The divine Eternal Father explains to the terrestrial world:

The beginning of you all occurred in the depths of the Alpha and Omega suns; and when you were born you were bright white; you were from the galaxies and the milk seas of the Solar Mother Omega; that still continues to create spirits.-

All life was ordered by the free will of the spirit; when asking for life, the form and composition of life are requested; living geometry is requested; I really tell you, that all life is linked to the universe itself; all life is united to the universe, by invisible solar cords; whose number cannot be counted by the interested party; the cords are born from each meat pore; of each fiber; of each molecule; of each cell; and expands towards infinity; all reach the Alpha and Omega suns; suns parents of the Earth.-

The human principle was microbes; the tiny human larvae; they were shaped like hair; living hair weighing 18 grams; the human cell was the result of the decrease in solar calories; as the nascent planet cooled; and that it still follows the cooling process imperceptibly.-

If every creature enjoys life; and does not recognize the Author of it, simply that it is an ungrateful spirit; even more; he is a superb son; Knowing nothing, since he has never worried about the truth, he dares to deny it; Poor of them! How will they curse being born! By denying the divine Father, they deny themselves; all thought affects matter; every thought of the present builds or destroys its own future; It was written: Every spirit is judged, according to his works.-

Life is a set of intelligences; nobody is alone.-

The life you are in will be shaken by laws unknown until now; and your spirit will wake up as it wakes up from a dream.-

As the temperature dropped lower and lower, the meat creatures appeared; and you started with microbes; and the first microbes were Adam and Eve; they lived the microscopic paradise; the Earth had the bearing of a ping-pong ball; they were angelic microbes; and its appearance was a void made in the mud; this void is the current atmosphere; that expanded on the others that there were.-

Adam and Eve were parents of humanity, because from them came the multiplication of microbes; the microbes that preceded them were not angelic; because the cherubs of obedience withdrew from the alliance; The light gave way and darkness remained; from that moment, the philosophy of humanity was a testing philosophy.-

The first germ that had the shape of human hair, had an expansive and circular development; this germ had 18 undulations; they were microscopic bones of circular shapes; those on the chest were larger; and ended in a small ripple; that gave the impression of a tail; all the primitive undulations allowed the germ to slide through the water, puddles and swamps.-

The divine Eve came out of one of Adam's ribs; it means that it came out of one of the microscopic undulations of the microscopic germ; one of the mysteries of creation is represented here.-

The man was also a stinging microbe; and the current microbes will be human creatures tomorrow; to say otherwise is to hoard progress; and deny their own evolutionary laws.-

The beginning of life is a dream that is recognized as its activity increases.-

The life of light was given to you to enlarge the light; It was not given to distort it.-

Life is made up of laws that most of you only feel, but you don't understand; because they are tested in life; just as your understanding is tested; Truly I say to you, that the understanding is also living before the Father; and as the spirit cared for him, so will be his attitude before the Father; life is made up of molecules and virtues; physics harmonizes with thinking; all body of meat is harmonious with melody whose notes are the ideas.-

It comes to life, knowingly; it comes to life, with a responsibility, which is within itself; and if you do not remember the cause, it is because you yourselves asked to know the forgetfulness of the past.-

Life is what the mind wanted it to be.-

Each life asked for different circumstances; because in distant existences, you asked to know free will; and of having known it, the future vicissitudes of all future existence are derived; no one is born knowing anything; your starting point is innocence.-

DIVINE ORIGIN OF THE HUMAN LIFE; THE BE-GINNING ALPHA AND THE END OMEGA; END OF THE HUMAN PHILOSOPHIES; FALL OF THE REIGN OF GOLD; END OF THE DYNASTY OF THE DAMNED OSIRIS.-

Yes little son; the beginning of every life is the fire of the suns; all the creatures of the planet Earth and the Earth itself, were formed in the suns Alpha and Omega; everything came out and got developed from a microscopic sparklet; the sparklet grew in a very slow way; it had the most imaginary forms; it went through all the sizes, until it arrived into the present size; the growth was due to the own pressures of temperature; there were temperatures which are unknown to you; fire was white at the beginning; an influence of the solar milk; the fire left living ashes; the present oceans; I verily say unto you that even water was fire; and every element was so and is; nature is a reincarnation which came out of fire; the life of a world came out of itself; magnetism was created by the own pressures; fire produced successive movements; the expansion of them is in the presence of them; it is the eternal succession of the waves Omega; every fire produces a heat which are waves; the Earth which you step on, is a furnace which develops itself in a continuous drop of temperature; imagine that the soot of this colossal furnace, is the Earth or cortex which you step on; the furnace still has fire in its center; and a given instant in the future shall arrive, in which the furnace shall be extinguished; and the movements of nature shall slow down; a very slow process; which shall take millions and millions of years; this process gave place to the birth of creatures and elements; you must know how to distinguish the intelligent beginning and the primitive beginning; Adam and Eve and the cavemen; the intelligent or angelical beginning is the beginning of the human trunk; after the fall of Adam and Eve, creation changed of attribute and quality; from angelical it turned human; from immortal to mortal; which means that your Creator's intention was for eternity to be permanent on Earth; your first parents' disobedience frustrated such desire; the own elements got divided in their free wills; for before such an event, the Earth stopped from being a paradise; the strictness of the Father's law is in the most microscopic thing of the creation; whether in matter or in the spirit; Adam and Eve's paradise had the size of a ping-pong ball; and from this size, the Earth continued expanding; with a different attribute and quality in all its development; that attribute and quality transformed it from paradise to a world of the light with an influence of darkness.-

Yes little son; the beginning of the human life started with the open heavens; for the Earth had the destiny of a paradise; at the beginning Adam and Eve were not there yet; for no one is first; only the Father is; and I verily say unto you that at the beginning there were as many living creatures that not even all the generations that existed beginning from Adam and Eve, exceed them; at the beginning everything was microscopic; and they did not notice it; just as it happens now; the Earth was a baby planet at the beginning; its sizes exceed the trillion of trillions; for everything started from a molecule; this molecule was the expansive sparklet; therefore, every circle is relative and relative to its development; the circle starts in the sun Alpha and ends in the sun Omega; three circles in Solar Trinity; the beginning, development and end; the point, the angle and the circle; three different geometries and one same origin; I verily say unto you that every unknown being is not welcome; I mean little son to the beginning of a new beginning; the materialistic geometry of your world, is the most selfish geometry that exists; for they are dominated by self-interest; they trade with commerce; and I verily say unto you that all the traders of knowledge promised the Father not to trade; not to let themselves be influenced by any self-interest; and I verily say unto you that no one who traded with knowledge, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it would have been better for them not to have known any knowledge; I know little son that you are thinking about your Scripture; So it is divine Father Jehovah; in the printing houses of this world, they do not do the work for free; So it is little son; such is exploitation; I know that not even by mentioning the Father's Name, these demons stop charging; at the Quimantú Printing House, the so-called general manager did not give any importance to Me; neither did the personnel who you dealt with; they saw the proofs; you travelled with so much suffering in order to make them know the greatest Revelation on Earth, and none of these blind beings wanted to investigate; they are mundane spirits, who requested in Heavens to be the first ones to receive the Revelation; and they are the first ones to reject it; the world shall know them; no one who despised Me shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and I verily say unto you that if they had published my Revelation at that instant, all the children who work at this printing house would have entered my Kingdom; it was my divine intention to award them; but since they despised Me, no one from this printing house shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; Were these false christians not taught that first are God's things? That the Father's laws are above everything? They did not get moved by the son I sent them; so shall the world not be moved by them; for they shall be despised by those who because of their mundane selfishness, did not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and every demon who showed himself with a spiritual rock before my Scriptures, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; starting from the tree that your Father Jehovah did not plant; the vatican sect; the traders of my word; those who dared to divide the world's faith in many beliefs; being there just one God; the Father's truth does not divide His children; the divine Commandments were equally given to everyone; and I verily say unto you that the divine Revelation shall not come out of any temple; nor of any philosophy that divides the world; nor of any church; the Revelation comes out of the humble; for they are the first in the Kingdom; to trade my law or to bless the damned arms with which my children kill each other, has nothing of humility; it is the opposite; it is arrogance; Were you not taught false prophets of my Word: Thou shalt not kill? Why then do you bless the demon of the arms? Why do you legalize them? Do not be surprised then that the divine Revelation shall not take you into account for anything; the Creator of every justice does not award injustice; He punishes it; and I verily say unto you demons that you shall be the first to be punished; just as you divided my flock in false beliefs, so shall you be divided; with the rod which you measured, you shall be measured; your teachings are false, for no so-called christian, because of you, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; you made a pact with gold; you should have never recognized the power of gold; Were you not taught hypocrites that one cannot serve two masters? Either one serves the Father without violating His law or one serves gold; I verily say unto you that you divided the human spirit; and no divided spirit shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; no one came out divided in his concept in respect to the Father; for my divine Commandments are common to everyone; they divide no one; Were you not taught that only satan divides himself? You demons are the violators of my law; you did not have the moral capacity to maintain the unity of the world; for you made alliances with the demons of gold; and I verily say unto you that you are the followers of the damned Osiris; the pharaoh who taught the people of Israel to greed for gold; I verily say unto you that your inclinations to violate my divine mandates are not from now; its cause goes back to the pharaonic era; Were you not taught that every spirit is born again? Your imperfection comes from other existences; from another being born again which occurred in another epoch; and I verily say unto you, religious spirits, that in the pharaonic era, you created the materialism of that epoch; you instilled my first galactic seed the adoration of many gods; behold the origin of your tendency to personify what is of God in material images; and what is of the Father is not in your material temples; it is in the same creature; it is in his own ideas; Were you not taught backward spir- its that God is everywhere? I am also in every idea of every thinking being; And if I am in the ideas of my children, why did you exalt the material tem- ples? Does my divine Mandate not say: Thou shalt not worship either images or temples or any resem- blance? You are the anti-Christ's of my Scriptures; for it is enough to violate my divine mandates in the most microscopic degree, and one becomes an anti-Christ; there have been many anti-Christ's; but you demons are the greatest; for the other anti-Christ's were influenced by the injustices of the world; injustices that you false prophets of my Word approved; Did you not pact with capitalism? Did you not crown and blessed their kings? Did you not bless their arms? Are you or are you not the anti-Christ? You did the opposite to the man- dates; just as you did in the pharaonic era; that is why I told my First-born Son by living telepathy: Upon this rock I shall build my church; and the doors of hell shall not prevail over it; this last part means that only the Father's justice prevails; rock means spiritual hardness in the Kingdom of Heavens; when my divine Solar Son told you so, he did it by looking at the future; Were you not taught that your God is everywhere? the Trinity is in everything imagined; it is also in the times; past, present and future; and I verily say unto you that what my divine Son saw in your future, were your own violations; He saw how you persecuted the first christians, due to religious rivalries; Divine Father Jehovah, I see colossal stakes! And I see many beings twisting in pain! So it is little son; you see what you saw in the past; these demons fell into the error in the same instant in which they proclaimed themselves your followers; they forgot that being humble first, they had the divine right to teach the new Doctrine; and I verily say unto you that it is more likely for a humble to enter the Kingdom, than for one who was religious; the humble does not carry the sin of dividing the world; the religious being did it; he casted the first stone; and I verily say unto you that no human creature should have casted any philosophical stone; Were you not taught to be humble above everything? And I verily say unto you that the culprits of the causes of all the first stones, which my creatures casted, falls on those who created the human life system; behold your demon; and there is no other one; every material injustice has come out of the demon of the so-called capitalism; they are the only originators of the material unhappiness in your world; and I verily say unto you that I shall take off of you every exploitative demon; every ambitious one; every immoral being in your coexistence; and no scandalous one shall remain; demons of the pharaonic lineage; in Celestial Science lineage means what is the Worst of the species; and I verily say unto you that every terrestrial authority who having been able to cut from its roots the immoral fashions and they did not, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; they were blinds in respect to the Father's morality; it would have been better for them not to have requested to be an authority on Earth; every so-called authority is more demanded; the so-called capitalism which is your yoke, started with the damned Osiris era; whose philosophy says: Only gold; of this philosophy, an entire range of exploitative, ambitious, shrewd, hoarders, cheaters, players, mobsters, imperialists, monopolists, and all the worst which your world has, have come out; and I verily say unto you that if the world would not have known them, all of you would enter the Kingdom of Heavens; providing that men had not created the so-called religions; or any other philosophy, which divides the spirit; when all of you came out of my Kingdom, you did not come out being divided in beliefs; for the truth in the Kingdom is one only; one sole God only; and you promised the Father to return all the same; but, I verily say unto you that no human creature has returned the same; behold your struggle between good and evil; goodness unifies and evil divides; your 318 virtues of your thinking, are forced to take different determinations; for they have got a free will just as the spirit has; for no one is disinherited; the spirit has as much right as the virtue has; all what the spirit does reverberates in the 318 virtues; which are your living ark of covenants; and when the spirit is divided between two masters or two or more philosophies, the virtues are also divided; for they have the right to opine and choose; and when this happens, the spirit remains alone; it remains in darkness for the virtues of the light abandoned him because the spirit chose division; Do you understand now demons of the rock the abysmal meaning of the parables: One cannot serve two masters or the other one: Only satan divides himself? I verily say unto you backward spirits that because of you not a single spirit has entered or shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for you have divided them in spirit; because of you demons, the human minds are confused before so many religions; you have made them doubt; and I verily say unto you that all those who made others doubt shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; every philosophy or human science which divided my children mentally, shall not know the Father's Kingdom; I accuse you before the meek at heart of trading and scandalizing with my divine law; Did the pompous wedding not come out of you, immoral beings? I verily say unto you matrimonies of the world that all those who got married with pomp and hypocrisy, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; one cannot serve two demons; and you served the master of pomp and forgot that in many parts of the world, my humble did not have anything to eat; Hypocritical matrimonies! You are the buildings which are whitened from the outside and corrupted from the inside; and I verily say unto you that every marriage which took place in any material temple, is not validated before the Father; for the material temples and the religions are not in my Scriptures; the so-called religions or philosophies which divide the world, are unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; the religions belong to the human minds; it is a consequence of the human free will; which interpreted my Scriptures, according to their self-interest and convenience; the only thing which is known in the Kingdom is work; what one gains with the sweat on the face; the spiritual merit; what it costs; and the more a desire costs, the greater is the award in the Kingdom of Heavens; the material adoration has never pleased the Father; for the merit in its attribute and quality is microscopic; for I verily say unto you that it is more likely for one who worked humbly during all his life to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who worshipped Me an entire life; and I verily say unto you that the own work is the temple and the highest adoration to the Father; in the adoration of the faith, the creature makes use of his own free will; he molds it according to his will; by working the creature pleases the Father; he imitates what His divine free will expressed: Thou shalt earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face; in other words I meant: Only by merit you shall enter the Kingdom; I know that everyone must invoke the Creator, for I have created everything; but merit is merit; and it is more likely for one who pleased the Father according to His mandates to enter the Kingdom, than for one who let himself be carried away by his impulses and adored Him materially; I verily say unto you that not a single material temple shall remain in this world; for a tree which was not planted by the divine Father shall be pulled out from its roots; everything which was done out of my Scriptures, nothing shall remain of it; the Doctrine of the Lamb shall substitute what was not done; and I verily say unto you that for the first time in this world my Scriptures shall be taken account of; one just serves one Master; just one God only; your epoch of serving many masters, of serving mundane interests of the more deluded beings, made all of you not to enter my Kingdom; behold your trials in life; you endured the legions of satan; who divided you in spirit and matter; the so-called religions divided you in spirit, and the so-called rich divided you in what is material; for some are rich and others are poor; you chose this form of life yourselves; with all its consequences; and you promised the Father not to let yourselves be influenced by the demons; but, it is written that this world fell again; for all of you lived deluded; your supreme aspiration was not to serve the Father, above everything; your aspiration was to become rich with the most minimal effort, and in the shortest time; and in order to achieve it, many even got to kill, to libel, slander and lie; I verily say unto you that in spite of being able to become rich by effort and work, such philosophy was not taught by the Father; Were you not told: That it is more likely for a camel to pass through a needle's eye than a rich to enter the Kingdom of Heavens? And I verily say unto you that there is no rich who has not deceived his fellow being; if you were not capable of fulfilling the mandates of the Father, less shall you be capable of escaping from the influence of gold which you took as a life system; and I verily say unto you that neither your blind guides nor any human power shall release you from the weeping and gnashing of teeth which is coming to you; for all those who lived for gold shall not be resurrected into new flesh in the year 2001; for you were divided by serving good and evil; your everything above everything stopped being so; and the power and the magnetic brightness of the First-born Son, belongs to an everything which cannot be divided; it serves one sole Master; and he shall not resurrect you; and I verily say unto you that every being resurrected in flesh, shall become a twelve-year old child; Were you not taught that every child is first in the Kingdom? He is so in the Final Judgment too; and I verily say unto you, violators of my law, that the Millennium of Peace is initiated with a philosophy of a child; which comes out of innocence; and not of your adult and corrupted philosophies; none of you are among my chosen ones; you shall continue your destinies of mortality; for the licentious beings like you have only got to cultivate your death; you had an entire life to choose the way to the Kingdom; but, comfort, illusion, the ephemeral self-interests and the influences which only serve gold, condemned you; and I verily say unto you that all those who let themselves be influenced by world vanities, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for one cannot serve two masters; and all those immoral beings who being men, dress like women; and all those scandalous women who being women, dress like men; none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and I verily say unto you that the parents who raised them are guilty too; and I verily say unto you that your children shall curse you for being parents who are ignorant of my Scriptures; and I verily say unto you that from the totality of points of a scandalous life, one third is taken from the scandalous beings and is added to the points of their parents; they are points of darkness; and I verily say unto you that every fashion scandalous being, must add up all the seconds in which he lasted in it, the scandalous fashion; every point and every justice starts from the age of twelve years; and if the children and the innocence saw your scandalous way of dressing, your points of darkness, be multiplied by three; and for each second gone by, corresponds an existence of expiation, which you must fulfill in remote worlds; out of the Kingdom of Heavens; your spiritual eternity is weighed and judged in eternity; one trillion of trillions or infinitely more of worlds or existences, are less than an instant before the Creator; if every spirit is born again, it fulfills existences throughout its entire eternity; nothing has any limit in the Father; not even the inheritance which His children represent; and those who showed themselves naked before the world, are damned; and woe betide those who speak to a damned being!! for they shall become accomplices; and the law shall fall on them; the word damned means spirit of evil; and every damned being is raptured by darkness, when he leaves life; for not even his guardian angel remains with him; even if he wanted it so; and I verily say unto you that in infinite times the guardian angels with divine tears in their eyes, leave their disciples; when he is damned by the Father's law; and in microscopic and invisible flying saucers, they return to the Kingdom of Heavens; what is up above is the same as down below; damnation has infinite degrees; for you are not the only world of the universe; there are damnations to which the own satan trembles; for one darkness crushes the other; and I verily say unto you that neither darkness nor the light have any limits; darkness is a product of the imperfections of the children of the light; my time is not like your time; in my time, the worlds of yesterday, today and tomorrow gravitate; my time is eternal and within it are the relative times, like your world's; my time is pre-existent to everything imagined; the divine time creates the material times; and every material time returns to the divine time; for everything which comes out of the Father, returns to the Father; even your microbes return to their place of origin; and I verily say unto you that every damned one passes from the Earth to darkness; for no one from the light advocates for him; only the Father can; but, everything is fulfilled according to each one's degree of conscience; your destiny comes out of your own selves; for each one makes his own heaven; your ideas are your judges; for every idea speaks in the Kingdom of Heavens; every microscopic idea becomes gigantic in the Kingdom; Were you not taught that every humble is great in the Kingdom? And who else humbler than your own ideas? Which you feel but do not see? The idea is a physical wave which after being thought, travels to space; it is a microscopic harmony which comes out of you; the idea provokes noise which you shall never perceive; the idea is as expansible as the own universe; what the microscopic has, the colossal also has it; no one is disinherited; the idea being microscopic, is the seed of eternity; for from one idea a colossal planet sprouts; one has to be very little and humble in order to become great in the Kingdom of Heavens; and every planet was very little; the idea which you emanate comes out of you in a linear way, and it turns into circular as it gets expanded through the universe; behold the Alpha and Omega; the Line and the Circle; every geometry is born simultaneously in matter and spirit; your body is flesh and spirit; and your inheritance contained in the idea, is the eternity of your philosophy; and I verily say unto you that you get extended through the infinity; but, you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for you are microscopic and at the same time, violators of my law; it is because of this universal cause that every Scripture of the Father has been teaching you through the centuries, to be good and not bad; he who was good in life did not stop from creating paradises; for the philosophy which he thought in its attribute and quality, makes its fruit to become a paradise-planet; and he who was bad, did not stop from producing future hells; every idea contains a living philosophy; and I verily say unto you that the future creatures who shall inhabit the planet, whose origin came out of your idea, shall have the same philosophy of your thinking; the creations of the Father are infinite and colossal; and yours microscopic; that is how the colossal first-born suns of the macrocosm were; they were microbes and ideas, to become great in the Kingdom of Heavens; and they are still getting expanded; for everything which has come out of the Father, has no limits; not any limit shall ever be known to it; one who believed that he surpassed the Father's limit, the world knew him as Lucifer; and he did not realize that the limit was He Himself; satan divided himself; his virtues of angel of light were distributed through the universe and his limited power did not reign in the Kingdom anymore; I verily say unto you that every evil and perverse creature will have the same thought; for every evil and perverse being is also a living demon; the influences of the Kingdom are taken to the remote planets; in each spirit there is a saturation of darkness and light; for you came out of greater and infinite magnetizations; everything that you have in miniature exists in a colossal degree in the macrocosm; and you are a microscopic part of it; every reincarnation is done where there is no limit at all; neither in matter nor in knowledge; the place of your reincarnations continues creating creatures; the present universes shall end, others shall be born, and that place shall still be creating; and I verily say unto you that such places are counted infinitely; not even the number of molehills which are contained in your deserts, can show you a calculation; everything is expansive in all the imaginable instants, in the Father's Creation; the expansions take place everywhere; up above and down below; each idea generated by each mind is a future expansion, which shall never stop; the Universe is Thinking and Expansive; every mind generates universes, which shall never stop; the eternal movement comes out of the Father, and it is received by the children; space and time become matter in the macrocosm; they become planets and also solar spirits; for matter and spirit are one same thing; which come out of the same law; and manifested during an instant by infinite forms; forms which have no end; your world is a world of the flesh; a life system which is almost totally unknown in the universe; the worlds of the macrocosm represent what is most known; and they are at the same time what is unknown; the unpredictable form in which the universe gets expanded, makes an entire world which was considered important, stop being so in an instant; the universal glory represents a tiny one before the Father's Glory; all the universes within the own universe emulate the Father; for having Him created everything, all have His inheritance; what is of the Father is also the Son's; and what is of the Son is the Father's; behold the divine Celestial Communion; the Father's common love reincarnated in the Son, brings balance on the planets where darkness sowed imbalance; just as it happens in your world; in which the Earth's polar axle has been deviated 42°; an imbalance which started in the right instant in which the pharaonic serpent, tempted your first terrestrial parents.-

ALPHA AND OMEGA.-

HOW A REINCARNATION IN THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS IS MADE; THE MACROCOSM IS THE PLACE WHERE THE HUMAN CREATURE CAME OUT OF; THE 318 MAGNETIC SATURATIONS.-

