the Kingdom, of Heavens; if you had followed my Scriptures to the foot of the letter, all of you would have entered the Kingdom of

Heavens; all that was promised to the Father, must be fulfilled; for everything that you thought at any instant in life, has been written for all eternity; the Father's living Scripture, is a solar Scripture; a fire Scripture; what you did in your world, other worlds know it; which have no end; the universe where you came out of know it; what is of the Father does not know the occult; and you should have always imitated the Father, in every instant of your life; it is more likely for one who imitated the Father, to enter the Kingdom, than for one who did not; I verily say unto you, that your philosophy shall accuse you in the Kingdom of Heavens; for you made a thinking violator of it; everything turns into life before the Father; your mental acts, become a living philosophy before the Father; behold a Revelation, which is the greatest responsibility in you; your end is a living judgment; wherever you go in the universe, you shall run into your judgment; you requested a judgment up above and down below; for every free will, does not fix any limit in itself; it belongs to the everything above everything; I verily say unto you, that you requested only one destiny; whether the light or darkness; this request is if each one fulfilled or did not fulfill, what was promised to the Father; darkness or light are relative within their qualities<sup>1</sup> and qualities; just as your ideas are; what is up above is the same as down below; and it has no end; nor will it ever have it; light is happiness; darkness is suffering; your free will, chooses between light and darkness; the free will is also relative; and it has quality<sup>1</sup> and quality; its quality<sup>1</sup> is to choose or not to choose; its quality is stopping the opposite side; your free will is like a furrow made in the atmosphere; it acts and forgets; it opens and it gets closed; it does not materialize anything before the eyes of its Creator, but it saturates it with an invisible magnetism; whose essence was formed by the 318 virtues of the thinking; it is a transformation whose experience was to produce a vibration between matter and spirit; an instantaneous alliance; this magnetism surrounds the physical body; just like the worlds surround the sun; what is up above is the same as down below; this magnetism is of infinite colors; every action you make in life, has got a color; in space are the flying saucers that also emanate magnetic and colorful gases; the cause is that flying saucers and human creatures, came out of the same law; what is up above is the same as down below; the inheritance of the microcosm in its evolution to the macrocosm, keeps the characteristics; it keeps the hierarchy; I verily say unto you, that it is enough that one free will violates one microscopic part of the Commandments, and that free will and its creator do not enter the kingdom of Heavens; this violation can be of one second or less than a second; the law is fulfilled anyway; to the Father a molecule is as important as a world; I verily say unto you, that every philosophy that was constituted in a school, and did not study what is of the Father first, such philosophy and such creators, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who did not know a philosophy as a school, but he got to know the Father's, to enter the Kingdom of heavens; than for one who was the greatest philosopher and did not give the first importance to what is of the father; every philosophy as an individual and as something to study, was created by the Father; you requested it as a trials of life; for even the knowledge that is learnt in remote planets, is requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; everything that comes out of the mind, exists in other places of the universe; that is why nobody is unique; nor one will ever be; only the Father is unique; for He is the Creator of everything relative unique; before the infinite of the worlds, everybody loses importance; one who thought of himself as being important in his world, undergoes the greatest complex of inferiority, when he sees the universe; when he returns to the place, where he was created; every return is full of vicissitudes, just as it happens to you on the Earth; when you start an adventure; what is up above is the same as down below; I verily say unto you, all those who did not search for the Father's philosophy, before searching for others, they shall not enter the kingdom of Heavens; for every known and unknown philosophy, came out of the Father; and all of them return to the Father; everything becomes alive in the presence of the father; all of them, matter and spirit talk to the Father; I verily say unto you, that the material universe that surrounds you, came out of the divine philosophy of the Father; if the Father is philosophical, so are the children; for they inherit what is of the father; when your Creator said: Let there be light, and the light was done, such mandate was the first divine-mental idea; an expansive idea; so expansive as the universe itself; and the universe you contemplate, is the same Father's idea that continues expanding more and more; this expansion has neither a beginning nor an end; nothing that is of the Father, has it nor will have it; the ideas that you emanate, are microscopic inheritances that came out of the Father; and every idea constitutes an eternity within an eternity; a living dimension, within infinite others; every idea of yours is as expansive as the father's; from your invisible ideas, microscopic planets are born; it was written: Each one makes his own heaven; for every planet is surrounded by a heaven; this is why it was taught, that eternity is in you yourselves; you just need to generate ideas, and you will be creating in an invisible form for you, the colossal planets of the future; and I verily say unto you, that all the infinite and colossal universe was primitively an idea; what is up above is the same as down below; matter and spirit were ideas; for the Father's laws are not limited to one world; for they have neither a beginning nor an end; His divine mandates are for infinite worlds; as many as your mind can imagine; the eternal succession of the worlds, is the succession itself of the Laws and Scriptures of the Father; every world has its Holy Scriptures; for nobody is disinherited; neither matter nor spirit; the Scriptures are also evolutionary; they go parallel to the evolution of the creatures; and so it is that for your world, in the past I sent you the Mosaic Law; followed by the Christian Doctrine; and now I send you the Third Doctrine: The Doctrine of the Lamb of God; I verily say unto you, that even if there are many centuries of distance between one doctrine and another, the Word of the Father is never wrong; He lives the instants and the epochs, before they materialize; when the Father gives a Law or a Scripture, He does it by seeing the future; what you cannot do; that is why every word that comes out of the Father, is prophetic; each parable of the Scriptures, is so with no exception; and since you are a living inheritance of a living God, many of you have the prophetic gift of predicting certain events; you are intuitively prophetic; within you microscopic hierarchies; I verily say unto you, that all those who requested the prophetic gift of prophesy in the Kingdom of Heavens, and traded it, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who morally respected his spiritual powers, to enter the