Yes little son; the Kingdom of Heavens is the own Macrocosm; the Father's Glory has no limits; and everything happens in what is colossal; the Father's Glory eclipses any other glory; known or to be known; for every glory comes out of the Father; the place where the human little monkeys were created was the Macrocosm-Trino; there are microscopic and macroscopic galaxies Trino; what is up above is the same as down below; your creation is called in the Kingdom to be born again; or reincarnation; it is the same; one law can be expressed in many ways, and it is always the same law; everything happened and still takes place in the suns Alpha and Omega of the Galaxy Trino; everything is born from the solar fire; they are Father Jehovah's older children; the First-born Sons; when a spirit is born, it is due to a solar loving conversation; what is up above has sexual relations just as down below; when you have sexual relations, up above a reincarnation is being prepared; a spirit is getting ready to enter a flesh; I verily say unto you that there is one quarter of a totality of reincarnation in you; and three quarters are born from the Solar Parents; you transmit an inheritance; and the divinity gives it an individuality; you participate in the creation of an eternity; for each spirit is a microscopic solar fire; it has the expansive law of the Universe; in a reincarnation infinite thinking beings participate; they are the virtues; there are 318 living virtues in you; if one virtue was taken away from you from their totality, your individuality would change; it has never happened in your world; the place of the reincarnation is the center of the solar luminaries; things that would absolutely astound you take place there; you are not accustomed to seeing what is colossal; what has no limits; the center of the suns is an eternity of universes; and it has no end; I am talking to you about the suns of the Macrocosm; not about your sun; which is a miniature sun; in the Macrocosm everything is gigantic; and I verily say unto you that they do not know you; only the Father, the Solar Mother Omega, and certain Solar Parents, who were prophets on the Earth, know you; and the unknown are like the number of molehills contained in a desert; for nothing of the Father has any limits; that place, one of the infinite ones which exist, was announced to you by my First-born Son; He told you: Where I am from, you cannot go; he was referring to the Macrocosm; the place where you were created; and not only you as spirits, but also the planet where you are stepping on; for matter and spirit are the same thing; and both came out of the same point; of one sole God only; matter has got free will within its laws; just as the spirit has it; for all have the same rights before the Creator; that is why it is said in infinite worlds of the Universe, the living Universe of Father Jehovah; for matter and spirit have got life; no one is disinherited; neither matter nor spirit; in the place where you came out of, everything has got life; what is inert just as you know it in your world, does not exist; there, matter and spirit talk to each other; death is not known there; for everything is eternal; there, time does not make anyone older; nor pain is known; the solar fire gives eternity to itself; it is the eternal constancy of becoming what one was again.-

Yes little son; it is so just as you see it; in the celestial drawing one can see the suns Alpha and Omega; the circle Omega from the right represents the spiritual cell; the fibers of flesh; the human flesh is an identified cosmic essence; all its molecules come out of the elements of nature; which are also cosmic; the flesh is a product of solar saturations; magnetism is the product of every flesh; in any place or point of the Earth one is born all the same; magnetism is all over the planet; a reincarnation is a living mandate written in the Kingdom of Heavens; everything which one thinks or does not think is written in the solar books; also called Ark-Books; or Books of Materialization; in the drawing one can see an angle of a light-blue color; it represents one extreme of a solar book; the solar books are living; there one who reads them, talks to the figures; and he/she can see the true history of the histories; the histories of infinite universes which existed and which are no longer in space; and of those who are; by reading so many and infinite histories, one learns and sees that the own existence, loses importance; living a life with an oblivion of one's origin, as yours is, is to fall into an excessive importance; believing of oneself of being unique; such serious error; for no one who believed of himself as being unique, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; only the Father is unique; and I verily say unto you that those who believed of themselves of being unique of thought and did not express it, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; to the divine Father, it is as if they had expressed it; the reincarnation of a spirit takes place in the right instant in which a human couple has sexual relations; what is up above is the same as down below; the reincarnations follow an order according to how it was written in the Kingdom of Heavens; that is why the human gender was told: And thou shalt make one sole flesh; which means one sole matrimony; And I verily say unto you that all those who by whim and immorality had more than one matrimony, shall curse all their lives not having been loyal to the divine mandate!! for none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and woe betide those who having gotten married, killed the fruit of one sole flesh; for my divine Commandment says: Thou shalt not kill; woe betide those who got married just for self-interest!! For they sullied the virtue of love; none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide those parents who imposed the love of matrimony on their children!! For none of them shall enter the Kingdom of the Father; woe betide those who had sumptuous weddings, while there were beings who were starving in the world!!

For no one of a sumptuous wedding, shall enter the Kingdom Heavens; woe betide those who made their weddings in temples proper of prostitutes!! Where my divine law was traded!! Woe betide those who before getting married, scandalized with love!! Falling in love should have never been done in public places; woe betide those who fondled each other in the presence of the innocence, in the presence of children!! For none of these immoral beings shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide those who did not fulfill their duties as parents!! Woe betide those who abused their children!! Woe betide those who practiced abortion in themselves by mere selfishness!! For they shall be accused of murder in the Kingdom of Heavens; they forgot the divine mandate which says: Do not do to others what you would not like them to do to you; woe betide those midwives and those doctors, who exercised abortion!! They shall be accused of complicity in murders against the Father's creations; no one shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide those who got united by marriage without knowing the Scriptures!! For all their inheritance shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide those who materially profited from their marriages!! For none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide those who made of matrimony a purely mundane union! For no matrimony which participated in the so-called social life by ignoring the Scriptures, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide those parents who being blind in the spirituality, made of their children other blinds as well!! For they shall be cursed by their own children; woe betide those who despised a humble's love because of pride!! For they despised the Father; were you not taught that every humble is first before the Father? For every despiser shall be despised in other existences; woe betide those who got married being violators of the Father's law!! For all their children up to the fourth generation shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens, because of them; woe betide those who gave their children in adoption!! For they shall share the same fate in other existences; woe betide the occidental world!! A world of gold and illusion; because of you there will be a judgment and a weeping and gnashing of teeth in this world; all the violations of my law, came out of you; satan turned into science; woe betide you creators of illusion!! Likewise you shall be deluded in other worlds, too; Ow, woe betide you who have condemned a world, so to not to enter the Kingdom of Heavens!! It would have been better for you not to have requested to know the life on the planet Earth!! How you shall curse your false concept of justice!! Woe betide you capitalists of the world!! False children of the Light!! Woe betide you demons, who gold was more important for you than the spiritual laws of the Creator!! Blinds leading other blinds!! Because of you this world shall not see their place of origin; for you deviated them from the path which leads to the Father's Kingdom; Why did you damned ones deluded my creatures once more? You did the same in remote worlds; entire humanities, remained marginalized from the Kingdom; I verily say unto you devil's spawns that the world shall persecute you, like one gets rid of a pest; and I verily say unto you that the world shall never see a greater chastisement; Praised be you who were meek at heart!! Nothing has the Father against you; the punishment shall fall against the demon of the exploitative capitalism; who divided you in rich and poor; knowing these demons that only satan divides the children of the Father; for no divided spirit enters the Kingdom of Heavens; just as the demons of the rock, who divided you in many beliefs; forgetting by mere selfishness that there is one sole God only; it is enough that one mental division in respect to the Father lasts less than a second, and one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; this is because you promised to exalt the Father, above everything; above every minimal of time; and I verily say unto you that you promised something which was superior to your spiritual faculties; it was enough for a group of demons to build your hopes up, and your Creator was left behind into oblivion; I verily say unto you that your awakening from the illusion which you are accustomed to, shall be painful; the fall of this humanity is the fall of their own life system; two rocks of selfishness fall; the deluders and the deluded; the deceivers and the deceived; the exploiters and the exploited; the blind leaders and the blinds; I verily say unto you that none of you shall see my Glory; the reincarnation or being born again, was given to you; and you never understood its meaning; for you got materialized in the spiritual concepts; many demons of scandal and commerce have ridiculed and denatured such divine law; and I verily say unto you that none of those who volunteered for pornography, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; Woe betide you demons of degeneration!! You are damned up to the fourth generation; because of you, damned ones, millions and millions of my children shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; woe betide those who entertained themselves for an instant by seeing nudes and pornography!! For no immoral being shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and every matrimony who got united by ignoring the Father's law, must be separated; for they transmitted and transmit the living ignorance to all their children; ignorance is the inheritance which is transmitted by blood; Do you understand now, ignorant beings who made one sole flesh? Do you understand now why your children up to the fourth generation shall curse you? I verily say unto you, that no matrimony which lived being guided by gold shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it would have been better for you not to have been married; for you would have had the opportunity of entering the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you, that all this generation shall get to know the weeping and gnashing of teeth; Why were you blind? Were you not taught that what is material is temporary? Why did you let a temporary comfort build your hopes up? Jehovah your Creator is zealous of His laws; being I everywhere, I see everything; and I see your future actions; not only in the existence which you are in, but in all which you shall have; that is why the Father gives and takes away; and I verily say unto you that no one of this humanity, has entered the Kingdom of the Father; because of the illusion which you got to know in life; men were never organized according to the Scriptures; they did everything by ignoring them; and you know the result already; and I verily say unto you that only the children, the innocence has entered and shall enter the Kingdom; for the Kingdom has always been theirs; no so-called adult shall enter the Kingdom; for every adult was trialed between good and evil; for each one requested it that way; and every request in the Kingdom, turns into life on the remote planets; the terrestrial humanity, will have to illustrate themselves in order to know what destiny awaits them; for each one has a defined position, out of the Kingdom of Heavens; and some are closer to the Kingdom than others; others are at the door; everything depends on your celestial points; the celestial score is the addition of all the seconds lived in the existence; starting from the age of twelve years; infancy does not need any points; for the Kingdom is theirs; the celestial points are the addition which you attained for yourselves; and it is at the same time the salt of life; each second of your existences is equivalent to an existence which is fulfilled on Earth, or in other Earths; in remote worlds; according to how your life was, thus shall be your future existence; he who was evil cannot wait to go to a paradise; for the awards of spiritual happiness, have to be attained by you; fulfilling the Commandments of the Father, above everything else; in the term: Above everything else, is the origin and the true character of how the human philosophy should have been; you should have given yourselves a common government; just as it is in the Kingdom of Heavens; Were you not taught a God common to everyone? I verily say unto you that every government which did not take me into account above everything, shall not prevail on Earth; just as it has happened with governments and kingdoms of the past; every world which does not take the Father into account in their decisions, their creatures do not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for in the living Universe of Father Jehovah, matter and spirit are the same thing; a mental error reverberates in other minds; every intention which imitates others, becomes subject to its consequences; for the law is common amidst a variety and apparent inequality; in the Kingdom of Heavens, all which is unequal in the remote dwellings, are equal in what corresponds to them; the son of light and the son of darkness find their fair law; according to their actions; to the generated ideas; to their salt of life; to their own addition; to their knowledge attained; to their sweat on the face; to their own work; physical or intellectual; and I verily say unto you that it is more likely for one who worked one second or less in his life to enter the Kingdom of

Heavens, than the greatest millionaire in the world; this latter one even if he had worked, annuls himself; for no one was mandated to become rich; it is a living immorality that some have everything and others have nothing; the divine Commandments says: Thou shalt no steal; what you have, share it with your brother; and thus the doors of Heaven shall be open to you; if you were charitable down below, you shall find charity up above; where possession and wealth are not known; I verily say unto you that every rich who gets rid of what he has in excess, shall see the Kingdom of Heavens; and he who does not get rid of it, shall see nothing; it is embarrassing to the Trinity to be discussing about the violations of the Father's law; violations like wealth; selfish violations which make of its authors, unworthy of life; for they are the demons of their worlds; wherever these selfish beings go, they sow injustice and moral pain; the spirits of the rich are of those beings who coming out of darkness, requested trials of life in a world of the Light; and they carry in themselves the weakness of darkness; being usurer and ambitious is proper of those who never got to know abundance; the first stages of a spirit; the rich of today shall be the spiritualists of tomorrow; and the spiritualists of today, were the materialists of the past; everything is relative to the experience of the spirit; which is not subject to just one existence; for every spirit is born again; or reincarnates again; and passes through many planetary dwellings; your reincarnation is a saturation of solar fire; it is composed of 318 saturations; the saturation is an impregnation which takes place in the right instant in which you have a sexual relation; what happens down below reverberates up above; you are the continuation of the Father's work; and you are not the only ones; nor the first ones; nor the last ones; the universes existed before you; the expansion is hereditary in any of its forms; and I verily say unto you that it is your own knowledge which gives you the form of the future; your salt of life complements itself with the infinite; where there is a life for everyone; the point of reunion is the Kingdom of Heavens; and from there, one goes to remote and infinite planets; I verily say unto you that nothing has absolute rest; neither matter nor spirit; the stars move and the spirits move; and the colossal kingdoms and galaxies move around; and I verily say unto you that all this movement which has no end, looks for the eternal perfection in order to know the Kingdom of the Father; Were you not taught that one has to be born again in order to see the Kingdom of God? Every birth is a hustle and bustle, and the movement is one of its characteristics; even after the death of your physical body, every spirit starts the return; the Universe attracts it because in some place in it, it was created; and I verily say unto you that the distances and the experiences that every spirit collects in its return journey, are infinitely greater than those known on Earth; and the remembrance of the Earth, starts to diminish as it penetrates the Universe; it is then when the spirit which was illustrated on Earth, understands the meaning of the parable: From dust you are and to dust you shall return; and it associates the concept of what is microscopic up to where its mind can imagine; for the Earth which it inhabited, keeps getting smaller to a microscopic little point lost in space; and what is more, being unknown in the rest of the Universe; as the spirit deepens into the Universe, a living sleep starts taking hold of it; and in the profundity of the sleep is the limit to where it can go; its spiritual magnetism starts to be attracted to the place where it was created; in you, that place are the suns Alpha and Omega; and I verily say unto you that all those who were violators of the Father's law, are filled with dread when they see the living reality; this horror is due to their lack of honesty with themselves; doubt and the no cultivation of faith make of this dread an indescribable moral pain; on the other hand, one who studied on Earth and searched for the truth in his own way, feels a sensation of happiness; and the wonder of what it is being seen starts overwhelming him/her; and I verily say unto you that it is the attribute and the quality of the feeling what causes both sensations; and between both there is an infinite variety of sensations and degrees of it; your spirit is like a microscopic sun which is attracted by another greater one; the Omega is attracted by the Omega; which means that the end is attracted by the cause of the end; a magnetic saturation of solar fire called human life, arrives to its end; the human spiral gets to the point where the Omega starts; it gets to the beginning of the circle; to the beginning of life; its journey to the planet Earth was linear; its return was likewise; and I verily say unto you that the departure journey is the same as the arrival journey; one goes and comes through the same solar cord; the departure journey which is a future birth, is a baby's journey; the return journey is an adult journey; except the spirits who requested to return being infants; the departure as well as the return journey of a spirit, is parallel to the route left by the planet which one is going to; behold the living destinies of those who travel through the cosmos; infinite creatures are found in this colossal come and go; the spiritual crowd darkens the colossal suns of the Macrocosm; spirits and suns talk and discuss; what you see in your worlds are seen in the cosmos; what is up above is the same as down below; but, the living communism is up above; and down below the selfishness of what is private; the first one is of the Kingdom of Heavens; the last one is unknown; for darkness does not belong to the Light; behold the attribute and quality which does not belong to the Kingdom of Heavens; behold the opportunity which the demons of what is private requested; they requested to trial their selfishness in a world which struggled against them; for the Father's mandate taught so; but the world imitated them; and being them of the Light, went over darkness; and just one instant of free will was enough; for one terrestrial century corresponds to one celestial second; as the spirit gets further away from the Earth, it starts losing the proportions which it got to know on Earth; and the time concept is not the same anymore; every human limitation disappears before him/her; projects which relate him/her with the infinity start being born in him/her; the human concepts start getting lost in the infinity; only the salt of life or the morality lived by him/her does not go apart from his/her spirit; and as it gets closer to the solar point in which it was created, he/she starts recognizing the divine place; a sentiment superior to his/her control makes him/her burst into tears; and he/she sees his/her Solar Parents who smile at him/her; when one arrives to the place of origin, the majority of the spirits faint; so great is the emotion; and they are helped by infinite solar creatures; who lovingly assist him/her; and I verily say unto you that in that supreme instant, the spirit's guardian angel appears; and he also consoles him/her; but, Shame of shames! Millions and millions of spirits denied the existence of their invisible protector; many spirits wish to die or disappear from there; for the ungratefulness felt on Earth surrounds him/her with a black aura; and he/she sees that many angels go away from him/her; And there all of them are telepathic!! They read his/her mind; and they do it with a marvelous naturalness; there the ungrateful spirit regrets having been on Earth; for the Father's Glory avoids him/her; there is no purity in him/her; just because of following the concepts of a false life system, based on gold and illusion!! A life system which drew itself apart from the Father's laws, and drew him/her away too; and how he/she curses the rulers of the remote world called Earth!! And many spirits request to be born again in order to take revenge; behold one of the causes of those who take justice on their own hands; they are born hating the world; and they turn into real demons and a nightmare; one of them was the demon Adolf Hitler; this demon did not take the Father's Scriptures into account; he violated the divine Commandment which says:

Thou shalt not kill; I verily say unto you that this demon whines in darkness; he must pay up to the last pore of flesh of his victims; an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a cell for a cell, blood by blood, molecule by molecule; and each little pore of flesh which because of him did not fulfill the mandate of life, is equivalent to an existence of expiation; the pores of every flesh have got the same rights which the spirit has; they also have a free will and they complain in the Kingdom of Heavens; and since every humble and microscopic being is first in the Kingdom, the Creator listens to them first; they are great in size and philosophy; for what is gigantic becomes microscopic; and what is microscopic gigantic; they are attributes which the human spirit does not have; the pores of the flesh are solar hierarchies; who made living covenants with the spirit; it is the ark of covenants, in what is material and spiritual; and the entire human body belongs to the own elements of nature; the everything belongs to the everything; no one is an exception in the creation; the origin and its consequences are one same essence; which manifest themselves in an instant in which a philosophy on a remote planet is being developed; the origin of a reincarnation is a solar desire; it is a product of the love among the suns; the divine mandate which says: Let there be light, goes back eternities before the present suns; and I verily say unto you that the present suns and those which existed, were like you too; they were creatures of flesh; they were human little monkeys in worlds which no longer exist; the Father's mandates have neither a beginning nor an end; Were you not taught that your God has neither a beginning nor an end? I verily say unto you that all those who did not find it out, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; that is how they requested it themselves.-

END OF THE CENTURIES; MATERIAL TIME OF THE HUMAN TRIALS OF LIFE; A TIME IS BORN WHOSE UNITY IS THE NEW KNOWLEDGE; TIME AND IDEAS ARE THE SAME THING; TIME TRI-NO.-

Yes little son; the times are ideas; each idea that comes out of you has got its time; for no one is disinherited; the material time of the Earth is an idea which initiated itself being microscopic; it matured and got expanded along with the other elements of the Earth; time is as living as the spirit is; matter and spirit are living; the centuries which were calculated by human minds, are ideas of calculation; they interpreted time according to knowledge; there was an epoch in which no one cared about time; for the covenants in the spirit were done that way; time being in the Kingdom as the spirit is, talks and makes plans with the thinking beings; there are infinite kinds of time; according to their attributes and qualities; you cannot live without making use of time; for that is how you requested it in your destinies; there are many worlds in which time is not the time as you conceive it; your time ages its creatures; there are times which are all the way around; they give eternity to their creatures; such is time in the Kingdom of Heavens; every physical development stops there; and eternity has other creations which are different to the creations of the material worlds; every time is variable as an individuality is; your mental state changes along with time; they are covenants which were made along with the other elements; each little pore of your physical formation, is a microscopic mandate done in the Kingdom; even your microbes made covenants with time; time, space, and philosophy are reduced to a time of infinite colors; each idea which comes out of you is a microscopic time which shall become the time of a colossal planet; for one has to be very little and humble in order to become great in the Kingdom of Heavens; and every great one of the infinity, was microscopic; time is a magnetic fluid which accelerates or delays the process of every molecule; and I verily say unto you that every time judges those who made use of it; behold one of the facts which took place after Adam and Eve violated the mandate of Father Jehovah; the time of their paradise neither aged them nor required them to render account of their acts; the elements of the universe assimilate themselves to the judgment ordered by the Creator to every violator of the Father's law.-

Yes little son; time was born in the own suns Alpha and Omega; in the celestial drawing one can see the solar fluids; which are magnetic powers which create planetary elements; time is a fire which surrounds every molecule; this fire makes everything mature with a geometrical rhythm; if the molecules did not have time, nothing would have a transformation; everything would be inert; a dead and microscopic world; nothing would have an expansion, the thinking creatures would be microbes; for by not having time, they would not have development as an inheritance; time is a living virtue; in the Kingdom of Heavens, it participates in the divine plans of remote lives, which are developed on remote planets; the form of time has no limits; it expresses itself to the creature just as the creature feels it; if you felt other times, your spirit would get startled; for it has a temporary forgetfulness to fulfill; this forgetfulness was requested by you yourselves; it is included in your form of life; one of the infinite forms that exist; Were you not taught that your Creator is infinite? That nothing has any limits in Him? That means that you are not the only ones; you have never been, nor shall you be; if in the Father nothing has any limits, the forms of the existences are infinite; and I verily say unto you that all those who doubted the Father's power, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and I verily say unto you that all those who called themselves christians and doubted the existence of other creatures, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the true christian is born studying the Father above everything; the false christians are born and they let themselves be deluded in what is mundane; they get entertained in ephemeral knowledge which come out of men; I verily say unto you that all those who let themselves be influenced by things of the world, shall not enter my Kingdom; for they were taught: he who searches shall find; those who search for the Father above everything, are indeed advanced spirits; and those who let themselves be influenced by a temporary present, are backward spirits; they are living the stage of spiritual entertainment; the majority of leaders of your world, belong to the latter group; Which of them govern, praising the Creator? No one; it would have been better for them not to have requested to be leaders, if with that they would fall into ungratefulness before the Father; they forgot the promise they made in the Kingdom; And above everything; above everything we shall proclaim your Glory; that is what it means; but, they did not fulfill it; for they serve the temporary things of the world; I verily say unto you that all those who promise and do not fulfill, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the living time as well as your 318 virtues of your thinking shall accuse you in the Kingdom, of unfulfillment in your promises; for without the use of time and the virtues, there would be no promise; and I verily say unto you that each act that you created in life, is judged in the Kingdom; even your sighs and breathing are called into question; every justice to your ideas, is transformed into another time which must be lived in another existence; the attribute and quality of your ideas, influence in the future time to be lived; space, time and philosophy are born from your ideas; in other words, you yourselves contribute with the elements of your future reincarnation; or your being born again; it is the same; one law can be expressed in many ways; and it does not stop being the same law; without reincarnation none of you would exist; for your spirit would not enter any flesh; Reincarnation means Re-entrance to a flesh, whose number forms a nation; reincarnation is the product of the human will; each one chooses his mate; in your sexual relations you provoke reincarnation; Is a baby of flesh not born? I verily say unto you that all those who negated their own law, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; likewise shall they be denied; reincarnation is one of the infinite forms of creating, which the Father has; there are so many forms of coming to the planetary lives as there are worlds in the universe; millions and millions of you shall cry, for you did not give any importance in life to the studying of the Father's Scriptures; for no ignorant of them, shall enter the Kingdom; and I verily say unto you that all belong to the so-called christianity; behold the greatest tragedy of the world of illusion; for you were guided by blinds; by the most backward spirits of the Kingdom; by the so-called religious beings; and I verily say unto you that never ever shall any creatures be so cursed than your blind guides; because of the religious rock which divided your spirit, none of you shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; only satan divides himself; your guides did with you what satan did in the Kingdom; the demon divided my angels; a division which still continues; the religious spirits imitated satan, for they were influenced by the damned one; this explains the spiritual hardness of the members of the rock; the term rock was imposed on your guides, because of the spiritual selfishness which has characterized them through the centuries; I verily say unto you that these false prophets of my Word, shall be the first ones in being judged; and the first ones to fall in the final judgment to this world; being the culprits for a humanity not to enter their point of origin again, is one of the greatest sins of the spirit; the so-called religions shall disappear from the world; for they are not of Father Jehovah; it is a product of the human mentality; because of the religions was it written: Every tree which the divine Father did not plant, shall be pulled out from its roots; Tree means Philosophy; every philosophy starts from the interpretation that the creatures give life; the religions interpreted the Scriptures by violating them; and I verily say unto you that it is enough not to take one letter of the Scriptures into account, and one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the world does not enter the Kingdom because it was deceived; your Creator was never pleased with the material adoration; the one which teaches nothing to the world; on the contrary, this world has a delay of twenty centuries in its moral and spiritual level; it is true that one has to thank and request the Father; and it is not less true that it was also taught to you: Thou shalt not adore images, temples or any resemblance; Did the rock take it into account? She certainly did not; on the contrary, she filled the planet with temples; just as it happened in the pharaonic and roman era; the truth in the Father should have been taught in the most unbelievable simplicity; for humility and simplicity are the same thing; what should have been done is that every home should have been a temple; Were you not taught that God is everywhere? And if your Creator is everywhere, why did humanity need temples? I am also in every mind; the temples are in yourselves; in your consciences; I verily say unto you that all those who stepped into any material temple, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for they did the contrary to the mandate; if you had dedicated life to the study of my Scriptures, many of you would have entered the Kingdom; but, by stepping into the temples you drew yourselves further and further away; for you must add up all the seconds in which you were in the temple; not even the most microscopic time is less before the Father; Were you not taught that your living God is everywhere? I am also in the microscopic times; and in every invisible time; the Father's justice is a justice which goes parallel to the development of His creatures; from the right instant in which one is born, up to the last instant lived; each second lived, remains recorded through all eternity; each second of life is one part of your salt of life; the salt of life is a totality of everything you thought in life; and each act done remains recorded around your physical body; I verily say unto you that each act is represented or produced in the Kingdom, in the presence of the spirit and the Solar Court; your return to the celestial world is observed with infinite interest; the same ones who prepared your departure to the remote planet Earth, receive you in your return; the departure and the return takes place in a same point of the galaxy Trino; in Trino a galaxy of the solar flesh, your creation was put into effect; the suns Alpha and Omega belong to the galaxy Trino; and the divine word Trinity is derived from Trino; Trino is everything that surrounds you; and I verily say unto you that you shall never know its limits; for everything is expansive in the living universe of Father Jehovah; the suns Alpha and Omega are one of the infinite suns of Trino; their number is like the molehills which are contained in a desert; Father Jehovah's glories are not measured by mental calculation of His creatures; no one in the universe knows any limit of the own universe; only the Father knows the limit; but, no limit is stationary; every limit is also expansive; every planetary knowledge searches for what is superior to its capacity; it is the law of progress with effort; a law which makes every knowledge to be of knowledge; to be proper of those who struggled; for they belong to them; everything which did not cost anything, is not of one's own; and that which did not cost any effort, is not worthy in the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that every easy-attitude being who avoided the sweat on the face, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; Were you not taught: Thou shalt earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face? The Father's mandates are to be fulfilled; your life system condemned you to not to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for you lived being divided in rich and poor; Were you not told in the Scriptures that only satan divides himself? It means that only satan leads to tragedy; and I verily say unto you that every philosophy or knowledge which was not for everyone, their creators shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for the Father's laws do not divide His children of the worlds; and you promised the Father to please Him and imitate Him in His way of being in any possible way; and you did not fulfill it; you broke the promise-agreement; you promised in the Kingdom not to let yourselves be deluded; and you fell; for gold fascinates you; Is gold not the basis of your life system then? I verily say unto you that all those who made use of gold, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; your leaders should have never been guided by gold; gold has spoiled all the generations of the Earth; since the damned pharaonic era; gold produces in the spirit ambitious scenes; and just an instant of this thinking is enough, and one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; I know little son that you are thinking of one scene of your past; So it is divine Father Jehovah, by your divine Grace; I see the First-born Son hitting some merchants, outside a temple; So it is little son; my First-born Solar Son Christ, read the future; and he saw in these merchants of other people's need, the worst yoke of your world; these demons forgot that the Father's mandate says: Thou shalt earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face; and for these damned ones it is as if He would have said: Thou shalt earn thy bread by exploiting others; I verily say unto you that no trader of the world shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and I verily say unto you that if there were no traders in your world, the Earth would be a paradise; there would not be any ambitious beings; everything would be common; the selfishness of what is private would not exist; and I verily say unto you that all those who had properties by exploiting in any of its forms, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; those who built their houses with the effort of their individual work, are great in the Kingdom of the Father; it is more likely for one who worked and sweated to enter the Kingdom of the Father, than for one who exploited; the divine justice is applied in infinite ways; the intention which was not expressed by the interested one, is equally judged; every ignorant is judged by his intentions; and every wise being likewise; and I verily say unto you that it is more likely for an ignorant to enter the Kingdom of Heavens than for a wise man; for the violations of a wise man were done with a more illustrated first-hand knowledge; and all those who had a superior illustration, knowing that millions of their brothers and sisters did not have it, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is a living immorality; and every enjoyment which others did not have, is an immorality; and I verily say unto you that the originators of this immorality, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; all your violations are derived from your life system; the demons who created it, deluded you and they made of immorality an illusory morality; which is not morality; for what is of the Father was not taken into account; the Scriptures were not taken into account; Did you not promise the Father to please Him above everything? Above every life system? And I verily say unto you that the only life system is the communist system of the divine Commandments; for it is more likely for an intention which was common to everyone to enter the Kingdom than for an intention which was just for it; there is ignorance in the latter one; those who defended material interests in life, do not take a single gram of those interests to the spiritual world; on the contrary, because of their selfishness and ambitions, they leave a yoke to the world; millions of imitators; millions and millions who shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens for being imitators; for no selfish one shall get to know the Father's Kingdom; those who gave you a life system, should have created one which did not excite the ambition of anyone; you should have never allowed possession; for because of it, none of you shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who had nothing in life to enter the Kingdom than for one who had something in life; every material possession violates the Father's law of equality; it is not that I forbid property; for you have had free will; your error derives from giving yourselves a system which started from error; And not taking into account the Father's mandates is not the greatest of errors then? For you compromise your spiritual future; the future does not lead you to the Father's dwelling; I verily say unto you that amongst a weeping and gnashing of teeth you shall curse your customs and their creators; your own parents; and they shall curse their parents; every bad custom or habit which came out of your illusion, is enough for not entering the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that no human being shall enter the Kingdom; and I verily say unto you that the fall of your own life system shall come out of yourselves; you yourselves shall get rid of the yoke of many centuries; you shall do what the revolutionaries wanted to do; for every revolutionary who fought for my humble, is great in the Father's Kingdom; it is more likely for one who was a revolutionary to enter the Kingdom, than for one who did nothing to remedy an injustice; the latter one is an easy-attitude spirit; who expects everything from others; every easy-attitude one who protected himself behind money, shall not enter to the Kingdom of Heavens; it was written: Every humble shall be exalted and every rich and powerful despised; if your Creator permitted them in life, it was because they asked for an opportunity; they requested to trial their philosophies; and they were trialed themselves; each one's philosophy was trialed; for every spirit is trialed in life; every evil which your world has, comes out of your own selves; and I verily say unto you that your time has ended; for every trial has a beginning and an end; it has its Alpha and its Omega; up above as well as down below; for up above and down below there are infinite worlds; nothing has any limits in the Father; His mandates are not only for one world; they are for infinite planets Earths; you are not the only ones; only the Father is unique; and all those who proclaimed that only this Earth was inhabited, they limited the Father's infinite power; Were these ignorant spirits not taught that many dwellings the Father has? I verily say unto you that none of these ignorant beings shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for they limited the creative power of the Father; it does not correspond to them to see the Father's Glory; for they negated it; they did the same in other existences; they are spirits who are little evolved; not even the presence of the infinity moves them; I verily say unto you that all those who were not moved before the infinite universe, none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for all of you promised before coming to life, to praise the Father's creations, above everything; praising the Father is awarded in the Kingdom of Heavens; it has to do directly with the Creator's free will; and the award has no equal; for what is of the Father has no limits; and I verily say unto you that all those who proclaimed my divine Name in the streets of the world, shall enter the Kingdom to receive their rewards; and I verily say unto you that even if they were in the wrong way, they shall be awarded; for it is more likely for one who acclaimed the Father to enter the Kingdom, than for one who did not acclaim Him; the first one was loyal to his own promise: To my God and Lord above everything; the second one let himself be deluded by the mundane things to the degree of forgetting his promise; your Creator awards what is minimal and punishes what is minimal too; I know children of the Earth that many of you who make yourselves be called christians, make fun of those who proclaim Me in the streets; False and hypocritical christians!! For none of you shall enter my Kingdom; for it is more likely for one who was respectful to what is of the Father to enter my Kingdom, than for one who was disrespectful; never has any insolence been awarded; the so-called christian world is the false prophet of my Word; for you serve gold and try to serve God; Hypocrites! Were you not taught that one cannot serve two masters? It means that one cannot serve two ideas; for one of them is false; and the truth is one; the false one is your way of thinking; you think according to your life system, which is also false; and amidst this illusion, you spare the crumbs with your Creator; I know that other greater demons force you; but, in what measure do you make an effort in order to overcome the trial? Many of you enter in alliances with the demon; they buy your consciences; I verily say unto you that no one who allowed others to buy them, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; you promised in the Kingdom not to make ephemeral alliances; for everything ephemeral renders account before the Father, sooner or later; because of you children of the life of the little human monkeys was written: May the left be aware of what the right does; it means: May the people's humble take care of their morality from the immoralities of the rich; for the power of gold corrupts; Were you not taught that no rich enters the Kingdom of Heavens? For it is more likely for a camel to enter through a needle's eye than a rich to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; this divine warning is for every rich; and no rich has abided it; I verily say unto you that none of these demons shall enter the Kingdom for eternities; they must add up all the seconds of their lives, from the right instant in which they became rich; for the divine warning has been on for centuries and centuries; not even with a trillion of lives you shall enter my Kingdom; since for each pore of your flesh corresponds the same number of seconds; Were you not taught that every very little and humble, is great in the Kingdom of Heavens? Each little pore of your flesh is living; it has got the same rights which your spirit has; one little pore or a second of material time, has got the equivalence to an existence; whether it is in worlds of the light or in worlds of darkness; the second is also living; the little pore and the second complain before the Creator, when the spirit has violated the Father's law; the spirit drags all its virtues which make an entirety with it along with its influence; this is called the Ark of Covenants; a divine agreement made at the moment of your reincarnation; when you are free spirits, you are called to the macrocosm; many are called and a few are chosen; for when returning from the remote planets, you bring the violations along with you; each existence which your spirit requests, is a magnetic transformation; your salt of life undergoes changes; for everything costs; the magnetization comes out of the Ark of Covenants; infinite suns participate in your reincarnation; you are saturated by their fires; the Glory of Father Jehovah, performed by His first-born children; the sublime Revelation of how life is created; the Alpha and Omega of your search; the supreme Revelation of all the revelations; the beginning of how everything was done; every birth is a fluid or solar force; space, force, and philosophy form the trino time; the psychology of your human life; your destiny is a trinity of three solar magnetic lines; and the momentary forgetfulness of your origin was integrated in it; for you requested the forgetfulness of your past; so to make your trials of life more complete; there are trials of life which remember their past; for there is everything in the Lord's flock; the forgetfulness of the past is the creator of your philosophies, which try to explain what is beyond; when you learn your origin of the Kingdom of Heavens, all your philosophies shall disappear from the world; they formed part of your own trials of life; a consequence of your free will; which also requested trials; I verily say unto you that no philosophy of yours shall remain; for none of them praise the Father as their creators promised; and all your philosophies and thoughts are influenced by your life system; I verily say unto you that no influenced one by any violation, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and I verily say unto you that being my Universe Expansive and Thinking, for each idea which you generated in life, is another corresponding justice; the ideas claim for what the spirit violated; for if a spirit is condemned, its ideas have the same destiny; except the ideas which you generated in your innocence; I verily say unto you that your life system, should have been one which kept your innocence; for you would have entered the Kingdom; one enters the Kingdom as one came out of it; one comes out of the Kingdom in order to fulfill the Father's mandates, on remote planets; without any microscopic part of your innocence being sacrificed; that was the grave error of those who gave you the life system, based on gold; they corrupted your innocence; they deluded it; they divided it in philosophies which are not of the Father; they deviated you from the way of truth; Were you not taught that no rich enters the Kingdom of Heavens? Why then do these demons give you a life system based on gold? I verily say unto you that the sustainers of your tragedy, shall cry out their tragedy beating their breasts; for only the intervention of my First-born Son, shall save them from the world's wrath; they shall be cursed by this generation and the following ones; I verily say unto you that those who created the so-called capitalism, are the same demons who came out of satan's legion, who requested to be trialed in a world of the light, called Earth; and I verily say unto you that there is no other explanation for these creatures from darkness; and I verily say unto you that you should not ever expect the unity of this world from them; for they have been born to exploit and divide; they have the shrewdness of the serpent; and they are the most backward spirits as far as spirituality is concerned; they do not conceive the Father's greatness; they live a limited present; they cannot see further; materialism was born from them; which as the word says so, it kills the spirit's ideas; the attribute and quality of materialism is to delude that something remains; I verily say unto you that you have built on quicksand; for because of these demons you shall have to start all over again as human creatures; to be again a creature of flesh on a planet Earth; and you shall have to do it in such number of times, as the number of seconds in which you lived deluded; behold the cause of your weeping and gnashing of teeth; a cause which started many centuries ago; when some galactic creatures called pharaohs, fascinated the world with the possession of gold; they taught the older people of Israel that possessing gold meant eternity; and that is how greed was born whose product is injustice and illusion.-

DIVINE ORIGIN OF THE HUMAN LIFE; HOW AN INCARNATION IS DONE; HOW A BABY IS BORN; THE UNION AMONG THE MOLECULES OF FLESH AND THE VIRTUES.-

Yes little son; the human life was originated in the suns; that birth took place in the suns Alpha and Omega; of the galaxy Trino; Alpha and Omega means beginning and end; all the infinite suns of the Universe have got their names; no one is disinherited; I verily say unto you that every name of worlds, suns and creatures have come out of the Macrocosm, called Kingdom of Heavens; the galaxy Trino is the same one in which you are; the galaxies, whichever they are, have neither beginning nor end, in the Father's creation; the human life is a product of love among the solar luminaries; for there is love up above and there is love down below; what is up above is the same as down below; no one has the exclusivity of love; only the Father does; for every love in each individuality was created by the Father; all the loves of all the thinking beings, return to the Father; for they came out of the Father; the human life is a materialized love which came out of the suns Alpha and Omega; the origin of every life in the Universe, comes out of the own elements of the Universe; the own suns came out of the elements; the law of creation is only one; manifested in infinite attributes and qualities; the variety of essences in matter and spirits, has neither a beginning nor an end; and the neither a beginning nor an end is only known by the Father; the human life also had an infancy in the Kingdom of Heavens; just as you have it on Earth; what is up above is the same as down below; this infancy is called the birth of a spirit; a microscopic fire of a whitish color; similar to the color of milk; the law of your creation is written in the Father's Scriptures; there is a parable which says: One has to be humble in order to be great in the Kingdom of Heavens; the Telepathic complement of the Revelation, tells you: One has to be humble, very little, microscopic to be great in the Kingdom of Heavens; the law of the microbe is in everyone; matter and spirit; for all are equal before God; equal in rights; every equality comes out of the Father; inequality comes out of the demon; I verily say unto you that he who taught an unequal philosophy on Earth, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; inequality starts when one does not see everyone as being equal; your human life, so different in destinies, is common to everyone; all of you are of the same flesh; your Creator does not give life of a rich or poor; such inequality came out of you; and not of the Father; I verily say unto you that he who lived in a system of unequal life, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for his thoughts saw division; saw and felt; only satan divides himself; I verily say unto you that every divided spirit does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; no one promised the Father to divide another; for it was written: Do not do to others what you would not like others to do to you; the human life is the own promise; for everything is living in the Universe of Father Jehovah; and every living thing expresses itself before the Father; before the Father, what is dead comes back to life; I verily say unto you that everything in this world is like being dead; for none of you shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; because of your life system, and for the so-called religions; your life system divided you materially in rich and poor; and the so-called religions divided you in many beliefs, being there just one God; behold your tragedy; which came out of the error of not taking into consideration God's law for all the things of the human thinking; you yourselves requested that what is of the Father be above everything; that is why it was written: Thou shalt adore your Lord and Creator above everything; above your own self.-

The incarnation is a divine covenant between matter and spirit; I verily say unto you that in your sexual relations, you participate in the incarnation of your children; the spirit is independent of the body that you form; but, it is united to a flesh cover, by the influence of two fleshes; incarnation is the formation of a future living hierarchy; it is the seed which multiplies in its attribute and quality; I verily say unto you that every sexual act is controlled in the Kingdom of Heavens; and this divine control does not affect the free will of those who fulfill the law of procreation; when one is creating, laws which your eyes cannot see take place; nor any instrument can see; when one is in the creation, the sperms are influenced by the cherubs of the physical creation; the spirit is attracted, like the magnet attracts the iron; this fact is a magnetic law which humanity knows nothing about; you participate in the creation of your children, without even knowing how their formation is; for that is how you requested it in the Kingdom of Heavens; for you requested to ignore your own origin; an origin which shall give place to many having a weeping and gnashing of teeth; for many of you have even denied your own origin; to negate the origin is to negate every beginning; for all the beginnings which the spirit knows came out of the same place of origin; the incarnation of a baby is a microscopic covenant of molecules and virtues; it is an Ark of Covenants; in every incarnation the living Universe of Father Jehovah participates; an entire infinity is participating in every birth; for you are from infinity; the conception of the Universe in you is dormant; for your life system keeps you deluded in attachment to what is of the planet; and the things of your world are microscopic; you are blind of the things of infinity; I verily say unto you that every blind of the Creator's marvels, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who admired, studied, deepened into the creation of the Father to enter the Kingdom, than for one who was blind towards them; your Creator awards every kind of effort and studies; as He punishes every kind of violation; the incarnation was given to you when your Creator told you: Thou shalt make one sole flesh; a divine mandate for worlds and suns up above and down below; for the Father's mandates are not just for one world; for the creation of the Father is not reduced to one world; what is of the Father has neither a beginning nor an end; I verily say unto you that making one sole flesh means one sole matrimony; and I verily say unto you that all those who tasted more than one flesh, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who respected the Father's law to enter the Kingdom, than for one who did not respect it; those who violated this law, must add up all the seconds of the time in which they violated it; each second is equivalent to an existence, which must be fulfilled out of the Kingdom of Heavens; all the demons who abused this law of the flesh shall be born in worlds where they shall be abused; for all the living creations which came out of them, shall accuse them in the Kingdom of Heavens; and for each pore, cell, molecule, hair, are other existences which they must fulfill; I verily say unto you that every matrimony which got united, without knowing the entire content of the Father's Scriptures, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; husband and wife must be separated; for the seconds of violation will keep on adding up as the union lasts; you yourselves requested in the Kingdom of the Father to fulfill what is of the Father, above everything; many have read or studied my Scriptures; but, no one has done it, according to what was promised; up to the last letter; this is what above everything means; one letter of understanding overlooked is enough for you not to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for that letter which you disregarded, shall complain before the Father; for everything turns alive in the Kingdom of Heavens; the letter is humble, therefore it is great before the Father; for everything humble and microscopic is great in the Kingdom of Heavens; this greatness is because of the Father's own preference; for no one is greater than the Father; I verily say unto you that every separation of matrimony who violated their own promise, is a beginning of repentance; and from the same instant of separation, the points of darkness stop; for every marriage which was united with ignorance in respect to the Father's Scriptures, must add up all the seconds of the time gone by, in union of violation; each second is equivalent to live one existence out of the Kingdom of Heavens; the longer a marriage had, the more distanced is it from the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that these separations of millions of children, is one of the causes of the weeping and gnashing of teeth; behold what satan took you into; only satan divides; and he divides himself; the so-called catholic church united you in matrimony; put the blame on her of your tragedy; for no matrimony which came out of the rock of human selfishness shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for a matrimony that was united by the Holy Scriptures to enter the Kingdom, and not one which was united by any religion; you must distinguish among what is: Scriptures, religion and Revelation; he who guided himself by the Scriptures in all the acts of his life, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; he who guided himself by religions, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for he is a divided spirit; the so-called religions and every philosophy which divided others, are unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; the so-called religions are accused by Father Jehovah of dividing His children in many beliefs; being there just one God only; only satan divides himself; it was written: Do not do to others what you would not like others to do to you; those who divided others, likewise shall they be divided in other existences; the Father's truth is just one; His Scriptures are the same ones; and the truth in the Father does not need the material adoration; nor the images; not expensive temples either; the truth is in the behavior of your spirits; the truth is in your intentions; the truth is mental; not material; what is material turns to dust; the mental action is eternal; your salt of eternal life comes out of what is mental; each one makes his own heaven from his actions; what is material, the exterior is a consequence of what is mental; what is interior is the cause of future destinies; behold the fall of all the religions and philosophies, which divided the world; they were trialed by the Father; as all the thinking world was trialed; a world which shall cry for all those who created the philosophical divisions; of those who did not take into account the