Kingdom; than for one who tarnished it; no trader shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for a poor one to enter the kingdom of the Father than a rich one; I verily say unto you, that just as you traded something that came out of your virtues, you will be traded as well in other existences; the virtues of your thinking, complain before the Father; for they have a free will, as your spirit does; every violation is talked about before the Father; all those who traded with any spiritual power, must add up all the seconds, that are contained in the time that such immoral trade lasted; right from the instant they were tempted, until the time they repented; the total number of the seconds of violation, is the number of existences that you have to fulfill, before entering the Kingdom of Heavens; each second of violation, is an existence you will have to fulfill; as your philosophical thinking requested variety and relativity, is that all your ideas, are varied and relative; the celestial score, is too; everything that your thinking has got in quality<sup>1</sup> and quality, your ideas have also got them; I verily say unto you, that the Final Judgment, will consist in your classifying all the ideas and acts that you created in life; instant by instant; second by second; epoch by epoch; period by period; for as you were taught, the Father is everywhere and in everybody; He is in every instant, in every second, in the invisible and the visible; He is in your ideas and your acts; He is in the everything above everything; your celestial score is second-time; space-second; philosophy-time; you will know every classification, according to how your individuality was; for there is everything in the vineyard of the Lord; you have to arm yourselves with all the works and acts that you did in life, to confront the Final Judgment; a judgment that you yourselves requested; it was written: Armageddon; which in Revelations means, People who get armed; this is for this generation; you will have to arm yourselves with your own works; to reach the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that with the Armageddon, the crying and gnashing of teeth, starts for you; for you did not fulfill what is of the Father, above everything else; you promised in the Kingdom of Heavens, to struggle with all your might, against the demon; whatever its form could have been; the demon deceived you; he reigned amongst you, as a life system; he built your hopes up and divided you; only satan divides himself; every divided spirit does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; your life system divided you in rich and poor; neither rich nor poor are known in the Kingdom; for division is not known; no philosophy that divides others, is known; one enters the Kingdom, in the same way he came out; all of you, human spirits, told the Father, before leaving the Kingdom of Heavens: Divine Father, I will return with the same innocence, with which I am coming out of your Kingdom; But, what happened? As one generation followed the other and new spirits were coming to this world, the same ones, found themselves in a life system, in which it was impossible to keep the integrity of the innocence promised to the Father; behold the tragedy of yours; behold the triumph of satan over you; behold his work; his damned fruit is the division in every imaginable form; for no spirit that lived the division in any of its forms, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; your life system divided you in the material, in rich and poor; and the so-called religions divided you in many beliefs, being only just one God; I verily say unto you, demons of the world that divided my children; no-one who divided in this world, shall enter the kingdom of Heavens; just as you divided others, you shall also be divided, in other existences; for every spirit is born again; he requests for existences, to advance and mend his own errors; with the rod that you measured, you shall be measured; you will have to render account, to those that you divided; you demons of selfishness, will lay upon yourselves, the so-called christian world; and you will have to answer everything, without coming out of my Scriptures even in a microscopic part;

the same Scriptures you taught others, the same Scripture shall judge you; with the rod you measured, you shall also be measured; I verily say unto you, that the world will witness a judgment on you, as nobody has ever imagined; the non Christian world will witness how the blinds leading other blinds are judged; the so-called Vatican and its followers; it will be called the judgment of the world Alpha; and its memory shall last for many centuries; for this judgment marks the fall of satan; the demon that divided you; and it marks the beginning of the Millennium of Peace; it marks the beginning of the world Omega; the world of the true spirituality; of what should have always been in this world; Omega was momentarily stopped by Alpha; for the spirits requested to be trialed in their thinking philosophies; Alpha is the materialistic world that is coming to its end; this end is provoked by the doctrine of the Lamb of God; the world Alpha is a world about to fall; a world with immoral customs; just as it happened in other epochs of the Earth; for this world has had in its past, other judgments; I verily say unto you, that this judgment is the greater one; for your intellectual fruit is more mature; all the generations have spoken about the Final Judgment; it is your turn to be spectators and actors of it; for you requested it so in the Kingdom of Heavens; the generations that have already parted from this world, requested to be judged out of the Earth; for the judgment is for dead and alive; the Father's law is fulfilled up above as well as down below; and His divine mandates, are not limited to one world; what is of the Father is infinite; and wherever the spirit goes through the cosmos, he shall find his judgment there; many planetary dwellings does the Father have; what is not fulfilled in one dwelling, it fulfilled in another; I verily say unto you, that whoever negated the Father even in the most microscopic, thus shall he be denied in the Kingdom of Heavens; you were taught that your Creator is infinite; therefore, what was taken from the Father's power, was with first-hand knowledge; to help you not to fall in this injustice, is that it was written: Scrutinize the Scriptures; he who searches shall find; and I verily say unto you, that the so-called christian world, are the false prophets of my Scriptures; led by the vatican sect; the rock of human selfishness; the one that negated the Revelation, up to the last instant of their trial request; the one that deceived the world, with the material adoration; knowing that my Scriptures say: You shall not worship any images, any temples, any likeness; no-one that practiced the material adoration, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the so-called material adoration, is not known in the kingdom of Heavens; it is not a tree planted by the divine Father Jehovah; and it shall be pulled from its roots from the human evolution; the material adoration, comes from practices of the past; it is a pharaonic inheritance; I verily say unto you, that the religious beings of your world, were spirits in the pharaonic era; and as every spirit is born again, they requested the Father, to give them an opportunity; and they promised Him not to divide anybody, just as they did in the past; but, they failed again; they will soon be requesting a new birth before the Father.-