Father's Scriptures; he who does not take into account what is of the Father, is not taken into account in the Kingdom of Heavens; the most minimal attitude of negation towards the Creator, finds the same attitude in the Kingdom of Heavens; the incarnation is a union and not a division; it is a compromise up to the process called death; the incarnation or birth is a trial between matter and spirit; both have their own laws; both came out of a same law; of a common cause; the incarnation of a spirit is a product of magnetic forces in constant evolution; when a spirit is to get united to a future body, it is notified in the Kingdom of Heavens; and a time which is unknown to it penetrates it; it traverses galaxies, cosmos and universes; it makes the journey of gestation; and it does it through the solar cord which each one has; this solar cord is born from your head; and it is not the only solar cord which you have; each virtue, each molecule, each pore have their cords; no one is disinherited; neither matter nor spirit; I verily say unto you that your body and the Universe, is an immense net of cords, or invisible and microscopic magnetic lines; the everything above everything is united by solar cords; infinite ones and of all the imaginable hierarchies; these cords are like tunnels and dimensions; infinite powers after the Father, travel through these tunnels; they are creatures of all the imaginable forms; they travel in vessels of infinite forms; according to their sciences and evolutions; the vessels which you call flying saucers, are one of them; these vessels go in and out of the tunnels; the living creation of Father Jehovah, is born from the invisible to the visible; from the inside to the outside; by starting from the inside, the spirit goes through infinite presents; it sees their creatures; and it sees their worlds; but, it is on its journey; it observes but does not stop; it stops when it arrives to its destiny-present; according to the divine mandate which was given to him/her in the Kingdom of Heavens; the flying saucers accompany the spirits who are going to be the future terrestrial babies up to where their laws can; a hierarchy of vessels gives the baby's care to another hierarchy; just as in your world, a sentinel hands it to another one; what is up above is the same as down below; the silvery vessels which many of you have seen, see them or saw them, for that is how you requested it in the Kingdom of Heavens; those who saw nothing, did not request to see them; everything imagined is requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; the encounters, the circumstances, the tumults in which you find yourselves, everything is requested in the Kingdom; the most microscopic thing that you have, which are your ideas, are also requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; every idea is lived but not seen; no one negates the ideas; to negate them is to negate one's own existence; for of one divine idea all the ideas of all the thinking creatures came out; the divine idea of which you came out, is the own Universe; it is the expansion of the idea; what is of the Father is colossal; what is of the children is microscopic; the incarnation is done by creatures of fire; you are created in the suns Alpha and Omega; my First-born Son told you: I am the Alpha and the Omega; the beginning and the end of all the thinking creatures; all the creatures of the worlds, have their beginnings in the suns; the fire of the solar luminaries is the creator of worlds and creatures; your incarnations are not the only ones; no one is unique; only the Father is; all the worlds are inhabited; they were or they shall be; your own world, there was a time of your past in which humanity was not there; there were other creatures; creatures which you have never seen; nor they have seen you; the number of creatures which you did not get to know, escapes your imagination; as well as the Earth's antiquity; this world has as many centuries as it has molecules; your planet has gone through all the sizes; from the invisible to the visible; from the size of a pin's head, passing through all the sizes, up to the present ball; behold the only beginning of your planet; a beginning as all the planets of the Universe have had; one who is not born microscopic and humble, is not great in the Kingdom of Heavens; one has to be very little and humble to become great in the Kingdom of Heavens; this parable which is in the Scriptures, is a mandate for matter and spirit; for both are equal in rights before God; every mandate which came out of the Father, has neither a beginning nor an end; what the Earth is going to go through, infinite planets earths are going through it now; whose number is like the numbers of molehills which are contained in a desert; disregarding those which were in space; those which are being born and those which shall be; I verily say unto you that all the Universe came out of invisible ideas; it came out of the most microscopic which your mind can imagine; and the most microscopic thing that your mind can imagine are your ideas; you do not have anything more microscopic; your ideas are so microscopic that you can only feel them, and you do not see them with the eyes of flesh; every idea which you generate daily, is physically a magnetic wave; an Omega wave, which never dies; this Omega wave grows and gets expanded in the eternity; the own space makes it germinate; it grows going through all the sizes that you can imagine; until it becomes a colossal planet; it was written: Each one makes his own heaven; for the ideas of which the future worlds come out, have come out of yourselves; and each created world has its own heaven; the space which surrounds a world, is a heaven; I verily say unto you that he who negated every possible beginning of oneself, he negated the Father; Were you not taught that your God is infinite? That everything imagined exists in Him? Why do you negate Him then? It is enough to negate one microscopic part of God's infinity, and one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the infinity in the Father, means that everything exists; what your mind understands, and what it does not understand; what is of God is not measured in human calculation; for He is precisely infinite; and you know nothing about infinity; and you belong to infinity; no one stops from being one part of Him; the incarnation is the only law which unites you to your point of origin; it was written: Every spirit is born again; it is the same as saying: Every spirit reincarnates again; a law can be expressed in many ways; and it does not stop from being the same law; the successive existences of the spirit, come out of the own spirit; they come out of its own knowledge learned in its existences; the fruit comes out of itself; for each one makes his own heaven; the more a spirit took advantage of time, the better is its fruit; its future body shall be more perfect; it shall go towards a more elevated world in morality and wisdom; from its own knowledge, Father Jehovah takes the geometry of its future physical body; many of you, especially the easy-attitudes, those who did not get know work in themselves, shall return to planets earths similar to the one they are on; for the knowledge learned does not give them enough for another superior geometry; it is like one who sees himself forced to repeat the same course; I verily say unto you that all the children of this world, are in this law; for all were divided, deluded and taken away from the knowledge of the Father's Scriptures; it always happens the same; in infinite worlds, the demons of exploitation and deceit take children away from the Light; they take them away from the path which leads to the Father's Kingdom; your history of weeping and gnashing of teeth has been repeating itself since eternities before; for the history of satan is not exclusive of your world; this history took place and it is still taking place; and as time passes by in eternity, the spirits are getting to know satan better; the Knowledge which came out of the Father, sinks satan; satan does not want the creatures to get educated; for by getting educated, they get united; the demon likes ignorance; behold a truth; behold the demons of your world; behold those who having education, impede others to have it; they impede that with their assistance, the others obtain their destinies in education; they do not let those who want a unified education to get unified; behold satan dividing in the life system; behold the executioner of my children; I verily say unto you that every demon who interfered in the free will of every child who searched for his unification in education, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; these demons of selfishness, must add up all the seconds of the time gone by, in which they impeded such desire in my children; each second of abuse corresponds to an existence which they must fulfill out of the Kingdom of Heavens; these children of ignorance forgot the divine parable: Do not do to others what you would not like others to do to you; this law of justice is for all the originators of illiteracy; I verily say unto you, that according to my Commandments and Scriptures, this world was destined to equality; for all of you are equal in rights, before God; usury and the ambition of those who gave you the life system, impeded the Father's wishes to be fulfilled; they did not take them into account; they did the opposite to what was promised in the Kingdom of Heavens; they promised Him above everything; above every strange life system; and by not complying with the Father, they provoked your tragedy; for none of you shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for a humanity which did not get to know a strange morality, which came out of a strange life system, to enter the Kingdom than for one who got to know and lived it; I verily say unto you that only the children up to the age of twelve, are out of this judgment; it is more likely for a child to enter the Kingdom of Heavens than an adult; the innocence is the first in the Kingdom of Heavens; your Creator shall take the philosophy of the Omega world out of the innocence; only innocence remains in this world; and all those who lived in life in perpetual joy; in despite of the hard trials, which they had to fulfill; behold the meaning of the parable which says: Let the children come to me, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heavens; theirs is the future Omega world; a new beginning is born from them, within the beginning; the new philosophy of the world is born from them; a philosophy which the selfish beings of the world are far from imagining; a philosophy worthy of the Father's Scriptures; a philosophy which shall not take the power of gold into account; a philosophy which shall be pure knowledge; and not pure self-interest; I verily say unto you that for this world to become a reality, it is necessary to struggle against the demon; the same one who has subjugated every people through the centuries; the same one who divides you in rich and poor; I verily say unto you that as long as there is one sole philosophy which divides men, this world shall never have peace and justice; the demon takes advantage of the inequality of opinions; he calls this inequality freedom; and when a group of people have achieved unity with great sacrifice and struggle, the demon starts to work in order to tear down that union; to your satan whose power lies in gold, the unification of any people is not convenient; for his own power gets weaker; only satan divides; and he divides himself; no divided one shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that satan shall not be able to do anything against the Father's Revelation; it shall happen the same as it happened in the past; when your living God sent you the Mosaic law and the Christian Doctrine; no demon could overcome them; I verily say unto you that you shall witness the fall of satan in this world; and this world shall enter a new era; the era of the reign of the true spirituality; the one that should have always reigned on Earth; the true spirituality is born when the creatures do not draw apart from the Father's laws; you children of the Earth, cultivated a spirituality which is unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; for it is a selfish and self-interested spirituality; influenced by calculation; only satan has shrewdness; I verily say unto you that with such spirituality you get further and further away from the Kingdom of Heavens; it pushes you to return again to the material worlds; entering the

Kingdom costs; your conscious must not have any faults; nor your mind being divided by philosophies which are not of the Father; what is of the Father divides no one; it unifies everyone; satan does the contrary; he never unifies; I verily say unto you that every divided world, goes against itself; those who defended its laws shall go against them; that is what is going to happen in this world; you are going to witness the greatest revolution which came out of a humble son; for it was written that the humble are first; it is for this reason that this revolution shall be called the first revolution; for none of those which were raised, shall compare to it; it is a planetary revolution; every thinking being shall participate; for all of them have got a spirit; this revolution shall be called the Armageddon; which means people who get armed with the own work done in life; with which they shall face the Final Judgment; behold the end of your life system; a life system which should have never existed; for all those who lived in it, none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth; behold the science of good; behold an easy life, which did not come out of the Father's Scriptures; which came out of a group of ambitious and exploiter beings; an imperfection which came out of the spirit; you are governed by a weakness of the spirit; for the imperfections of the spirit succeed each other through many existences; those who created the so-called capitalism, are the same pharaonic spirits of the past of the Earth; their tendencies to slavery and material dominion are still kept by them; a weakness or imperfection does not disappear with only one existence; many are required; behold the cause of evil of this world; behold the pharaonic serpent; turned into life system; whose attribute and quality is to divide the Father's children; behold the cause of your last weeping and gnashing of teeth; behold satan being uncovered in his cause; behold the mystery of your suffering is risen; a mystery requested by yourselves; a mystery among other mysteries; for every mystery has got attribute and quality; I verily say unto you that there is no greater happiness in a world but when the demon is uncovered, in a universal way; behold the end of satan and all his stories; only the Father's Light is eternal life; I verily say unto you that the greatest revolution of this world, shall be led by a Son of humility; a Son who struggled hand to hand against the demon; he underwent spiritual trials which have no comparison in this world; I verily say unto you that you shall see the living Revelation; in Glory and Majesty; before his presence the exploitative demons shall be filled with dread; they shall flee from his sight; for he shall read everyone's mind; every demon shall be uncovered; every guilty one shall cry out loud his faults; every thief shall cry out loud his thefts; every assassin shall name his victims; I verily say unto you that everything hidden shall be known; those who divided you shall be terrified; the greatest terror shall take control of the followers of gold; they shall remain isolated; How they shall curse having requested to be born in this world! How they shall hide themselves from the presence of the Solar First-born Son! Just as it happened to them in the past; in the pharaonic era and the roman era; I verily say unto you that the world shall be reversed; the sumptuous beings turn to be the poor ones; and also poor of spirit; and the poor because of the sumptuous beings, turn to govern the world; two thousand years after the divine mandate came out; it was written two thousand years ago already: Every humble is first in the Kingdom of Heavens; and if they are first in eternity, Why were they not first on Earth? Why did they not govern this world from the beginning? Behold a question which shall shudder your demons; those who usurped my humbles' rights; I verily say unto you that this question must be answered by all the leaders of the world; and by all those who were; no humble was taken into account; on the contrary, my humble were given the worst; the crumbs; they were given hunger and exploitation; injustice; but you pushed them to be closer to the Kingdom of Heavens.-

HOW THE HUMAN INCARNATION WAS DONE IN THE SUNS ALPHA AND OMEGA; THE ALPHA LINES OF THE HUMAN BRAIN; HOW THE SPIRITS ARE FORMED IN THE MACROCOSM; LIFE IS A CHAIN WHICH PASSES FROM SUN TO SUN; NO ONE HAS AN END, FOR EVERYTHING CAME OUT OF AN ETERNAL FATHER.-

Yes little son; the beginning of every individuality came out of the suns Alpha and Omega's fire; the electricity which each one feels in their physical body, comes from a magnetism which was originated in the remote suns; the Incarnation is a magnetic saturation, whose Alpha lines were maturing until they became cells; Lines Alpha mean geometric Beginning; the incarnation is the loving fruit of the suns; microcosm is the infant family of the macrocosm; being all the universe familiar, it is said that what is up above is the same as down below; the incarnation is one in the entire eternity; it is the celestial beginning; the reincarnation is infinite by its number; reincarnation shall never cease; the world has to know how to distinguish between what is incarnation and what is reincarnation; one incarnates only one time; and one reincarnates infinite times; the reincarnation is the eternal succession of the existences; that is why it was written: One has to be born again in order to see the Kingdom of God; for in each existence one has a microscopic image of the Father; and since the Father is infinite, one requests existences in order to understand Him, forever and ever; the incarnation is solar; which means that the place where one was born as a spirit, is living fire; your flesh is the inheritance of the solar loving; there is love up above and love down below; for what is of the Father has no end; I know little son that you have been seeing the incarnations of the remote suns since you were a little one; So it is divine Father

Jehovah, by your divine grace; I have seen how in the remote suns there are multitudes of thinking creatures; I see enormous cities; I realize that what is up above is the same as down below; I see that the solar crowds, darken other suns; they are like the molehills which are contained in a desert; So it is little son; those crowds are the divine solar cherubs; their names are in the Father's Scriptures; but now the world shall get to know them; the solar cherubs are living solar magnetic lines; they govern the universes; and there is no molecule or minor particles which are not subordinated to the divine cherub; the cherub is the most microscopic thing that the human mind can imagine; the divine cherub is so microscopic that no instrument made by the terrestrial science, shall ever see it; men shall only see their effects; my First-born Son worked in this world by means of the solar cherubs; the world called his work a miracle; for the world did not know and still does not know the celestial laws which rule in the material worlds; being the Revelation a law which came out of the Father, it is the same Revelation, light of the world; for having the Father created everything, He also created the mysteries; for humanity requested to know what they did not know; mystery requested time in order to expose its philosophy to the world; just as all the virtues of the spirit requested it and the own spirit too; every human time is not eternal; an instant comes in which its time comes to an end; it is this way that all the causes which all the individualities feel shall be known now; I verily say unto you that to know the cause of life itself, costs a Final judgment; for that is how each one of you requested it to the Father in the suns Alpha and Omega; incarnation is a universal law; what is of the Father has no end; in order to judge the Father's work, the greatest obstacle is your imperfection; for you are a microscopic part of His divine image.-

Yes little son; the Incarnation is a divine magnetic process; it could well be called magnetic saturation; for each existence corresponds a magnetic saturation; and in such saturation are all the facts and events of a living individuality contained; the saturation is the everything above everything of the creature; the individuality is born from the solar fire; the attribute and quality of every individuality are never repeated; for the individualities of the suns are varying at every instant; a solar individuality is like a luminary; magnetic lines which contain every germ of life are born from it; all the suns of the universe are united to Father Jehovah; this union is by means of the solar cords; this divine Revelation was known by the pharaonic dynasty; their damned ornaments represented the solar line; the demons who violated the Father's laws, had a profound knowledge of the Solar Trinity; the geometric forms of their pyramids was a symbol of the remote suns; Father Jehovah took them out of the Earth, for they created the first slavery; which was imitated by the human progeny; in the celestial drawing one can see the suns Alpha and Omega; the sun Alpha represents the masculine sign of creation; the sun Omega represents the feminine sign of creation; Alpha is the beginning or active part; for Alpha made Omega fall in love with him; Omega is passive; Alpha and Omega mark the beginning of the human life; this divine

Revelation was expressed by the First-born Son: I am the Alpha and the Omega; the Beginning and the End; I verily say unto you that every beginning of planetary life is in infinite places of the universe; for what is of the Father has no limits in anything; and if there is a limit, this is relative and has also been created by the Father; every incarnation gives place to infinite saturations called Reincarnations; there are invisible and visible reincarnations; yours came out from the invisible to the visible; from the microscopic to the macroscopic; this law is universal; he who did not start as a microbe, shall never become great in the Kingdom of Heavens; the point of departure is the same for all the creatures of the universe; the equality taught by the Father starts to be fulfilled from the right instant in which one is created; this equality which is born with the own life, must always be kept in the infinite lives which every spirit shall request; each reincarnation is a new rebirth; when the creatures of any form of life draw away from the Father's equality, they are subject to divine judgments; what happened in your world is that humanity was forced to get away from the Father's equality; for a life system was imposed on them, with the use of force; they were imposed a strange life system based on gold; a life system which no one requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; your life system which you call capitalism is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; nor is any kind of exploitation known; I verily say unto you that all those who lived the life system based on the laws of gold, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for your mind saw immorality; an immorality which should have never been known by any human spirit; it is more likely for one who never got to know immorality to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who just heard about it; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of a world which came out of men and not of the Father; for the Father was not taken into account; many centuries ago a group of ambitious beings created the so-called capitalism; they did not remember the Creator; they did not consult His Scriptures; and that constituted the greatest error made in this world; for neither them nor those who followed them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; none of the creatures who participated in this world has entered the Kingdom of Heavens; the culprits are the ambitious spirits who invented the system of measuring every merit with the meter of gold; these demons who invented capitalism, make the future reincarnations of the spirits be painful; for they divide them; every spirit divided in its innocence, does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; only satan divides and he divides himself; satan divides so that no one enters the Father's Glory; behold the demon of your world turned into a life system; behold the great deluder who confuses the spirits; behold the demon among yourselves; incarnation did not know the demon; for all of you were created in innocence; when the spirit starts trialing forms of life, it gets to know evil on its way through the worlds; darkness is the consequence of the children's rebelliousness; sooner or later every spirit overcomes it; for as one is born in eternity, the spirits attain more experience; they get to understand good and evil better; evil is a reign; the light another reign; evil and the light are trialed by the Father; for before there was darkness and light, first was the Father; light and darkness struggle in the instant in which they have to struggle; neither light nor darkness, escape their own transformation; for light and darkness are eternally subordinated to the Father; light and darkness reincarnate and multiply their inheritance; light and darkness have got their own laws; light and darkness are annulled when the divine Father Jehovah determines it so; light and darkness are transformable in themselves; light becomes darkness and darkness turns into light; he who violates the law of goodness, steps into evil; he starts serving another master; and by starting to serve another master, the spirit gets divided; and it does not enter the place where it came out of; I verily say unto you that every violation to the Father's law, as microscopic as it may be, is paid in lives which must be fulfilled on remote planets and out of the Kingdom of Heavens; even if the violation to His law had been just one second or less than a second; or simply a bad thought; I verily say unto you that the spirits keep on accumulating their debts or their merits as they are born; as they are getting to know new forms of life; in this case, the reincarnations take place out of the Kingdom of Heavens; for in everything and for everything there is a justice; no one is disinherited; for there is the divine living hope which pleads in the Father's Kingdom for all those who repent by heart; all the virtues which your spirit had, have got in the Kingdom, the father virtue or greater virtue; they are great in the Kingdom of Heavens; for they act in the name of the divine Father Jehovah; their divine powers have no equal after the Father; they are the divine virtues, the solar parents; the Eternal's older children; just as Christ is; a First-born Son who is already in the world shining like a sun of wisdom; the incarnations never cease; they are as expansive as the own universe; I know little son that you are impatient to know more about the reincarnations; every knowledge comes to the world in the instant in which it must come; for everything is requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; you requested the divine order of each roll of the Celestial Science; each letter, each syllable and each phrase talk to the spirits; in the Father's Kingdom everything is living; each letter and each expression requested form, space, time and philosophy; in order to incarnate in a given instant, in the Alpha line of the human brain; every event which takes place in an individuality at every instant, fulfills this law; you are a reincarnation of a past with an interrupted process of invisible reincarnations; each feeling, each regret, each mental state, is a microscopic reincarnation; in which your spirit only feels but does not see; for even in the most microscopic thing of your being, is the momentary oblivion of your past; the attribute and quality of your request of life, wanted it that way.-

BETWEEN ONE WHO LIVED WITH SCARCITY AND ONE WHO LIVED WITH OPULENCE, THE FIRST ONE IS MORE INFINITELY CLOSER TO THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS; THE POOR BEING, THE POORER HE WAS, HE REQUESTED A GREATER AWARD IN THE KINGDOM; THE RICH FOR TRIALING AN ILLEGAL ABUNDANCE, RECEIVES NOTHING IN THE KINGDOM; IT IS MORE LIKELY FOR A CAMEL TO PASS THROUGH A NEEDLE'S EYE THAN A RICH TO ENTER THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS.-

Yes little son; everything is requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; a law can be or cannot be; the Father can do everything; those who requested to be poor, did not have to be one; for the divine equality of Father Jehovah was written for this world; and this world did not give it any importance; and

this world fell into a divine judgment; I verily say unto you that every request made by the spirits to the Father, is an unknown experience; at the divine time of the request, only the Father knows its future; and knowing that on some remote planet certain demons who requested to know a life of the light, would create an immoral life system, of which poverty would come out, the Father tells the future to the spirits; and the spirits request and insist to know what they do not know; even if it is regarding poverty; and also wealth; requesting to be poor or rich is not of the Kingdom of Heavens; for the so-called capitalism is not known in the Father's Kingdom; nor the private law; nor any form of possession; such things are from a remote world called Earth; which very few know of in the Kingdom of Heavens; for you belong to the worlds of dust categories; that is why it was written: From dust you are and to dust you shall return; it means that from a microscopic world you pass to another microscopic world; for every spirit is born again; nothing unfair exists in the Kingdom of Heavens; every injustice is born on the remote planets; planets which do not fulfill His Holy Scriptures; as it happened to you; and every world which abandons every requested Scriptures, does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for a humanity which did not request Scriptures to the Father to enter the Kingdom, than for one who requested them and violated them; for everything is living in the Kingdom of Heavens; for even the last letter of every Scripture has got equal rights before the Father; matter and spirit have got equal rights in their respective laws; no one is less before the Father; neither matter nor spirit; for everything becomes alive before His divine presence; Were you not taught that your living God is infinite? Infinite means that He can do everything imaginable; I verily say unto you that all those who doubted the infinite power of the Father, do not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; no one requested to belittle Him in power, in the planetary dwellings; behold a weeping and gnashing of teeth in millions of children; who molded their life and customs into a strange life system based on gold; they despised a life system based on the Father's Scriptures; for they did not give it any importance in the form of living; they did not idealize another life system; they exalted gold; and not the Father; I verily say unto you that they lived an illusion; for they shall not be resurrected into flesh; they shall not become children again; they shall not have eternity in this existence; in order to attain eternity one has to exalt his/her Creator; none of those who praised the master gold, exalted the Father; no one renounced their ambitions, even by seeing the poverty in the world; behold how they fell in what they promised the Father; every ambitious being requested to know ambition, in order to overcome it; he/she requested such trial in order to not to be dominated by it; for the trial of every life consisted in opposing resistance to the inclination towards evil; in all the manifestations of the individuality; the trials of life consisted in that each one of you would keep innocence intact; the same innocence with which one came out of the Kingdom of Heavens; but the life system which came out of gold made you fall; the capitalist life system was not the way to keep innocence; for one forgot the Father; and every eye saw acts and scenes which should have never seen; for it is enough to see an act or scene strange to the morality taught by the Father, and the creature does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for everyone promised the Father above everything; I verily say unto you that the term: Above everything demands such a very high morality from you that it is impossible that your gold can give it to you; behold you are being governed by spiritual weakness; those who gave you the strange life system based on gold, are more backward than the those who followed them and imitated them; I verily say unto you that all those who followed the ambitious beings of this world, shall not see the Father's Kingdom either; for within the term: Above everything is also not to let oneself be influenced the demons of ambition and temptation; I verily say unto you that because of every tempter and ambitious being was it written: May the left be aware of what the right does; the so-called right represents the master gold; the right casted the first stone; which means that they casted first error over the world; the first injustice; the first inequality; and being it the first one, it is the oldest as a life system; it is therefore, the first to be judged; he who casted the first stone, in a mental determination, is the first one in the divine judgment of the Father; the so-called left imitated in a minor and major degree, the immoralities of the right; the left represents the people; and in the same proportion in which they were influenced by the right, the left gets closer or further away from the Kingdom of Heavens; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of an entire world which had the tragedy of running across a group of demons, who shrewdly imposed a strange life system on them; and since the world was obliged, the strange life system was being inherited from parent to child; from generation to generation; behold satan in a form of life system; and there is no other one; all the other demons have come out from this demon; for all the vices and sins which this world got to know, have come out from the strange life system.-

Yes little son; so it is; all those who divided the world in nations and governed them, shall respond about it to Father Jehovah; this system and the organization of life was never of the Creator of the Earth's pleasure; He has never liked division among His children; that is why He expressed Himself for equality in His Scriptures; He said to the world of trials: All are equal before God; all are equal in rights before the Father; it is what I wanted to tell the world; for in the Kingdom of Heavens one lives in eternal equality; nothing of what you are known in them; you are strange; for in the Father's Kingdom they know nothing of governing by being divided; nor they know anything about living for gold; they only know that all the worlds of the universe must be governed by the Father's Scriptures; for there is only one celestial mandate in each world; the Father does not divide His children, not even in the most microscopic way; it is the opposite to what satan did in the Kingdom; he divided the Father's angels; and he led every divided angel to tragedy; for infinity belongs to the Father; sooner or later all the creatures of the universe get to the presence of the divine Father; the Father's law is in every point of the universe, which the mind can imagine; the leaders of this world have done of this planet what satan did in the Kingdom; having they promised the Father not to imitate satan not even in the most minimal way; for he who imitates him even by thought, does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the same as none of the creatures who have passed through this world of trials; for they got to know many kinds of division; and just for having known them, they have not been able to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; all the generations which have passed through this world, teem in the infinite spaces; and the culprits are those who gave them the life system based on gold; many of those who have lived on Earth have requested the divine justice to be resurrected on Earth, at the instant ordered by Father Jehovah; in order to accuse the followers of gold; behold the terror of death, of those who have led this humanity to tragedy; for there is no worse tragedy for the creature of the universe than to know that he/she shall not enter the place where he/she was created; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of those who sustained your strange life system; it is so strange that no one knows it out of the Earth; for what came out of you in order to create such system, still constitutes darkness; the light and the worlds of light have got infinite hierarchies; and even being one of the light, one is not light; and much less, when one left aside the Father's Commandments; the true light within the respective evolution is the one which fulfilled the law of God; I verily say unto you that those who gave you your strange life system, shall pay for your tragedy, an eye for an eye, cell by cell, idea by idea, molecule by molecule; for that is how the human spirits requested it; they requested the most perfect justice; for they promised to live in the trials of life with the highest morality which any mind can imagine; if you did not live in the morality which you promised the Father, it is because of the strange life system based on gold; for the fruit of this life system is the vices, scandal and sin; I verily say unto you that every so-called capitalist shall curse within the weeping and gnashing of teeth to belong to the beast; the greatest yoke of this planet; all those who praised the master gold, shall cry out their remorse in the presence of everybody; for that is how they requested it in their final judgment; behold the days of this strange world are counted; this physical world does not fall; what falls is the life system; what comes to an end is what was created by men; the planet continues with its normal pace; Father Jehovah does not destroy His work; men by not fulfilling what they promised, destroy themselves; I verily say unto you that your strange life system is a form of arrogance; for being the Father's Scriptures everywhere in the world, you did not correct yourselves; the illusion which came out of gold swaddled you; no deluded being of the strange life system, shall see the Father's Glory; for such illusion which you did not know how to overcome, is also in the term: Above everything; the Father's Scriptures do not change a whit, even if eternities go by; it is the Father's children who changed; but, they make wrong use of a free will, which they requested in order to be trialed; for according to the attribute and quality of life requested by the spirit, is the free will which is given to him/her; I verily say unto you that by living in a strange life system, you guided your free will through a strange licentiousness; freedom was sullied; stepped on; denatured; even more, your concepts of freedom do not correspond to the true freedom; your freedom is born from a strange life system; it is not born from the Father's Scriptures; if it came out of the Father's Scriptures, no one would be struggling for freedom; struggling for freedom is born because the men of this world did not take the equality taught by the Father into consideration; your life system gets scared before the word equality; the possessors of gold cannot conceive in their primitive minds that the rest of the world may enjoy what they enjoy; they do not conceive justice in the Father; they are ephemeral in seeing beyond; they have made an entire world undergo suffering through the centuries because of their selfishness; these demons of usury shall never change in this world; that is why Father Jehovah shall pull them out from their roots; for the time they requested to the Father has come to an end; every trial has got its time; there is no trial without time; there is no development without time; the rich of this world requested the Father time in order to put into development a resistance toward the ambitious tendencies; for everything which the spirit feels, is requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; every sensation is as living as yourselves; and every sensation has got equal rights before the Father; this equality is within their laws; just as it is in the laws of your spirit; I verily say unto you that the greatest weeping and gnashing of teeth falls on those who were rich; for three quarters of the totality of darkness of this world, fall on them; the other quarter left falls on those who were forced to live in such strange life system; I verily say unto you that if these children had not been forced to live in this life system, the guilt would be equal to everyone; you know very well that this strange life system protected itself by the use of force; a force which was legalized before the world; and illegal before Father Jehovah; none of you requested the use of force in order to threaten others; for no one knew in the Kingdom of Heaven any kind of force; those who belonged to the armed forces, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; nor anyone who has departed from this world has entered the Kingdom again; every spirit who got allied to any weapon is accused before the divine Presence of the Father of complicity with the demons who divided the world in many nations.-

THE CREATOR OF EVERYTHING.-

Yes little son; the malnutrition of the own body of flesh, which emerged in the trials of life, was requested to the Father by no one; when one requests the divine Father Jehovah to know new lives, no one requests Him the opposite to one's own perfection; for all the thinking spirits knew in the Kingdom of Heavens that imperfection draws one away from the Father; in the human trials of life, those who created the strange and unknown life system, which came out of the strange laws of gold, included malnutrition; this was due to the strange complex of having more than others; by taking away one part of the sustenance of millions of my children, they made malnutrition emerge; what these demons usurped, shall be returned by them molecule by molecule; of all the centuries which their strange reign lasted, which included hunger and misery to others; no one who took this strange licentiousness, none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; nor any of them shall escape the divine universal judgment; the names of such demons shall be published in all the languages of the Earth; indeed he who caused the greatest harm in the trials of life, his name shall appear in all the newspapers of the world; many of the starvers of the generation shall commit suicide; believing that with it they shall free themselves from shame and punishment; such a profound error; if they commit suicide a thousand times, they shall be resurrected a thousand times by the First-born Son; as what is up above is the same as down below, in remote worlds, where other spirits who requested to know other forms of life, and who also violated their laws, they also believe that that by means of committing suicide they shall escape the judgment of God; the hunger-generators who have already left this world shall be resurrected among the dead; this which is impossible to men is not for the Creator of all life; those who in the trials of life said in their conversations and commentaries that such resurrection was impossible, they shall see it with their own eyes; dread and terror shall seize them; the terrible terror of having negated the Almighty the power; these creatures who never wanted to know what is beyond, in the trials of life, shall be ridiculed and embarrassed; none of them shall be resurrected into eternal flesh; none of them shall become a child again on this planet; the demand to deserve such an award was simply to believe; there has never been something so simple with such a great award; one had to detach somewhat from one's own self; one had to adopt a humble attitude before the unknown in the trials of life; but, which the divine Father Jehovah had announced it in His divine Gospel; the hunger-generators and the negators shall be shown to the world, on the Solar Television; also known as the Book of Life in the Kingdom of Heavens; there the same ones who exalted themselves by means of the hunger of others; up to the last molecule which they illegally took for them, shall be taken away from them; starting from the so-called kings, millionaires, tycoons, traders of all kinds; including the traders of faith; those who taught the strange material adoration, in the trials of life; the hunger-generators shall have to beg in the streets of the world; this way they shall pay part of what they did to others; with the rod which they measured others they shall be measured; this is an eye for an eye justice, a tooth for a tooth; molecule by molecule; every sensation which others suffered because of them, they shall live them in their own flesh; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of millions of hunger-generators of all times; behold those who were the most powerful in their respective epochs, and who had everything, they shall envy the dead; that is how those who making use of their free wills pay; they requested the Creator to be humble above everything; the human life has as much right as the human spirit has; the life which one requested as a trial complains before the Father, in its laws of life; just as the spirit complains in its laws of spirit; those who requested the divine judgment on Earth, they requested it by fire; the most hardened ones of the strange life system, which came out of the laws of gold, shall be burned; for they requested the Father that the strange influence of darkness be cut off from its roots; for one cannot have two roots; one cannot serve two masters; one cannot belong to the light if he/she is serving darkness; for the spirit who proceeds that way gets divided by half-light and half-darkness; and his/her hierarchy diminishes in power by being divided; and every divided or diminished being does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; one requests lives in order to attain a greater power of light; the greater the attained knowledge, the highest is the knowledge that one has of God; each world of the universe, represents one of the infinite faces of God; for nothing in God knows any limit; and those who having understood God in the respective planetary dwelling, get ready to understand Him in another one; and then in another; and so on forever and ever; if it was taught that God was infinite, it was meant in everything imaginable; He does not stop in anything; he who did not make the effort to think how the infinite power of God would be, in the trials of life, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for there are duties to fulfill in every trial; and the first among all the duties, is to understand one's own Creator; understanding is living before God; and understanding speaks before the Father; in its laws of understanding; and if a spirit did not have understanding towards his/her Creator, understanding accuses him/her of having embarrassed it, in its own philosophy of understanding; every virtue proceeds that way; the human being feels being expressed before God, by infinite voices; which come out of the own sensations which the spirit let or let them influence him/her, during the trials of life; everything which was felt in the human life, absolutely everything, expresses itself before the divine Father Jehovah; pores, cells, veins, molecules, hair, excrements, sighs, breathing, ideas, intentions, projects, fornications, evil things which the world never knew; the everything above everything becomes scenes in color before the divine presence of the Father; it is the Book of Life; it is the Solar Television; the magnetism which each one irradiated in the trials of life, remains impregnated in the magnetism of the elements of nature; everything which was done in the trials of life, floats in the atmosphere in the same dimensions in which the mental ideas float and travel; these microscopic dimensions is seen by nobody; they only let themselves be felt; what one feels but do not see is also magnetism; the psychologies are too; the everything above everything contracts itself and gets expanded, as a magnetic wave contracts itself and gets expanded; the suns represent the greater waves; and the dust-planets, the minor waves; every great wave was also minor; everything gigantic was a microbe; and every microbe is gigantic; for their respective magnetic waves shall never cease getting expanded; the power with which the microbes get expanded and multiply, is the same with which the universes get expanded and multiply; what is up above is the same as down below; what is gigantic is united to what is little by invisible solar cords; the everything above everything gets interested in everything that takes place up to the most microscopic points of the Thinking Expansive Universe; for every violation to the laws of nature is paid all the same; there is the claim of this or that world against this or that planet, galaxy, cosmos, universes; on this dust-planet Earth, its creatures took the strange licentiousness of poisoning the elements of nature; all the scientists of this world shall be accused in the divine Final Judgment by the Son of God; the complaints and accusations of other worlds shall be seen by this world on the Solar Television or Book of the Universal Life; no scientist who participated in criminal atomic experiments, none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; nor any of them shall return to the worlds of the light; for they attempted against the laws of a world of the light; the accusers of these scientists are the molecules of the universe; their number shall never be able to be calculated by the human power; the atomic scientists are within the law of damnation; and every person who is linked in the atomic arms manufacturing; theirs is the weeping and gnashing of teeth; just as they did not renounce to such strange practices of death, likewise there shall be no mercy towards them in other existences in other worlds; with the same rod with which they acted in the trials of life, with the same rod shall one act towards them; no human spirit who participated in the manufacturing of conventional and atomic arms in the trials of life, no one shall receive the resurrection of their flesh; no one shall receive the eternity in this world; no one shall become a child again with eternal flesh; these pitiful creatures shall fulfill the mortal law proper of the world of trials; the greatest terror shall overcome them when they see with their own eyes how other elderly people known by them, become children again; children with unperishable flesh; for putrefaction shall not be present in them; that is how those who took the strange licentiousness of attempting against the living laws of God shall pay, in the trials of life; the so-called scientists who fell in their respective trials of life, shall have to pay the tremendous genocide, molecule by molecule, germ by germ, bacteria by bacteria, microbe by microbe; its number is so immense that the Earth and the stars which surround her will end, and these demons of the death of others shall still be paying their crimes, in remote darkness; for each one of the little ones of nature corresponds to them to live an existence out of the Kingdom of Heavens; up to the most microscopic evil which the mind can imagine is paid; just as the most microscopic goodness is awarded, by going the spirit to a better world; one goes where one deserves; everything comes out of oneself; every well-being which was enjoyed by violating the law, is returned molecule by molecule, instant by instant; if it does not happen in the existence which one is living, it takes place in other existences; for every spirit is born again; and by being born again in other worlds, every spirit requests to pay part of his/her debts; and there is no one who has not had a debt towards Father Jehovah; once the debt is paid, it is by the divine Father's grace as if such debt had never existed; when the divine Father told the world: Thou shalt earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face, the content of this divine mandate, contained an unparalleled experience; so old an experience as God Himself; an experience which was older than every world there was, there is and there shall be; for one is in every instant of eternity, what each one's own sweat on the face was; the thou shalt earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face contained for this world of trials, the future abuses of all the centuries; the thou shalt earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face included honesty in order to attain it; those who created the strange and unknown life system, which came out of the strange laws of gold, excluded honesty; they were not egalitarian in the distribution; behold the fall of the creators and sustainers of the so-called capitalism; because of them this world got to know misery and hunger; if the capitalists had not existed, the world would not have known misery or hunger; this world would not even have had the need of a judgment; for the morality on the planet would have been another; because of the so-called capitalists, the morality of this world is a strange morality; an immoral morality; a morality which is divided by immorality; the strange life system legalized the strange morality, in almost all the beings of this world; such strange influence in the spirit, who requested to be trialed in a form of life, makes no human spirit who was influenced, able to enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; the work of the capitalists constitutes the greatest tragedy of the human spirit; all the generations which had the misfortune of running across this strange tree, no one has entered the Kingdom of the Father again; nor shall anyone enter; those who did not get to know capitalism in the trials of life, do enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; for they did not get to know division either spiritually nor materially; they got to know a common law; it is more likely for those who lived in common law in the trials of life to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for those who lived it by being influenced by a strange and unknown licentiousness; for no one requested licentiousness to the Father; from the precise instant in which one requested the divine Gospel to the Father, licentiousness got excluded from the trials of life; no one requested the Father to serve more than two masters; licentiousness is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; nor anything which opposes even the most microscopic thing; behold the strange morality which those who let themselves be influenced by gold gave to themselves; they distorted the true morality, which they themselves requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; the fall of every rich is the fall of everyone who got infected by gold; many seeing themselves lacking of it, shall miss the strange influence and shall commit suicide; the strange illusion of the power of gold, weakened all their virtues annulling the true morality; the morality which would have resisted the strange inclination of committing suicide; but if the culprits of the human tragedy commit suicide a thousand times, a thousand times they shall be resurrected again by the First-born Son; with the so-called rich of this strange world, the era of the weeping and gnashing of teeth gets initiated on Earth; the rich shall remain in the greatest poverty; they shall even have to beg for food in the streets of the world; up to the last molecule of what never belonged to them shall be taken away from them; even if the so-called rich made great efforts and sacrifices in order to achieve having more than others, it shall be taken away from them all the same; what is taken into account at the end of the road is what was promised in the Kingdom of Heavens; what one believed in the trials of life is not taken into account; the strange illusions which every spirit run across in the road of trials are not taken into account; let them put the blame on the licentious men, who influenced them with their strange and immoral life system; which exalted more the demon of gold than the living God; I verily say unto you that all the life systems that the human free will could have created, the self-interested life system is the worst of all; it is the meanest of all; it turns everybody into demons of ambition; the yoke of feeling that what one owns should not have any rest; indeed such strange feeling in the spirit makes the creature forget his own God; every rich has no God; that is why they shall not receive anything from God in the divine Final Judgment; it was elemental to have believed in one's God, in the trials of life; he who did not believe in his God receives nothing even if he is the greatest benefactor of humanity; one attains nothing without faith; for faith is also living before God; and it expresses itself in its laws of faith before the divine Father Jehovah; faith accuses every spirit who in the trials of life did not take it into account; and it is more likely that the virtue called faith be infinitely right before God than the human spirit; commonly, the littlest and microscopic being wins in the divine judgments; it was written: Every little one is great in power in the Kingdom of Heavens; for every little one was already great and powerful in worlds which because of their antiquity are not in space anymore; the little one was human in such very old times that one has to be born again as many times as the number of molehills contained in the deserts of the planet; in order to be getting closer to the place where those worlds existed; every virtue which every thinking spirit feels, is infinitely more elevated than the own spirit; every spirit made divine covenants with their own feelings; the covenants are made in common agreement; when the spirits of the universe decide to know new forms of life; everything imaginable is lived in lives; fantasy becomes a reality; for nothing is impossible to God; Were you not taught that your God is infinite? One did not have to be enclosed in doubts in respect to the infinite power of God; if the reasoning about the unknown causes were not on Earth, they were outside the Earth; if a law was not understood in the present in which one lived, it shall be understood in another present; Were you not taught that your spirit is born again? It requests a new form of life again; thus it shall be forever and ever; the number of existences for the spirit has no limit; for it is the son of a God, Who has no limit; being eternal is inherited; and having all eternity as an inheritance is that one should have never doubted of the future existences; for one doubted of what was received from God; and he who doubted of himself in the trials of life, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; the proofs are the proofs; and every proof has got a judgment; it has got a judge; the trials of life end with the divine Final Judgment; this divine judgment should be amidst an unpredictable joy; if it is not like that, it is because this humanity violated the law of God, in the development of the trials of life; and the virtues of the human thinking burst when they recognize in the shining face of the Son of God, their own Creator; the spiritual culpability gets confused with all the feelings; the everything above everything individualizes the end of the living trial; up to the last instant of the own Revelation you shall be trialed; second by second; just as it has been being done since the beginning of the world; the era of the weeping and gnashing of teeth starts with this generation; the era which was being announced since many centuries before; and to which very few in the world gave importance; for they were influenced by the strange religious faith; a form of faith which is not written in the Kingdom of Heavens; neither is it in the divine Gospel of Father Jehovah; for nothing which divides the Father's children exists in the Kingdom; division in what is material as well as in what is spiritual, is of satan; satan divided the Father's angels in very remote times; the so-called religious beings divided men in the trials of life; they imitated satan; and all those who imitate satan in the remote worlds, do not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; the living imitation complains to the Father, in its laws of imitation; and it is enough that any of the virtues and sensations, which accompanied the spirit in the trials of life, complain to the divine Creator, and the spirit who gave way to the complaint does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who did not divide anyone and did not divide himself in the trials of life to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who fell into such strange influence; the biblical warning which says: Only satan divides and he divides himself, was not considered in the trials of life; this scarce consideration to a divine warning through the centuries, costs a weeping and gnashing of teeth; it costs the no entrance to the Kingdom of Heavens; if the so-called christian world had considered this celestial warning, the world of trials would not have divided itself in religions; many would not be killing each other in the greatest immorality, within the beliefs of faith of the world; all those who killed in the name of their God are condemned; for they violated the own Commandment which says: Thou shalt not kill; it would have been better for them not to have requested the trials of life; for they would not be under a divine scrutiny; the strange religious belief, divided everyone; and there shall be no christian who shall not have his weeping and gnashing of teeth; for no one who was a sustainer of the religious rock, no one enters the Kingdom of Heavens again; it is more likely for those who searched for the light individually in the trials of life to enter the Father's Kingdom, for they divided no one, than for those who having belonged to collectivities, groups, associations, religions, sects, etc., divided others; this is because the most microscopic thing is infinitely judged by God; those who have a compromise for dividing what is of God, have got for themselves points of darkness; these points of darkness are calculated by adding up the seconds of time in which one belonged to such strange forms of faith; it is called strange because its fruit which is the own points, get divided; and every fruit gets smaller by being divided and it even annuls itself; he who belittles or annuls his own effort, gets further away from the Kingdom of Heavens; the points of light which were attained in the trials of life, draws the spirit closer to the Kingdom of Heavens; the points of darkness draws the spirit away from the kingdom of the light; this is why it was written: One cannot serve two masters; one cannot serve simultaneously the light and darkness; for the fruit which are the points, get divided; these points taught by the Revelation, was also announced in the divine Gospel of Father Jehovah, as the Father's addition; the addition which comes out of the Father has no division at all; on the contrary, the divine addition of Father Jehovah, starts from the basis that the spirits of the trials of life, are living an egalitarian life system; just as they promised Him in the Kingdom of Heavens; the divine Father starts from the principle that the human beings imitated in an infinite degree what was taught in the divine Gospel; in such a degree that they did of the divine Gospel their own life system; for if it had been that way, the humanity who requested to be trialed in a form of planetary life, would have fulfilled the divine parable which says: What is of God, above everything; above every life system; since the world did not do it that way is that the world fell into the weeping and gnashing of teeth; for in the divine determination, the elements of nature and the virtues of each spirit receive orders of acting in one sole psychology; this produces a crash of mental psychologies; the own crash produces the sentiments; sentiments which were influenced by strange psychologies, which no one requested and which are unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; by having humanity chosen the strange life system in the trials of life, which came out of the strange laws of gold, they disharmonized themselves in respect to the common and egalitarian harmony, which they requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; in the strange habits and customs lies the tragedy of every judgment; that is why it was taught that every truth was within oneself; they were not mere words; it was a physical fact; humanity shall verify it with tears in their eyes, when they witness the resurrection of every flesh, in the year 2001; since for the everything above everything composed of elements and virtues act over the human bodies, the human spirit must be saturated with the same psychology, which they promised to fulfill in the Kingdom of Heavens; these living laws are known by the elements and also by the virtues of the spirit; for they give preference to what is of God in their respective laws; they do not give preference to what is of men; for in the living universe of God, matter and spirit have free will in their respective laws; not a single molecule of the divine magnetic process of the resurrection of the flesh is indifferent to the own transformation; aged bodies shall become children in a flick of an eye; what is instantaneous gets expanded and it stops in a present; when the skeptical beings see this, they shall be filled with dread; for no skeptical being receives the eternal flesh; the flesh which does not get rotten; every skeptical being shall have to get rotten just as the flesh of the world of trials was; for being skeptical, they remain in the old law; for being skeptical, they return to the dust of the cemeteries; the biblical Word which says: From dust you are and to dust you shall return, means that the skeptical beings had already been so in other existences, in other worlds; for if every spirit is born again, every spirit has had many existences and they shall have many; in other existences, the present skeptical beings witnessed other planetary judgments; for if no one is disinherited, every existence from whichever world they may be, have their Judgment of the Kingdom of Heavens; and every present skeptical being requested to trial a life again in order to overcome such strange influence; which does not exalt the One Who gave him/her life at all; every skeptical being shall have his/her weeping and gnashing of teeth; and they shall be cursed by those who they infected in the trials of life; by the imitators; for the imitators of others who did not believe in the infinite power of God, shall not be resurrected either; the world shall witness amidst the weeping and gnashing of teeth, millions of heartbreaking scenes; for the death by putrefaction causes terror in every creature; the era of the weeping and gnashing of teeth starts when the Doctrine of the Lamb of God gets extended all over the world; it shall be read in all the languages of the Earth; for what is of God covers everything; what is of God is universal; in the divine judgments the indifferent beings do not exist; just as it happened with what is of men, in the trials of life; the beast and the religious rock shall put the blame on each other; the two greatest blinds of the human evolution; those who never realized that every evil concept came out of themselves, their demon used them in order to divide what should have never been divided; they were the actors of their own drama; a strange drama which repeats, repeated and shall repeat itself in remote planetary dwellings; many of the actors of the drama of the Earth shall be in those remote planetary dramas again; for what is up above is the same as down below; the present which one lives is also taking place in other planets; and the Father's creation is so infinite that each individual act, repeats itself in the most microscopic unit of time; and it so happens in infinite planets that they shall never be able to be counted; for what is of God has neither a beginning nor an end; every skeptical being constitutes a drama which goes from planet to planet; negation is a strange sensation of darkness; the spirits who requested to trial lives which they do not know, request skepticism in order to overcome it in the own trials of life; there is something to overcome in every trial; not for nothing it is a trial; and the human life is a trial, requested by the thinking spirits; he who did not consider his own life as a trial, fell before the own trial; for he did not want to recognize the divine mandate which had been teaching it that way, through the centuries; very few considered it that way; those few linked the divine final judgment with their own experiences of life itself; no indifferent being of the trials of life shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; nor has any of them ever entered; the indifferent beings of all the worlds of the universe, are unknown in the Kingdom; in this world of trials, the indifferent beings shall have their weeping and gnashing of teeth; for that with which they were indifferent, with it they shall be judged; the indifferent beings shall have to calculate the seconds which were contained in the time of their lives; for each second of indifference in the trials of life, corresponds one point of darkness to them; and for each point of darkness they shall have to live an existence out of the Kingdom of Heavens again; the strange indifference of the beings in the trials of life, made life even more painful in a strange system, which included inequality; it is more likely for one who overcame the strange indifference in the trials of life to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who did not oppose mental resistance to such strange influence; one had to struggle against darkness by opposing mental resistance to it in the trials of life; the mental resistance is living before God; just as the entire creation is; and the mental resistance speaks and expresses itself before its Creator, in its respective laws of mental resistance; the world of trials who should have cultivated this mental faculty, did very little or almost nothing; for every mental initiative was distorted by the strange illusion, which the own gold gave life; the human mind got to know sensations which it should have never got to know; for the cause of such strange sensations did not consider the divine psychology of the divine Commandments of the Creator; those who created the strange life system, which came out of the strange laws of gold, let others express the faith; nothing came out of them; nevertheless they took over the greatest part of the materiality of the world; he who denies God deserves nothing; for even life shall be taken away from him; they shall remain with nothing; the long-suffering, humiliated, and exploited being shall remain with everything; starting from the eternal life; those who took the strange licentiousness of requesting life to God, and then deny Him on the remote planet, shall not have any more opportunity of requesting another form of life again, until they have paid up to the last molecule of all the bodies of flesh of all the generations, who had the misfortune of falling under their strange influence.-

AS THE WORLD OF TRIALS WAS ORDERED THAT WHAT IS OF GOD WAS ABOVE EVERY IMAGINABLE THING, IS THAT ALL THE SO-CALLED PRESIDENTS, KINGS, DICTATORS, AND ALL THOSE WHO WERE LEADERS OF NATIONS, IN THE STRANGE LIFE SYSTEM, WHICH CAME OUT OF THE STRANGE LAWS OF GOLD, SHOULD HAVE KNOWN BY MEMORY THE DIVINE GOSPEL OF FATHER JEHOVAH; THE CELESTIAL TERM ABOVE EVERYTHING, INCLUDES EVERY LEADER; THOSE WHO FORGOT HIM IN THE TRIALS OF LIFE, SHALL ALSO BE FORGOTTEN IN THE RESURRECTION OF THEIR OWN FLESH; THEY SHALL HAVE TO FULFILL THE LAW OF MORTALITY; IN ORDER TO RECEIVE ETERNITY, ONE HAD TO BELIEVE IN IT, IN THE TRIALS OF LIFE.-

So it is little son; just as you knew it since you were a child; each planet of the universe represents a different form of life; and a similar life at the same time; which means that there are infinite planets with the same characteristics, and infinite planets with different characteristics; the Earth requested a form of life which allowed the free expression of the thinking individuality; the life request of this humanity included equality in the rights; that is why it was written: All are equal in rights before God; this equality of rights, an inheritance from the Kingdom of which one came out, was usurped on this Earth by a strange and unknown life system; a strange life system because it included inequality in its laws; this strange darkness is unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; that is why no one requested inequality for oneself; the strange inequality was imposed on the human gender; those who created and sustained the strange form of life, which included inequality, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; none of them has entered again; for they fell in their respective trials, which were requested to Father Jehovah; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of all the spirits who were leaders of nations; for they were blind guides who infected the rest of the flock; the blindness was that the life system which they were to live, did not include the divine equality taught by the Father; they did not know how to defend the inheritance which was given to every human creature in eternity; what they defended in the trials of life was a strange experiment which was limited to itself; this strange experiment was based on the strange power of gold; the strange illusion which such strange power performed in entire generations; these blind guides did not have the required spiritual depth to have understood on time, such tremendous error in which they fell; it would have been better for those who requested to be guides of nations not to have been born in this world; it would have been better for them not to have requested the form of human life; for they would have to face a world judgment; all the blinds leading other blinds shall be judged one by one, in a public judgment; just as they themselves requested it in the Kingdom of Heavens; for everything imaginable is requested to Father Jehovah; no one requested to violate the law in the solar instant in which they requested and received life; the leaders who did not give any importance to the divine Gospel above their own political ideas, should expect nothing from the Gospel's power; I verily say unto you that only what came out of the Gospel gives a new life; the resurrection of every flesh comes out of the own Author of every Holy Scripture; the trials of life are born from the own free will of each one; he who chose this or that way in order to interpret what is of God, only he is his own responsible of it; therefore, each one shall confront their own judgment; the group of millions of millions of individual judgments is called Armageddon in the Kingdom of Heavens; it is a judgment which due to its perfection, terrorizes the guilty ones; it is a judgment in which the ideas speak; and you shall see this on the Solar

Television; also known as the Book of Life; to be taken before the Book of Life is to be judged; this is for the so-called adults, who requested the trials of life; it is not a judgment for the children; it is not for those who have not passed over the twelve years of age yet; every child who departed from life, the Kingdoms of Heavens are open to them; for their joy proper of a child, is the normal philosophy of all the Kingdoms of Heavens; this is what the so-called leaders of the world forgot; their great blindness consisted in that they let the misers influence on them, who created the strange world of gold; a leader influenced like that shall never ever be able to exalt what is of God; if they do not realize it, such fact accuses and points at them, as if they should have never been leaders; the greatest ignorance dwelled in them; they with their ignorance in what is spiritual, perpetuated pain and injustice, on all those who requested the trials of life; for they gave one part of the reason to the creators and sustainers of the strange life system, which emerged from the strange laws of gold; behold those who served two masters; behold the violation of the Father's law, in its utmost hierarchy of darkness; behold those who served the rich and poor; the exploiters and the exploited; the beast and the Lamb; behold those who made of this world a vale of tears; behold the yoke of the world; behold satan working on the attitudes and strange ideals of those who were the so-called leaders of the world; behold the blinds leading other blinds; behold their errors were transmitted to entire generations; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of every self-exalted one who violated the law of God; behold those who were and who should have never been; behold all those who were powerful in the strange and unknown world of gold, shall envy the most ignorant being of the planet.-

In the celestial drawing one can see that every planet is united to another one, by the solar planetary cord; the Thinking Expansive Universe is infinitely solidary; when some spirit who requested a form of life trial, and did not fulfill what he /she promised in the Kingdom of Heavens, that spirit gets out of his/her own solar cord; he/she gets lost in the infinite cosmos; the everything above everything in its free will does not want to accompany one who did not know how to fulfill what he/she requested and promised, in his/her place of origin; the living matter makes common cause with the divine Father Jehovah; behold the destiny of every thinking creature, depends on matter, in its most microscopic expression; no human spirit has entered the Kingdom of Heavens again; since the world is world, nor shall any of them enter; for the philosophical concept which the human creature got accustomed to during the trials of life, did not give matter the spiritual importance; behold the mental imbalance of the human knowledge; the characteristic of every human teaching was that of a marked morality lacking of science, in the same proportion; the human creature was taught that equality was of God; and the human creature, speaking in a collective way, did not struggle to attain what was and is the normal law of the Kingdom of Heavens; the human creature was deluded with the strange law of possession; the creators of the so-called capitalism recurred to an old complex of their own spiritualities; the complex of possessing gold was their fall and of all those who followed them and imitated them; the judgment of God starts from the inside of the own individualities of His creatures; the fall of this world of trials was a fall whose cause was the strange complex of the so-called rich; to exceed in oneself and to oneself; the concept of eternity of those who were rich did not coincide with the own life; this is called a licentiousness of concept, in the Kingdom of Heavens; the mental imbalance of every rich is not to know how to explain what he has; the rich only feel while they possess; theirs is an illusion; eternity is in the sensations and not in the complexes; complex is certainly a sensation; but every complex was requested by every spirit in order to overcome it; cultivating in the spirit the mental resistance to the complex; the complex of possession goes back to many existences before, in the spirits who still feel such strange influence; to overcome possession is one of the greatest progresses which a spirit can achieve; he/she is certainly free; so free that he/she does not return to worlds of trials; the trials of life, which has been on for many centuries already, had to struggle at every instant against the hidden demon of possession; for this demon can be felt but he does not let himself be seen; the creators of the strange world which came out of the strange laws of gold, constituted themselves in the own demon; they did not have the mental ability to overcome their own complex; and much less to save others; this strange complex which always carries divine judgments, is the one which shall provoke weeping and gnashing of teeth to this world; from those who were powerful in the strange life system, which came out of gold, comes out the greatest tragedy of the human gender; the tragedy of not entering the Kingdom of Heavens again; it is the payment because of a few, who did not know how to overcome one of the strangest complexes, which emerged in the trials of life.-

DIVINE JUSTICE TO THE TERRESTRIAL HUMANITY; THE FINAL JUDGMENT STARTS FROM THE OWN UNDERSTANDING; EACH ACT DONE BY THE SPIRIT, IS AN ACT OF FIRST JUSTICE.-

Yes little son; the final judgment starts from the own acts; each act is a magnetic point put into action; each act has time, space and philosophy; to say or express a thought, is an image which is created around the body; the spirit is judged molecule by molecule; and each act is divided by 318 thinking lines; for each human thought is composed of 318 virtues; each act is composed by ideas which contain the attribute and quality of the spirit; each act is an entire heaven which is put into movement; for every idea being microscopic, becomes gigantic in the Kingdom of Heavens; it was written that every humble is great in the Kingdom; and each of the 318 virtues which accompanied you in life, is a living giant in the Kingdom; and each one has its universes with their respective philosophy; just like every spirit has his/her own family; before you came to life, you made covenants with these virtues; and all of you promised the Father to exalt Him above everything; and the virtues trusted in you; you promised not to violate the Father's law; and the living virtues accompanied you in the trials of life, on that condition: not to violate in anything what is of the Father; His Scriptures and Commandments; your acts being microscopic are taken into account first; for from the littlest thing you can create, one starts in order to judge you; all your ideas are registered in yourselves; your spirit is like a living television; it shines with many colors; it is like a ruby; and your acts are seen within the brightness; each scene is seen in its minimal details; on Earth you shall be judged by my First-born Son Christ; the one who promised to return; and when you are before Him, He shall see your scenes which are around your bodies; my son shall shine on his Face like a sun; Were you not taught that he would come back shining like a sun of wisdom? Therefore, it should not surprise you much; but, I see that a few have prepared to receive him; a few have searched as all promised; a few have investigated the Scriptures in their free time; the world is deluded and materialized; one was born to understand the divine Father from remote world called Earth; behold the supreme cause which is above everything; the rest comes by addition; the rest is a natural law of evolution; every mandate constitutes an eternal line of worlds, universes and galaxies; and in all of them the unique cause is the Father; represented in the Scriptures; he who was indifferent with the Father, should not expect anything; for he shall live for repentance; your life would be reduced to what is mundane, and not as you promised, to the laws of eternity; which means to what is of the Father; you were deluded by the science of good; by capitalism which only lives a present; your life style condemned you; for you divided yourselves between philosophies which came out of money and a certain interest towards what is of the Father; to adore the Father above everything is to fulfill His laws in all the instants of life; when a life system does not take what is of the Father into account, that system and its followers do not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for they did not fulfill what they promised; to adore the Father was not to adore Him materially; for the creatures do not learn anything by adoring images; all the contrary, their spirituality goes backwards; and they are exposed to prudery and to a beatitude which they shall never understand; the true adoration to the Father is in the spiritual merit; it is in the work which one does and which is beneficial for the collectivity; thou shalt earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face, means the same; only work, being it either physical or intellectual, provokes a sweat on the face; this parable also encloses a prophesy which has been being fulfilled through the centuries: the exploitation which the honest man encountered; this exploitation proper of your life system, is not of the Father; it belongs to the ambitious beings of the world; to the demons who experiment with the first illusion which is put before them; no capitalist of the world has cared if what they have created is in concordance to the Father's mandates; they are as blind as the religious beings; the so-called capitalism divided my children in rich and poor; and the religious rock also divided them in many beliefs; being there just one God only; one sole Father; one sole truth; this rock of the human selfishness deviated the spiritual evolution of my children; who searched for the truth through other wrong ways; they created other religious rocks as well; but they divided themselves; humanity was deceived by opportunistic spirits; as malicious as satan himself; as the same ones of his damned legion are; satan divided in the Kingdom of the angels; and the religious spirits divided men down on Earth; the same inheritance of the demon; it would have been better for them not to have requested the religious trial; if with it they divided the faith of a world; for thus they shall be divided between light and darkness, too; only satan divides himself; the world that they divided shall divide them; for with the rod they measured, thus they shall be measured; the same thing shall happen to the ambitious beings who created what you call money; which has corrupted millions and millions of my children; behold your leaders of the world; behold satan incarnated in you; behold his inheritance; just weeping and gnashing of teeth; for none of you shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the Father's justice takes into account all the instants of your life; second by second; and even less of what this microscopic unit of time represents; calculate the seconds you have lived and you shall have an idea of the time which you shall remain out of the Kingdom of Heavens; each second of life in which one lived deluded, represents a human existence which must be fulfilled in other worlds of flesh; Do you understand now religious demons and ambitious demons why the world shall judge you? You shall be despised by every generation; your remembrance to the world shall be a synonym of pain and frustration; you shall be persecuted just as you persecuted others; and no one shall speak to you; you shall curse having deceived a world; having casted the first stone of a wrong determination; you requested to be the rectors of a world; and the world was worthier than you; you governed by using immorality and deceit; and there is no greater immorality than despising the Father's law; your world shall be shuddered by the Revelation; a planetary event which has been happening since all eternity; for you are not the only ones of the universe; your Creator is infinite; and His Creation has no limits in anything; the weeping and gnashing of teeth are counted by infinities; for the Father's worlds are like the number of molehills of a desert; the illusion into which the demons subdued you, shall make your surprise more painful; for you are submerged in ignorance; an ignorance which was hidden under comfort; the comfort which came out of a life system which is not the Father's; and therefore, no easy-attitude being of the world shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; nor anyone who enjoyed abundance; while others were undergoing starvation; this Revelation which might seem very rigorous, is not; for you yourselves requested it in the Kingdom; you requested to fulfill the highest morality that one can conceive; the morality of the Commandments; and there is no other greater one; and the opportunity was conceded to you; for every life which the spirit undertakes is an opportunity in which the spirit has to learn new things and unknown laws; it is to know elements which he/she did not know; he/she learns new concepts of matter; a new salt of life comes to enrich the previous ones; a new concept widens the light for him/her; and he/she understands his/her Creator better; there is a parallelism between the understanding towards one's Creator, and the lives which are being known; comprehension and knowledge are one same thing; both are known through learning; through the sweat on the face; and every knowledge which was acquired in infinite existences, makes a sole one; it makes one sole attribute and quality in the individuality; and many transformations which also have their attributes and qualities are experienced at the same time; for no one is disinherited; your encountering in life with the beings who you met is not by chance; it is a destiny which you requested yourselves; and every social organization came out of the request of life; a nation, a town or population and a family in a home; they are requests which you yourselves made before coming to life; and everything is written in the solar books; in the same point where your creation was originated; you must distinguish two creations in one; the creation as solar spirits; which came out of the sun Alpha and the sun Omega; and the request of life on a remote planet; the latter one is a reincarnation; a way of knowing a life whose form is the flesh; flesh is one of the infinite forms of life; and there are infinite forms of flesh; nothing has a limit in the Father; everything which comes out of the Father has no number; it belongs to the infinity; being able to calculate what is of the Father is not given to anyone in the universe; your form of life isolated you from the rest of the universe; for you are trialed; by your own will; no one comes to the world being forced to; one comes with first-hand knowledge; and the first of the causes is to know why one comes to the worlds; your cause is written in the Scriptures; and this is: Thou shalt adore thy Lord and Creator, above everything; above every life system; above every human pleasure; above every philosophy; above every destiny; above oneself; behold the why of the instants and seconds lived; many of you might say that it is impossible to do the daily chores and be thinking of the Father; this is a false concept and lacking of spiritual profundity; indeed the mind is occupied in its chores; but, before starting the day, Do you remember the Father? Do you do things in His name? I verily say unto you that all those who did not remember the Father an instant, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for that is how you requested it in the Kingdom; and everything which is requested is fulfilled; you were taught that your Creator is everywhere; He is also in every instant; in every second; for no one is disinherited; neither matter nor spirit; the instants are also living; and they have the same rights of your spirits; your life system which were given to you by the demons of ambition as a unique alternative, condemned you; this condemnation was seen by my First-born Son, many centuries ago; and this is why he scared the traders of the temple away; he saw the condemnation of the own humanity in them; he saw how they would take advantage of the need of others; he saw the corruption of money; he saw his children of the future, divided in rich and poor; he saw all the calamities of the world in them; he saw the worst yoke of the planet; he saw the originators of your weeping and gnashing of teeth in them; yes children of the Earth; your satan is your own life system; and if you do not renounce it, you shall get further away from the Kingdom of Heavens; for the seconds lived in violation increase; none of your blind guides shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; nor you who followed them; all the generations who have departed from Earth, none has entered the Kingdom of Heavens; nor shall any of them enter; and all of it because of the so-called capitalism and the so-called Catholic Church; two philosophies which are not known in the Kingdom; for every philosophy that divides the Father's children is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; for no creator of them has entered; nor any of their followers; the rock of the human selfishness drew you spiritually away from the Father; she redressed herself with respectability, while she reigned and violated the law; beautiful buildings and cathedrals from the outside, and corrupted from within; behold a parable which was written for the religious spirits; and the blinds in spirit did not notice it; they only thought in exalting a material concept taken from the Gospel by means of an erroneous psychology; they drew away from the true humility; they turned into idolaters; Do their temples not have images? I verily say unto you that all those who prostrated themselves before an idol or any image, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and all those who practiced material adoration; the material adoration is of a pharaonic origin; and the people of Israel transmitted it to the world; for these demons of the pharaonic dynasty, were first on the surface of the Earth; only my Fist-born Son knows the true story of the world; for there are many stories within the story; the damned pharaohs proclaimed themselves gods on Earth; teaching to the world the first spiritual arrogance; which is equivalent to the so-called Eternity and inviolability of the Holy Mother Church; Hypocrites! No one is saint in this world; the true humility does not need a title, which are worthless in the Kingdom of Heavens; for hypocrisy is not of the Kingdom; your so-called church has its days numbered; for nothing which is terrestrial lasts; and much less those who exalted themselves by violating the Father's laws; every violator of the law, if he is not judged down below, he is so up above; if he is not judged in life, he is judged in the spiritual world; for the Father's law which is infinite, makes what is up above the same as what is down below; and what is down below the same as what is up above; your religious rock shall be discounted all the seconds of deceit, which she provoked in others; from the precise instant in which she started to divide the faith of the flock; the number of seconds is immense; these demons must calculate the seconds which are contained in a century, and multiply them by the number of centuries in which they kept the world of faith divided; and all that cumulus of seconds must be distributed among all those who were religious;

the Father knows their number; but, each demon shall pay his/her part wherever they are; the same thing goes for the creators of the damned money; it is understood as creators those who controlled a greater part of money, more than others; those who you call tycoons, rich, opulent, bankers, millionaires; and all the salaried workers of the world; the latter ones are more saved than the big ones of the world; for every big one is a greater exploiter; and every minor one an exploiter by imitation; here there are the most varied kinds of traders, known by the world; the salaried workers have the immense merit that they were exploited; behold the glory of every minor; every exploited being receives an addition in his/her celestial points; and for him/her are all the seconds that the exploitation lasted; and the humblest and more despised was his/her work, according to the world, their points get multiplied by themselves; that is why it was written: Every big one shall be despised and every humble exulted; for no one shall want to belong to the group of those who were rich; and all those who were humble shall be envied; for they are closer to the doors of the Kingdom of Heavens; the entire world shall calculate their celestial points; their addition; and this calculation is the one which indicates the spiritual hierarchy of each one; every calculation of addition must be done starting from the age of twelve years; from the instant in which every creature has got conscience of good and evil; before that age, all of you are innocent before the Creator; all of you are considered children of God; even if you have violated the law; and it is for the innocence which you have; innocence is the own ignorance which every creature has, before the mysteries of the infinity; and all have an innocence in the universe; for no one knows more than the Father; but, all of you pay what you have to pay; just like in your ideas there is attribute and quality, there is also attribute and quality in your justice; this is because the faults which were committed in each one, are not the same; the circumstances vary up to infinity; and there is a justice for everyone; that is why it was written: With the rod that you measure, you shall be measured; which means that from the attributes and qualities of your ideas, the attribute and quality of your justice is born; justice is in yourselves; you started to create it in the same instant in which you started to think; and this lasts up to the last instant of your life; up to the last sigh; from the precise instant in which you read and understand the Revelation a new score, starts in you; for repentance appears; which is also a daughter of the Father; as all the sentiments are; by the intellectuality and understanding of each one, he who is going through the trial of not knowing how to read, listens; and those who cannot see, cannot hear or cannot speak, the Father has nothing against them; for theirs is the Kingdom of Heavens; that is how they requested it in their trials; and I verily say unto you that there shall not be creatures happier than them; who having eyes could not see; who having mouths could not speak; who having ears could not hear; for they are clean from the inside and from the outside; the moral trial which they carried on throughout life, exalts them before the Father; there is nothing immoral in them; and woe betide those who made fun of these children; for they shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; no mocker of the trials of his brothers has ever entered the Kingdom; and all those who felt compassion a product of pity, shall not enter the Father's Kingdom either; the living ignorance of these beings spoiled them; the physical trials of others should have never been seen with pity and compassion; but with loving care and respect; which is another morality; more elevated than pity and compassion; all the justice which you shall receive, is based on your own acts; even the most minimal ones; and all those who pronounced the most minimal vulgarity, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; Were you not taught that God is everywhere? He is also in every mouth; and all those who scandalized with the eyes, shall not enter the Kingdom; this latter one, when the eyes of the flesh desired with lasciviousness any woman or any man; only after being married can they desire each one; all those of whom divorce came out because of a whim, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and all those who made more than one flesh in life, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; one flesh is equivalent to one matrimony; and no to two or more; it would have been better for you to have remained a widow or a widower, than having gotten married again; for you would have respected the law above everything; by getting married again, you missed the opportunity to enter the Kingdom; for you discarded a law of award, for respect to what is of the Father; and take notice that I do not cut your free will; I set you free to choose; but, you had an opportunity; your choosing other ways is within your evolutionary law; the own fact is part of your imperfection; and you mark the limit yourselves of up to where you fulfill what is of the Father; all those who showed their body of flesh to the world, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens for being immoral; and they must pay the debt for each little pore of flesh which was scandalized; the pores of flesh are as living as your spirit is; each little pore has got within its laws a free will which is independent from the others; the pores of every flesh got united to every spirit in order to gain in morality; and not in immorality; and as the celestial mandate says: Every humble and microscopic is first in the Kingdom of Heavens; and the little pores of flesh as well as the virtues of your spirit, acquire colossal proportions in the Kingdom; their forms are so immense that every spirit is filled with dread; and since everything is living in the Kingdom, the little pores which were scandalized in the galaxy flesh, accuse the spirit of having exposed them to the malice and immorality of the world; they were born in order to know a new morality, and they return to the Father being immoral; and every immorality caused to every pore must be paid by the spirit; for each little pore that complains, is an existence in a remote world, which every scandalous spirit must pay; some forgive; for there is everything in the Father's vineyard; your body has got trillions of pores; which represent trillions of worlds; this quantity of worlds explains that the distancing of the spirits from the Kingdom of Heavens, is through eternities; one goes from one world to another and to another; paying the debt of the scandal; Yes little son; I see that you are thinking about the millions and millions of beings, who exhibit their bodies at the beaches of the world; I verily say unto you little son that none of them shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens and every nudist being it man or woman, is damned; and all those who showed their bodies in magazines, cinema or television; may damnation fall on them and their descendants, up to the third generation; so it is and so shall it be until the consummation of the law; and all those who having requested a male sex, and dressed like a woman; all those men who showed before the world a woman's hair, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the sexes are living, and they have morality; either one is a man or a woman; the sexes get united to the spirits in order to fulfill their laws as such; every scandalous being of the so-called fashions, divides his/her own sex between light and darkness; and in every sex all the virtues of the spirit are represented; and all of them feel scandalized; for all of them form one sole covenant in the human thinking; they form an everything above everything; and they request the Father that the scandalous spirit also be divided between light and darkness; this accusation on the part of every offended one, whether it is matter or spirit, has given way to the motto: An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth; and the divine Father considers that one who was violated in his own laws is right; in his free will; the accusations in the Kingdom are by hierarchies; being humility and joy the first two; and he who experienced anger in life, does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; even if that anger lasted less than a second; he who was joyful like a child during all his life, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the divine Father awards even the most minimal mental efforts; when they are born with the intention of making others glad; I recognize that the own life system created by the demons of exploitation and ambition, turned off every universal joy on Earth; there cannot be an honest joy in this world if some live in abundance and others live in misery; the true joy starts from the true justice; the contrary is a fake joy; and I verily say unto you that it is more likely for one who pretended to smile to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who did not make a mental effort to smile; the first one made an effort and the other one enclosed himself in a spiritual hardness; and I verily say unto you that all those who had spiritual hardness, shall not enter the Kingdom of the Father; the spiritual hardness is the indifference towards what is of the Father; and no indifferent one shall ever enter the Kingdom; as long as he/

she does not get interested for what is of the Father, as they were mandated; all those who wore vain fashions can keep on wearing them; but, they shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; by telling you that you can go on wearing them, is because you have got free will; your Creator does not beg anyone; He gives an opportunity for His children to choose their own way; the Father illustrates and the children choose; behold the divine psychology with which the Scriptures were written; and they were written by starting the beginning of every life from themselves; the Holy Scriptures represent the Father's free will; a divine way of thinking in respect to a world which requested to be trialed; and for each world of the universe, your Creator has got a divine psychology; for there is everything in His flock; and no one is disinherited; each world and each sun have their own Scriptures; matter and spirit have got them; the Scriptures are requested by the same creatures of the worlds; for they are related to their destinies; and the letter of every

Scripture is also living; for everything which comes out of the Father comes to life; and everything which draws away from the Father gets lost in darkness; the disobedience to His laws is one of the most common ways to get lost in darkness; the justice which you requested yourselves is one of the most rigorous; and its equivalence is in the Commandments; you requested to fulfill a morality which would really have been possible if the ambitious spirits had not been born in the world; those who created wealth and an unknown morality along with it; a morality which is immoral; for never ever shall an eternal morality come out if one starts by dividing the children in rich and poor; the true morality comes out of the Creator's own Word; for His Word is eternal; and likewise its consequences; What morality can those who have deceived the world offer? For there is no rich who has not deceived his fellow beings; hypocrisy and falseness is the world's morality; millions of beings pretend to be what they are not; for they are covered by a weak layer of varnish; the exterior deceives the world; but, it cannot deceive the interior; for what is in the interior accuses him before the Father; the false beings of the world; those who let others build their hopes up, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and all those who served the force shall not enter the Kingdom either; my divine Commandments says: Thou shalt not kill; Why then do my children get ready to kill their own brothers? Why do they wear uniforms which exalt the force? I verily say unto you that all those who wore uniforms of the so-called armed forces, no one shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; because of these spirits was it written: He who kills by sword dies by sword; it means that every force is defeated by the force in other worlds; if the mandate says thou shalt not kill, your philosophy of getting ready to kill, is an attempt against the world and against the Father's law; against matter and against the spirit; and against the elements of nature; Do you not test damned arms of mass destruction? When your spirits are judged, the entire universe shall be against you; for your philosophy of force attempted against everyone; against matter and against spirit; and you shall request to go to remote worlds, in which you shall be the ones threatened; and you shall be in constant uneasiness; the same sensations which you provoked on others, because of your philosophy of force, shall be provoked on your own selves; the force is unknown in the Kingdom of Heavens; it is a product of poorly evolved worlds; no creator of the so-called force has entered the Kingdom; nor their followers; force has another concept in the Kingdom; there the force is creative and not like yours, which is destructive; every destructor which ever world he may be in, is also destroyed; just as it has happened to every warrior and conqueror of your world; none of those who you call heroes has ever entered the Kingdom; nor shall they enter; until they have paid up to the last molecule of blood of the bodies they mutilated; of all the pores; the cells, the veins, etc.; for all of them have got their living philosophies; their rights and their laws; their Scriptures; just as your spirit has it; and no one can say the contrary; for no one is either unique or exclusive; you are microbes of flesh; said lovingly by your Creator; and no one who has not been a microbe shall be able to be great in the Kingdom; for one has to be very little and humble in order to become great in the Kingdom of Heavens; and all the great ones of the Kingdom, were like you too; they were flesh monkeys; for the Father's justice is universal; and it has neither a beginning nor an end; just as His material universe is; justice is in matter and spirit, for everything is living within its laws; your life is not the only one; Do you not see that the worlds succeed each other infinitely? Nothing shows you that you are the only ones; the presence of the universe demonstrates the opposite; its own presence; and I verily say unto you that all those who seeing the greatness of the Father's creation, and they were indifferent to it, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; indifference is never awarded; much less that which refers to what is of the Father; your Creator demands from you what corresponds to Him; what you promised in the Kingdom; all which is in your covenant; between matter and the spirit; between the molecules and the virtues; between the microbes and the elements; the covenant is named Ark of Covenants; which means Materialization of the elements which came out of the sun Alpha; a beginning of solar life; the cause of the causes; justice is born along with you; for from the previous existence which you had, a justice in the form of a geometry came out; which gave origin to your body of flesh and your spirit; that geometry is the salt of life; it is the knowledge of what was learned in the existence; the salt of life is the spirituality, reinforced with a new magnetism; which is added up to those already attained by the spirit in its previous existences; every life is a magnetization which has got its attribute and quality; its merit; the highest attribute and quality of a life is represented by the obedience to the Father above everything; when one does not fulfill what he/she promised the Father, all the universe feels resentful; for the matter which accompanied you in life, claims against the injustices of the spirit; all are living before the Father; and all return to the Father; your most generalized concept of what is beyond, does not take matter into account; such a profound error; for no one is disinherited; if you had studied my Word since you were children, you would have arrived into real conclusions; but, you requested very materialized parents; who endeavored for you in life not with the intention of pleasing the Father as it was mandated; but in order to be on a par with the world; and one cannot serve two masters; and I verily say unto you that no parent who lived deluded and materialized shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; behold the blind beings who transmitted their blindness to their children; causing them the greatest tragedy; for none of your children shall enter the Kingdom; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of millions and millions of creatures, who shall curse their parents and the customs which they instilled in them; and the parents shall curse their parents; and these their parents; for the blindness and the error started from the past; millions and millions of married couples shall have to get separated; for two violators of the law perpetuate their distancing from the Kingdom of Heavens; they multiply the error in their children; they transmit it to them by carnal inheritance; Yes little son; I know that you are thinking about the married couples of the world; you see, the desperation of materialism; all its building is falling down; the creators of gold which deluded and deceived the world shall be despised and even persecuted; for every philosophical tree which the Father did not plant, shall be pulled out from its roots from the human evolution; and every gold of the world shall not be touched; nor any manned war ship; nor any killer cannon served; the world shall get rid of one of their worst yokes; the arms race; another beast which shall be judged; a yoke which was created for a group of demons to profit from it; my innocent children pay for the arms, so that the killing be put into effect on themselves; I verily say unto you that no arms manufacturer shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; nor any of their children up to the third generation; and they are damned by Father Jehovah; and no one must talk to them; for they run the risk of falling into the same law of damnation; the same law must be applied to all those who trafficked with the wars; and those who conspired in order to produce a war; so it is and so shall it be up to the third generation; and all those who took any arm, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the Commandment that was taught to them says: Thou shall not kill; and you shall not kill above everything; the term: Above everything was to make the creature avoid having to serve two masters; between two impulses which came out of one intention, the better impulse is of God; killing another fellow being or getting ready to do it, is not of God; it is of the demon; for it goes against the Father's law; and all those who gave the innocence toys which represented the force and war as a present, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for corrupting the innocence; tempting them since little to violate the Father's law; and all those who made scandals before the children, it would have been better for them not to have been born; they shall be cursed up to the third generation; all those who published pornography and those who volunteered to it, may them be damned; they shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and all those who showed their naked bodies in the damned cabarets of the world, may them be damned up to the third generation; and every trafficker of the flesh, may them be damned up to the third generation; and all those who stepped into establishments or places of scandal, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; no immoral being has entered the Kingdom; and all those who showed themselves drunk to the world, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and if their vices were seen by the innocence of the children, may them be damned up to the third generation; and all those who tried drugs, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and if they were seen even if it was just for an instant by any child, may them be damned up to the third generation; and all those who trafficked with drugs, they are damned by Father Jehovah; thus they shall also be corrupted in other worlds; all those who violated any sex, may them be damned up to the third generation; and may the judges who did not condemn them to perpetuity be damned; every judge who received money for practicing justice, must quit the position of judge; for those who exploited any justice shall not enter the Kingdom; and the longer they remain as judges, the further away they get from the Kingdom of Heavens; for each second that passes by, they get further away from the Kingdom; and all those who let themselves be dominated by any vice, for each second that passes by, they get further and further away from the Father's Kingdom; but, if the creature repents, this getting further away stops; and remains in the same point where the repentance took place; all those who practiced playing and played for money, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens if they were single; and all those who being married and having children, were players, may them be damned; they have no right to corrupt my innocence, with bad habits; not just a few children shall not enter the Kingdom for imitating their parents; every fault has got its degrees; as the light has it; and all become worthy of the law of damnation, when there are children in between; every baby up to the age of twelve years must be considered a child in this law; and if the child is older than twelve, the immoral example always exists; but, a child has a will already, after the twelfth year of age; he/she knows by intuition good and evil in first degree; he/she only needs the experience in life; when a vice is committed in front of an older person, who is not given to vice, the fault is reduced to three thirds of a totality; the corruption of the spirits leads entire humanities not to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the vice and the corruption of your world was born from the life system which the ambitious beings gave to you; they are the material originators of this humanity's tragedy; all the calamity comes out of them; for there is no major scandal than dividing a flock between rich and poor; just a microscopic injustice in a life system is enough, and the tragedy for a world breaks out; every evil should have been rejected from the beginning; it was part of the trials of life; your life should have been a life of infinite cautiousness before the Father's insinuations in the Scriptures; Was your Creator not first above everything? And you have done the opposite; for you what is first is gold; pleasure; to avoid work as much as one can; every bad habit is like the weed; it must be pulled out from the garden; and by being pulled it returns to darkness; such shall be your awakening before the Revelation; your weeping and gnashing of teeth is to pull out the rotten weed; for no corrupted creature shall remain in this world; no demon shall remain; only the innocence which your life system did not get to corrupt shall remain; for every child is saved from the final judgment; every sinner shall depart from this world cursing for having been born; cursing a world which drew him away from the Kingdom of Heavens; for no terrestrial power shall make them enter the Kingdom; human seas shall follow the First-born Son; for he was given every power in order to judge all dead and alive; those who are in this world and those who are out of this world; his divine Power is not just for one world only; it is for infinite worlds; whose number is like the numbers of molehills which are contained in a desert; the Trinity Son has got the same powers of the Trinity Father; for they are one within the other; and they keep their individualities and their free wills; you all have got the Trinity; for no one is disinherited; but, the sinners and violators of the Father's law, get away from the light; and they transform their trinity in a trinity of darkness; it was your free will which made the choice; no one forced you to be sinners; you had the power of will in life; you requested infinite ways in the Kingdom; and your free will chose; if you fell in this existence, others shall come; for in the Father there is no limit whatsoever; it is never late to start; an Eternal Father consoles His children in their falls; no matter how sinful they have been; but, the law is fulfilled anyway; the originators of your tragedy are the same ones who govern the world; you should charge them the eternity that you have lost; they built your hopes up; they tempted you with their gold; they entertained you; while your life got more and more away from the Father's Kingdom; for the seconds of life are being added up at each instant; the illusion-second and the reality-second; behold the value of your seconds shall change the humanity's history; for no false story shall remain; for the attributes and qualities of your ideas, which are born within the seconds of time, shall change; and by changing the mental philosophy, the world changes; the biggest Intellectual Revolution gets started in your world; in which the humble shall be envied; the presence of my First-born Son shall embarrass those who hoarded wealth; wealth should have never existed as such; for everything is consumed by the world; the so-called wealth is the product of a demoniac mental calculation; for it is not fair; for some have in excess in perpetuity and others lack in perpetuity; for the world should not expect happiness from the philosophy of wealth; it can only offer you a weeping and gnashing of teeth; the events which are coming, shall demonstrate it to you; every rich must return those who have nothing what never ever belonged to them; my Commandments do not mandate anyone to be rich or poor; all deserve equality; an equality which should have always existed; equality is in nature; one is born with it; for all of you enjoy the same laws; not a microscopic part of the laws of the elements is taken away from anyone; and those who are born blind, deaf or mute or any other physical impairment, is because they requested it that way; and so was it conceded to them; and the cause of them are the violations of the past; acts done in other existences; Were you not taught that every spirit is born again? It means that they have had and shall have many existences; that they shall reincarnate in infinite bodies, through all eternity; Have you not noticed that one existence is not enough to know it all? Millions of you were blind; the comfort of your life system on one hand, and your ignorance in my Scriptures on the other, sank you even more; for I verily say unto you that it is more likely for one who made an effort by struggling to get rid of the bad influence of his own life style to enter my Kingdom, than for one who did nothing; every effort is awarded in the Kingdom; and among all the efforts, those who refer to the Father are the more awarded; for your Creator gets moved; He feels just as you feel; what is up above is the same as down below; what you have in a microscopic degree, the Father has it in an infinite degree; Were you not taught that God is in everyone and everywhere? The presence of the Father is not material before you; for that is how you requested it yourselves, before coming out of the Kingdom of Heavens; this was in the circumstances that your life was a trial; and a life trial which imposed its own difficulties by itself has got a greater merit before the Father; for he/she promised to overcome it; and the greatest obstacle for every spirit is not to see his/her Creator; that is why you requested a divine auxiliary called faith; without the faith of belief, one cannot overcome any trial; for no creature who did not have faith, shall enter the Father's Kingdom; faith moves mountains was taught to you; for the true faith can do anything, until one enters the Father's Kingdom; those who presently have faith were in the past of their existences, the greatest skeptical beings; for the spirit goes through everything in the improvement towards the Father; and the great skeptical beings of today, shall be the great believers of tomorrow; a man who believes without seeing is a very evolved spirit; and he who requests a proof in order to believe, is a very backward spirit; he who does not ask for proofs, went through the phase of requesting such proofs; and he who presently asks for proofs is just starting what another has finished already; the proofs which refer to the Father's emissaries, were given to all of you; but, not all of you requested them; many of you request proofs to my emissaries; and when you are not pleased, you doubt; I verily say unto you that all those who requested proofs to my First-born Son and did not study the Father's Scriptures in life, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for they did not prepare themselves in the knowledge, in order to claim for such an award; they have no merit whatsoever to aspire to such thing; ignorance cannot be awarded; and much less when the knowledge was ignored by one's own will.-

Yes little son; this world knew about good and evil; I verily say unto you daughters of the Earth that only the love according to the Father's Scriptures, is from the Kingdom of Heavens; the love which did not respect the Creator above everything, has no right to the Father's Glory; to surrender oneself to another is easy; but, its consequences are eternal; you women blind to the laws of eternity, promised the Father not to let yourselves be tempted; it was your trial; it is temptation when one violates what was promised in the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that every human creature by requesting to know the flesh, all the universe got compromised with it; for what is up above is the same as down below; if you women despise down below, you shall be despised up above; the flesh is living; it complains before the Father, just as the spirit complains; for nothing imagined is less before the Father; I verily say unto you that the easiness with which you surrendered yourselves to other demons, is judged in the Kingdom of Heavens; surrendering to others whichever way it may be, becomes living in the Kingdom; each pore of flesh which suffered a sexual relation, more than it was mandated, is a disinherited child in the Kingdom of Heavens; for it underwent an influence which was not written in the Father's Kingdom; you were mandated to make one sole flesh; one sole marriage; for man or woman; for that is how you requested it in the Kingdom of Heavens; every scandalous being who got married more than once, despised the divine mandate; and not because of that he/she stopped from enjoying his/her free will; these mundane creatures by evolution and ignorant due to their lack of illustration, shall be born in many worlds; but, they shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens through eternities; since for each pore of flesh which suffered the influence of the violation of the Father's mandate, corresponds to live an existence out of the Kingdom of Heavens; this is for the man and the woman who committed the violation; those who committed adultery are in the same law; every adulterer must add up all the seconds gone by in the time in which the adultery lasted; each second of immorality corresponds to live an existence out of the Kingdom of Heavens; the flesh requested laws to the Father, just as the spirit requested them; you made divine covenants; molecules and virtues talked in the Kingdom of Heavens, before being born on Earth again with an oblivion of the past; every violation to the Father's law is a violation to matter and spirit; I verily say unto you that the most quotidian coarseness is enough for not entering the Kingdom of Heavens; the body of flesh shall complain to the Father, that the spirit did not respect it; I verily say unto you that by getting united in flesh and spirit, both requested to fulfill the highest morality, that your mind can imagine; this improvement in the request, includes even the most microscopic molecule; for all are equal in rights before the Father; and all humanity promised Him to imitate the divine morality of the Kingdom of Heavens; for without it, everything that comes out, does not enter.-

Yes little son; so it is as you have been seeing it since you were a child; the flying saucers sow the galactic seed in infinite worlds; the galactic seed are the ideas which were requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; each idea requested is a destiny turned into life; and also the flying saucers collect galactic seeds; they collect the ideas which daily and at every instant the mind of every thinking creature generates; I verily say unto you that every created body of flesh came out of a microscopic idea; when the body was an idea, it requested to be respected above everything; for being alive it had a free will and it had the right to opine; I verily say unto you that your spirit talked to each molecule of the future flesh; and the divine covenants between matter and spirit were made; between molecules and virtues; no one promised to violate within him/herself the Father's mandates; all without exception promised to respect the most microscopic molecule and invisible virtue, above everything; I verily say unto you that the spirit failed in his/her promise; for in his/her understanding he/she violated Father Jehovah's Scriptures and Commandments; every scandalous being of the flesh shall confront trillions of molecules in the Kingdom of Heavens; and with his/her 318 virtues which were scandalized; for you were given life in order to gain in living morality; without which no one can enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the flesh which violated the law of morality, condemned itself that its inheritance, turned into children, do not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for the spirits who not having requested a body of flesh, violated other laws, to enter the Kingdom of Heavens than for spirits who requested to know how one could be inside a body of flesh and then violated the covenant with it; no violator of the Father's law, whichever the world he/she comes from, shall enter the Kingdom of the Father; I verily say unto you that every scandalous being shall curse their own life system, for such immoral system illegally legalized their immoral customs; Did they did not create human laws for those who got married as many times as they wanted? Why were they not shown that they were violating the Father's law? Why was Him not taken into account? I verily say unto you that all the legislators who did not consult the Scriptures in order to make their laws, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for he who despises the Father is despised out of the Earth; every legislator requested the Father to be publicly judged in the final judgment; and so shall it be; every legislator of this world promised the Father to create common laws; for the Father's Scriptures are common to everyone; they are universal; and I verily say unto you that the Scriptures due to their divine universal essence, breaks every psychological concept of what is private; what is private is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; for commerce and exploitation do not exist in any imaginable way; I verily say unto you that there is no human law, which is saved; for since the same instant in which you were given the light of the Father, you did not fulfill it to the letter; forgetfulness did its work; you promised in the Kingdom of Heavens not to let yourselves be surprised by the constant forgetfulness, which instant by instant would weigh heavily on you; you promised the Father that every idea emanated from your mind, would carry His divine remembrance in its execution; in other words, everything that you did in life, was done in His name; idea by idea; act by act; event by event; behold the meaning of the term: Above everything; behold what was not fulfilled, because the creators of your life system, did not take the Father's Scriptures into account; if they had taken them into account, the promise would have been fulfilled; and you would enter the Kingdom of Heavens; your celestial points for remembering what was of the Father would be immense; I verily say unto you that the beast of capitalism deceived you; it deluded you; it did it and shall do it up to the precise final instant of the beginning of the Revelation; behold a time which is leaving, and another time which is starting; the one that is leaving is the instant of the trial; the one that is starting is the reality; two opposing worlds and one sole world; the transformation of this world comes out of this world; it comes out of the evil which the world fed themselves with; from darkness; the divine Father Jehovah takes out the light; the final judgment takes place without the normal events of the world being affected; but the spirit gets affected; and this changes the events and history of the world; just as it happened in the past; the Mosaic Law changed a barbaric world, within their own underdeveloped state; the same thing did the Christian Doctrine; and the same thing shall happen with the Third Revelation; the Doctrine of the Lamb of God; the Telepathic Scripture which has no end; for everything that comes out of the Father has no limits; I verily say unto you that the Revelation shall fill those who violated the Father's law with dread; a dread which comes out of their consummated evil actions; and joy in those who underwent suffering and those who were persecuted in the world; every Revelation that comes out of the Father causes the greatest Revolution, in the world where it appears; the false history of this world shall start to be judged; and every history is false when in its acts it did not take what is of the Father into account; and he who does not take the Father into account, does not stay in the events of a world; the false history of this world, was written with a strange morality; the morality which produces the interest towards gold; all the historians of this world, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; they shall be accused of being hypocritical and false before the Father; I verily say unto you that every written letter and every spoken word in a false history, are waiting for their creators in the Kingdom of Heavens; they are waiting in order to accuse them; for they were created without the right to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; behold the tragedy in other creatures for not fulfilling the Father's laws; everything is living; and everything you think and do becomes living out of the Earth; behold the living universe of Father Jehovah; the life of all the worlds. acquire infinite proportions; for everything which comes out of the Father has no end; I verily say unto you that every judgment that the Father sends, He does it without telling anyone; regarding the time or instant and the characteristic of it; that is why no human creatures knows it; for the Father has as well as you do, a divine free will; what is up above is the same as down below; everything that you have, the Father has it too; Were you not taught that the Father created everything? That everything includes you; all the creatures of the universe are born searching for the limit of the Father's everything; but, they shall never find it; I verily say unto you that it is more likely for those who search something of the Father to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for those who search for nothing; for the spiritual merit is in every search; he who never searched for the truth shall never find it; the truth is in everyone; your individuality in its way of being is a truth; and its way of searching is another truth; the obstacles which you encounter is another one; all the truths that you can imagine, came out of a sole one; for the living God Who made all the things is only One; every truth returns to the Father; but, if the truth did not search for the Father's truth, this does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; all the truths which were searched in life are waiting for you in the Kingdom of Heavens; they want to know their creators; for they have many complaints; almost all the truths of this world did not take the Creator into account; they are disinherited truths; for their living magnetism have got the influence of ignoring the Eternal Father; inheritance is transmitted; when every skepticism is thought, it is transmitted to the idea; every thought irradiates its living laws, out of the Earth; even if your eyes of the flesh do not see it; behold the invisible world; a world which even if one does not believe in it, it fulfills its laws anyway; just as you fulfill them in the material world; I verily say unto you that every passing by of the creatures through the planets, are translated into magnetic waves; these waves form a spiral from the precise instant in which the creature is conceived in a mother's womb; the human spiral is born being a little point; with an expansive force to all directions; being the creature's free will which gives his/her own thinking the attribute and quality; it gives it philosophy and hierarchy; understanding and supremacy; but, both things become annulled when the creature forgets the Father's mandates; for he/she does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that every inheritance without the Father, has no authority anywhere in the universe; that is what the scandalous beings of the flesh have created; who did not respect the divine laws of the sex; theirs is the weeping and gnashing of teeth; they preferred the easy life and pleasure; an ephemeral life which is worth nothing for reaching the Father's dwelling; they only attained an eternity of darkness in many planets earths; worlds of the flesh.-

ALL THOSE WHO DEFENDED THE LIFE OF OTHERS PUBLICLY, SHALL ENTER THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS; FOR THEY DEFENDED THE FATHER; IT WAS WRITTEN THAT GOD WAS IN EVERYONE; HE IS IN HIS OWN CREATION; IT IS MORE LIKELY FOR ONE WHO DEFENDED ANOTHER TO ENTER THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS, THAN FOR ONE WHO DID NOT DEFEND ANYONE.-

Yes little son; he who defended a life in this world, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; and there is no greater charity than risking one's own life for another; behold every revolutionary by exposing his life for a better world, attained infinite points of light; for each citizen that he defended, he has got as many points as pores, cells, hair and virtues that the creature who he defended with his ideals had; if the revolutionary represented a nation, his award is the total addition of that nation's number of beings; and if his ideals represented the entire world, the total addition corresponds to the entire world; behold every struggle done in this life, is awarded by Father Jehovah; it was mandated to struggle against the demon; and the injustice that exists in this world is one of the demon's ways; it is more likely for one who confronted the demon to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who was indifferent before him; the most minimal struggle is awarded in the Father's Kingdom; the most minimal effort receives its award; those who did not make any effort in life, receive nothing; for they made the roll of contemplative spirits; if the life that you requested the Father, was a life of struggles, the struggle of the revolutionaries is the first among all the struggles; for the Son of God was the first struggler of the planet; He had to confront the hardness and pride of those who proclaimed themselves kings and emperors of this world; He gave his life for a Celestial Doctrine; He gave the example to the world; and every revolutionary is an imitator of the Son of God; in the knowledge and the hierarchy which corresponds to him, among the creatures of the Father; I verily say unto you that one is born to struggle against every injustice in the trials of life; and every injustice is a demon; he who was indifferent to every injustice, was indifferent to the demon; all those who were indifferent in this life, they shall also encounter indifference in their future lives; behold as you were in this life, so shall they be with you in other lives in other worlds; I verily say unto you that every revolutionary shall be exalted; and every indifferent one shall be repudiated; the law of the Father's justice judges the light and darkness which came out of every free will; each act done by you has got its points; I verily say unto you that counting one's respective score, according to their work, shall be the greatest entertainment of the thinking world; for from the calculation done by each one for themselves, they shall deduct whether they enter the Kingdom of Heavens or not; if they are close or far from the Kingdom; every evil thought turns into getting more distant in space, time and philosophy from the own place of origin; the distancing of each one in respect to the Kingdom of Heavens, is proportional to the number of seconds lived in evil; and the getting closer of each one in respect to the Kingdom of Heavens, is proportional to the number of seconds lived in the light; there is a score of light and a score of darkness; for you got to know good and evil in this life; the human evil grew on this planet, at the same instant in which the spirits of the past, thought in terms of themselves; they thought about private property; they thought with usury; with greed; you are certainly not perfect; but, you requested the Father a form of life in which you promised Him to overcome the most microscopic form of selfishness; I verily say unto you that every form of life has got an objective; no one requests life to the Father if it is not for self-improvement; every irresponsibility that occurred at any instant in life, is paid; it is paid second by second; each second corresponds to fulfill an existence out of the Kingdom of Heavens; behold the accumulation of existences to fulfill; debts of a past; not only of one existence, but of many; behold a law in which you have to be born again infinite times; behold why the Father's Scriptures taught you to live in humility; the divine intention was no other than making you avoid the accumulation of the debt-existences; for just one second of violation is enough and you shall have a future existence against you; The second, your world's unit of time, is the most humble and microscopic! For one second or less, one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens! Behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of an entire world; a world who grew apart from the Father's Scriptures; and whose discount is for second lived; since one was born up to the precise instant of death; a world who built their hopes up to the power of gold; and not in the Father's power; a world who lost in their trials of life; a world who was deceived; behold the real tragedy; for no deluded one shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens.-

Yes, little son; so it is; just as you think; the spirits who requested the human life, did it with one purpose: the struggle against the demon in any of the forms which his manifestation would have; therefore, all those who struggled and protested in the human life, are great in the Kingdom of Heavens; for they struggled and protested against a life system, which is illegal before the Father; for every self-interested life system is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; and every creature whichever world he /she may be, who struggled against something which did not come out of the Father, is glorified in the Kingdom; behold the fall of the illegal life system based on gold; a system which did not take the Father's Scriptures into account; and not considering the Father is enough to not to be recognized in the Kingdom of Heavens; all those who lived the capitalism, fell in the trials of life; for seeing so much injustice and immoralities, they let themselves be carried away by them; they fell into the illusion of gold; they let themselves be dominated by a strange psychology of self-interest; this is called in divine justice, a living self-interest for what is temporary; when the creature is living, he/she generates ideas with the same thinking influence; and every spirit is responsible of such influence; for it came out of his/her free will; I verily say unto you that every physical idea requests to know its generating father; just as your spirit searches for the Creator; every idea when being generated travels through space and waits for the one who created it; just as you wait in life; what is up above is the same as down below; all those who thought according to gold have a painful encounter with his/her inheritance in space; the ideas accuse them that knowing the Scriptures of the Eternal, he/she left the ideas without the supreme inheritance; for no idea with a strange influence enter the Kingdom of Heavens; behold your drama, violators of the Father's law; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth which is awaiting you out of this world; what one does down below, reverberates up above; for each mental action is universal; what seemed to you uninteresting in life, it is so in eternity; for even the most microscopic and silent mental act is waiting for you out of the Earth; such is the living universe of Father Jehovah; each microscopic act, even if it has not been expressed shall never stop from getting expanded; until it becomes a planet, galaxy, universe, cosmos; behold the reencounter of the beings; whether they are spirits or molecules; behold a very loving law; of recognizing each other, without knowing the cause of a previous origin; recognizing among each other constitutes the purest love; it is indeed one of the greatest awards; I verily say unto you that the supreme moment in which you shall recognize your family of the past is coming; the divine resurrection of every flesh is coming; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of those who doubted; of those who did not believe in the resurrection; for they shall see with tears in their eyes how others resurrect; and they shall see how elderly people are resurrected as children; and they the skeptical beings shall not become children again; for they did not believe in the law; they did not believe in the divine mechanism which made it possible; the skeptical ideas generated by the skeptical beings annul the law of their own resurrection; they just have to wait for death; behold another weeping and gnashing of teeth; he who did not believe, denied every power to the Father; and he who denies the Father, does not see His divine manifestation; I verily say unto you that these things shall happen, before this generation fulfills their final destiny; behold the Rolls of the Lamb shall surprise everyone; many know that you are in the final times; they know it because they have been concerned about it; what no one in this world knew was how and when the divinity would become present; no one knowing it shows you that your Father Jehovah also has a divine free will; and the form and the instant in which the Revelation would come to the world, only the Father knows it; I verily say unto you that every beginning which comes out of the Father is infinite; in the Father, the ways to initiate a new doctrine in some world are infinite; but, with a little psychology one can deduct that the Revelation is once more a Doctrine; the Mosaic Law was a Doctrine; the Christian Law was a Doctrine; and what is of the Lamb of God is a Doctrine; behold the divine complement of the divine intention, which the Father has for this world; once more His divine living Word is expressed to this world; the Creator of life does not necessitate the force in order to make a world advance; His divine Word is enough, which takes the form of a Doctrine; a Doctrine which shall delight an entire world.-

Yes little son; the so-called nations imitated satan; they divided men in the trials of life; and satan divided the Father's angels in the Kingdom; all those who imitate satan do not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; the human spirits by requesting life trials to Father Jehovah, promised the Father to take to the remote Earth what they themselves saw in the Kingdom of Heavens; and what each one saw in the Father's Kingdom is in his divine Scriptures; all of you saw in the Kingdom of Heavens the living equality; that is why it was written: All are equal in rights before God; I verily say unto you that if those who created the life system based on gold for you had not forgotten the Father, you children of the Earth would not have had the right to a judgment; for if they had imitated what is of the Father, applying it into the form of life, they would have to have created laws of paradise; they would have to have started from the own equality; they legalized pain and injustice from the beginning; the so-called capitalism started from meanness; calculation and shrewdness; the creators of the so-called capitalism, started themselves with the complex to gold; for such germ came out of their spirits; the complex to gold was so great that they forgot the own Creator; they forgot that above every imaginable thing, He who gave you life was first; the Father's Scriptures prophesize everything; He warns in His divine Gospel what would a strange slavery in this world of trials be; it is the beast which is the own capitalism; it is the shrewdness of a few in order to dominate the entire world; it is the rock of materialism; this strange influence is not of the Father's light; the spirit's weakness left a strange seal of it in the human inheritance; they impose on others a strange conformism; strange because such conformism was not requested by no thinking spirit; no one requested the Father to feel in oneself a conformism, in which He was not taken into account; no one from this humanity requested in themselves, to imitate satan's division; in any imaginable way; no one requested to be a protagonist in the groups called nations; for all of you knew by celestial experience that all those who had been divided in remote worlds, could not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; the beast which knows nothing about spirituality did not hesitate in dividing the world in nations; and the beast created the tradition; it created the history of its false world; for the beast shall not remain in the true history of the Earth; the true history is born from what is written in the place of origin; it is born from the Kingdom of Heavens; the beast is not written in the Father's Kingdom; for what the beast is, it is a strange transformation in its trinity; this transformation started in the pharaonic era; the beast started coveting the art; the beginning of the beast started from the eyes; for the beast was innocent; the beast started to decline in its thinking; the beast forgot its own origin; the beast violated the laws of its own free will; for the beast did not dominate its own inclinations; the beginning of the beast is a fickle beginning; it is a beginning of an awakening which was latent; the latent part in the beast started in remote galaxies; in very remote trials which the beast had; the development since the beginning of the beginning of the beast, had the strange influence of dividing what was united; the advent of the beast in the human dimension provokes in the nucleus of love, a vibration which carries along the strange psychology of feeling unequal; weariness starts to be born in the simplicity; the end of the end starts; which means the end turned into space, time and philosophy; the end in an inverse way starts; and what is inverse turns into reality in strange laws; the destiny of the beast becomes a cause in an unknown dimension; for not even the elements know the beast; for no one made a galactic covenant with it; the beast gets deluded; it thinks that its power is unique; disappointment does not take long to arrive; the beast did not consider the minds of the generations of the future; shrewdness failed in this for the beast; for what the beast never knew was in millions of minds; the beast sowed a strange and demoniac illusion in all those who had the misfortune of knowing it; the beast exerted so much dominium over the planet that it divided it in groups; it imposed its law; and to make sure of its dominium, it recurred to force; the presence of this strange tree of darkness shows the beast's cowardice; for he who made use of force in the trials of life, is called a coward in the Kingdom of Heavens; for no one in this world requested the Father to use the strange force against their fellow beings; nor against anyone; the sensation of knowing what the force was came out of the beast; it came out of the so-called capitalism; and the strange force became dominant over the groups called nations; and each nation tried to exalt the force, confusing it with the sentiments; the strange dominium which the sensation of force exerts over the human thinking, makes those who requested to think being incarnated, not to enter the Kingdom of

Heavens again; the beast extended its dominium, immoralizing the morality, which was requested by everyone in the Kingdom of Heavens; it invaded the attribute and quality of every custom requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; and as it is written that with the rod which it measured others, with the same one it shall be measured; the beast shall be judged for the changing of customs in the beings; no one will want to serve the beast; for the beast is arriving to its end; and weariness is wreaking havoc on the beast; for the eternity of the beast is ephemeral; what is really eternal comes out of the Kingdom of Heavens; and the beast is not of the Kingdom; and what is not of the Kingdom ends up in tragedy; it ends up in weeping and gnashing of teeth; every weeping is greater in those who led the weeping of others; the beast led it and instigated it; it provoked the drama and it added itself to it; the beast shall read its own origin and its sad end, in the human thinking.-

Yes little son; the so-called nationalisms end up in the year 2001; it is the end of the trials of life; every psychology which came out of every thinking spirit, was trialed; and among every psychology are the strange nationalisms; which came out of a strange life system of gold; the beast divided the world, for it was convenient to it; unity was never of its pleasure; for the unity of the world would have discarded it as a life system; every form of unity scares the beast; the beast prefers disunity; for in a united world it cannot trade with the arms; that is why the beast is never represented by anyone in the World Peace Conferences; the beast always tries to crush every Movement of Unity in this world; the beast does not care how the Movement of Unity is called, which comes out of millions of minds; it does not care for the greatness of unity of the world; the only thing that the beast is interested in is that no one touches its interests; the beast approves the nationalisms, for it takes advantage of them; it is one of the forms of building anyone's hopes up, which the beast counts on; this illusion of defending nationalism has made anyone who defended a country not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; and many are condemned; for they violated the Father's law; they killed for following the beast; the beast condemned armies and entire generations; and the beast shall keep condemning up to the last instant; the beast has become frightened about the formation of the Third World; Third World, a world of the Trinity in Revelation; the Third World shall emerge as the greatest power which has existed on Earth; the Third World shall be led by the First-born Solar Son Christ; the third World shall defeat the beast; for the beast shall be isolated; everyone shall flee from it, as one flees from a pest; the Third World is the World of the future; for Father Jehovah makes use of the long-suffering; not of those who made others suffer; the Third World shall create communism on Earth; and Father Jehovah's divine parable of the Scriptures shall be fulfilled: All are equal in rights before

God; behold all those who were exploited and deceived are first in the events of the Father; and being first, they are their own builders of their own world; the Third World represents the Universal Government on this planet; the history of the future shall call them the Father's Elected; and their power shall have no equal on Earth; the Third World is the world of the oppressed; a world created by the strange life system of gold; for the Father does not divide the children of the worlds; the Third World shall form a Government, whose laws shall be dictated by the First-born Son; a solar Parent; he intervenes in the history of this world; a divine fact, incredible for many; for they did not give themselves the true faith; I verily say unto you that all those who show surprise to the arrival of the First-born Son, an Older Son of the Father, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; Was it not taught to you for centuries and centuries? I verily say unto you that you had time to sow; now is it the time for harvesting; now it is demanded from you; now it is no time for preaching; the time of preaching had its time already; men preached; the Revelation does not imitate what is of men; for the Revelation is not of men; what is of God, is of God; what is of men, is of men; Father Jehovah's Revelation does not need advertisement, as men do; what is of God has its laws everywhere; for the Father is everywhere; the Revelation gets extended throughout the world, as a Knowledge; it is translated to all the languages in the world; it invades everything; it transforms everything; and every knowledge which its reign had, disappears from the human knowledge; for everything requested its time, in the trials of life; the everything above everything subordinates itself to the living Revelation of Father Jehovah; what is of the Father has no end; and by not having an end it establishes its reign; the beginning of the Revelation was humble; and that is why it was poorly looked upon; for being the Revelation humble, it found itself before a strange humility; with a humility which doubted itself; it found itself before a humility which came out of a strange life system, of the laws of gold; this strange humility, has its major representative in the religious rock; for this strange form of faith is the one which casted the first stone of selfishness over this world; for the term First Stone means To speak within the human imperfection, about the first cause; and the first cause is the Father; all the causes came out of Him; the first stone casted by the religious rock caused a great damage to this world; because of the religious rock, this planet has a backwardness of twenty centuries, in the moral and spiritual level; the psychology of the world of faith, is influenced by a strange psychology; whose cause is in the strange material adoration; the so-called religious world, extended the superstition in millions of beings of all the generations to its maximum expression; they created them a strange complex; every spirit who was on Earth and got to know this strange influence, is waiting out of the Earth for the culprits; the strange material adoration was requested by no one in the Kingdom of Heavens; none of you requested the Father to worship Him in an inanimate object; for such thing has no sense in the own evolution; it does not leave any instruction or teaching to anyone; to worship images is to imitate satan; for in remote worlds satan deviates the creatures' attention by instilling false gods in them; it is one of the ways which satan has in order to confuse those who have seen the light in the Father; and every mind which is forced to adore images, falls easily into superstition; a strange tree which came out of another strange tree; and every strange tree shall be pulled out from its roots from this world; nationalisms are also strange trees; they are so not because of the laws of nature, but because of the division of the flock; the beast by dividing this world, condemned itself for eternities; for the beast surpassed its own trinity, which was requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; the strange nationalisms shall disappear from this world; nothing shall remain from the strange world of selfishness and self-interest; a world which no one requested to know; a world which is not written in the Kingdom of Heavens; for no one requested the Father to become a slave of their own laws; no one wanted to get lost in some strange laws, which were entire violations in the Father's laws; the beast created the nationalisms and fed them by violating the Father's laws; the beast gets in charge of its own tragedy; and it is not the first time that it happens to it; in remote worlds, and in worlds which are not in space anymore, the beast did the same which it is doing on Earth; it divided other humanities, who had requested Father Jehovah, one sole Planetary Government; a Government similar to that of the Kingdom of Heavens; the beast provoked immense backwardness in other planetary flocks; and the beast shall request the Father a new opportunity again; it shall request to be born on a remote planet, it shall request to know a world of the light again; it shall request to be trialed again; when the beast fulfills its law in some remote world, it does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; for in each return it brings along one more debt to the Father; the debts of the beast are immense; for the present suns shall finish, and the beast shall not have finished paying its debts to the Father yet; the beast was represented in the pharaonic era by the sphinx; a lion with a human face; a strange symbol which came out of darkness; a symbol which has a lot to do with the anglo-saxon race; for every spirit has been born many times in his/her eternity; the beast has also reigned in microscopic worlds; infinitely smaller than the own Earth; it was in those worlds where the beast got to know and corrupted the spirits who are now called anglo-saxon; materialistic spirits who requested Father Jehovah to be the first to be born in the Christian Era; these spirits are the first to let themselves be influenced by the beast; for they are older than the rest of the spirits of the Earth; a relative antiquity; for the attribute and quality alternate themselves as time passes by; the attribute and quality get transformed with the successive existences; for improvement does not stop in the thinking spirit; it eternally wants to know what it does not know; which it knows that they exist in the infinity.-

THE STRANGE LIFE SYSTEM WHICH CAME OUT OF THE INTEREST TOWARDS GOLD, HARDENED THE HUMAN INNOCENCE AND TURNED IT SELFISH; THE CULPRITS OF THIS SIN SHALL PAY UP TO THE LAST MOLECULE OF EACH CREATURE OF THIS WORLD, WHO UNDERWENT THE STRANGE INFLUENCE OF SELFISHNESS; IT IS MORE LIKELY FOR THOSE WHO GAVE A WORLD A LIFE SYSTEM WHICH IMITATED WHAT WAS SAID BY THE FATHER IN HIS SCRIPTURES TO ENTER THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS, THAN FOR THOSE WHO GAVE A WORLD A LIFE SYSTEM BASED ON AMBITION AND SELFISHNESS.-

Yes little son; in this world since its creation, its creatures are trialed by the Creator; in this world where the trials of life were requested, men have created strange knowledge, starting from the own way of living; the human innocence saw and got to know vices and immoralities, which they should have never got to know; for this humanity promised the Father above everything, to do the most microscopic of their own life according to the divine mandates of the Father; in other words, the life system should have been done according to the Father's Scriptures; and not according to the laws of gold; men violated their own promise; they did the opposite; they created an immoral life system; for by creating it, they did not consider the Eternal Father; the living God Creator of everything; this first immorality costs you the entrance to the Kingdom of Heavens; it costs you the own eternity; the other immoralities which you got to know by knowing the capitalist system, are paid on Earth and out of it; I verily say unto you that entering the Father's Kingdom, costs; for you requested to be trialed in a planetary life; and the divine trial consisted in that you would keep the own innocence with which you came out of the Kingdom of

Heavens; the ambitious and mentally limited men, condemned you; for they were obstinate in that only with gold one could live; if these ambitious and backward spirits, would not have created the so-called capitalism, you would have entered the Kingdom of Heavens; for you would have not gotten to know evil, ambition and scandal; I verily say unto you that this strange life system is the only guilty one of the weeping and gnashing of teeth, which is at the door of this world; behold that these demons who despised the Father's Scriptures, stole eternity from you; for to be able to be resurrected in the flesh in this world, it is necessary to have kept innocence intact; the resurrection of the flesh is to become a child again; the flesh in a state of old age is transformed into a child's flesh again; the divine law which was slow in giving you life, from the mother's womb, now it shall be instantaneous; renewing all the worn cells and molecules at the Solar Son Christ's speed of thought; behold a divine law which is normal in the Macrocosm; called Kingdom of Heavens; the divine sustenance of the own Kingdom, comes out of the own solar minds of the living virtues; behold the power of giving and taking life away of the first-born sons of Father Jehovah; for each one of you came out of the own magnetism of the First-born Son; the suns Alpha and Omega are the divine virtues of immense living fire, who created the First-born Solar Son Christ; and your planets and creatures are a microscopic creation which came out of this divine fire; being the divine Father Jehovah, an eternal fire, the universe is also fire; a materialized fire; and there is no cause in the infinite universe which is not fire; the solar fires are of all eternity; no one knows the beginning of the universe; only the Father knows; for He was first before all things; I verily say unto you that every beginning comes out of you; the relative beginnings of the own thinking in its chain of evolutions; for every spirit is born again; and in each existence that he/she requests to live, he/she thinks in a different form to how he/she thought in other existences; this is the salt of life; the knowledge of what was learnt; the same experience is equivalent to the total number of ideas which the mind generated; it is a magnetism with all its scenes; it is a microscopic replica of all what the eyes saw; the most microscopic sensibility of your thinking; if vision was infinitely augmented, it would be like a transparent sun; for I verily say unto you that even each one's vision shall be judged in this world; the vision which got united to your spirit in order to trial a form of life, is living before the Father; I verily say unto you that every vision which contemplated any form of scandal, it would have been better to its spirit to have been born blind; for he/she would not have points against them, due to a scandal by means of the vision; it is more likely for a blind person who did not see the scandal to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who having vision, got to know scandal.-

Yes little son; everything is paid in life; that everything corresponds to the everything which each spirit requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; for the human concept everything, turns out to be microscopic, in order to explain the spiritual everything; if every spirit is born again, is because it has had many existences; each being born again is equivalent to knowing a new life, for nothing in the Father has any limits; not even in the number of existences that He offers each spirit; by having infinite existences, the spirits are accumulating debts and awards; what is not fulfilled in one life is fulfilled in another; for every spirit created by the Father is eternal; the position of every life is infinitely relative; only the spiritual free will is eternal; and being eternal, it eternally requests existences to the Father; I verily say unto you that he who doubted this divine inheritance, doubted the Father; and all the universe shall doubt all those who doubted the Creator of the Universe; and no one shall volunteer to form covenants of life with spirits who doubted; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of every skeptical being; they were blind by lessening the Father's power; they were ungrateful; for they lessened in power the One Who made possible for them to know the human life; behold the fear of every skeptical being; when they see the First-born Son with their own eyes resurrect the aged flesh; I verily say unto you that they shall turn into tragedy the rest of their lives; behold where those who cultivated a strange morality shall arrive into; a morality which came out of a strange life system, which they were forced to live; therefore, three quarters of this tragedy falls on all those who forced others to live it; it falls on the sustainers of the force; for this strange life system, backs itself up on the force; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of every uniformed being; of every so-called military men; I verily say unto you that all the world shall flee from every child who got ready to kill; they shall flee from them as one flees from a pest; for Father Jehovah's damnation shall fall on them; even their relatives shall flee from them; behold a justice which they requested themselves; every military spirit requested the Father the spiritual inclination of choosing the force as a profession; and they promised to overcome the inclination; for no one requests the Father to violate His divine law; all request experiences and to exalt the Father in such experiences; the trials of life consist in that;

whichever each one's circumstances may be; the inclination towards evil was requested by everyone; and every individuality promised the Father to overcome evil; and in order to overcome evil one had to create a life system based on Father Jehovah's Scriptures; and since it did not happen that way, evil was not overcome in this world; and the Final judgment shall become a reality; the human free will had the opportunity of avoiding such judgment; it had centuries and centuries of time; but, they were blind; behold this strange world which represents a negligible part of the entire life of this planet, shall disappear; every tree which was not planted by Father Jehovah, shall be pulled out from its roots; just as many of them were pulled out in the past of this Earth; the human life requested spiritual laws; these laws were distorted by the strange life system based on gold; and the culprits have to pay; nobody requested the Father to distort another; neither matter nor spirit; this strange life system shall fall with all its science and philosophies; only the children's innocence shall remain, for a new world is born from them; theirs is the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that he who did not live with the joy proper of a child, shall not see the new world; he shall not be resurrected into a child's flesh; for he did not make any merit; the human life was given to you in order to live it in perpetual joy; if there was no planetary joy in this world, it was because of men's own injustices; man constitutes himself in the yoke of the own men; he constitutes himself in his own demon; the strange life system based on gold did not take the divine equality taught by His Scriptures; if he had taken it into account, this world would be the world of joy; for no one would complain; nobody would accuse anybody; nobody would have the complex of property or what is private; I verily say unto you that all those who defended the so-called property or what is private in this life, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; not a single molecule of such complexes is taken by the spirit; he/she only leaves selfishness and a bad teaching in this world, before departing; I verily say unto you that neither property nor what is private are known in the Kingdom of Heavens; for such beings have not entered from any world; behold the fall of all the generations of this world, for all of them got to know possession, all of them were influenced; no human spirit since the beginning of the world has been able to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; nor shall you enter; for by inheritance of the other generations, you got to know gold as a form of life; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of your world; why did they not create another life system, in which the vice of possession would not have been known? The fall of the strange life system based on property, comes to its end; every trial has a beginning, development, and end; the world shall be transformed by the divine Word of Father Jehovah; for nothing is impossible to the One Who gave you life; just like in the past He transformed the barbaric customs of the old world with the Mosaic Law and the Christian Doctrine, now once again, He transforms you again; thus you requested it yourselves; for everything is requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; I verily say unto you that there shall be no one who shall not cry in the events which are approaching this world; the virtues of the thinking burst when the Solar Trinity expresses itself to the thinking creatures; for they requested the instant in which to do it; just as the spirit requested; every instant is living before the Father; every instant has got a free will; just as every virtue has it; I verily say unto you that every power in the Father starts manifesting itself first with a living power; it starts from the most humble; for what is humble is first; and the last; everyone requests the Father from the beginning to be humble in the remote worlds; and when they request Revelations or intellectual judgements, they request that these be given to be known by them starting from the most humble that the mind can imagine; indeed the concept that you have about humility, is infinitely distant from the humility which you saw in the Kingdom of Heavens; your humility is a self-interested humility; for in your strange life system you got to know self-interest; I verily say unto you that the true humility is not of this world; the true humility only serves one Master; it serves one sole God only; the true humility does not get divided; your strange humility gets divided according to the world's interests; the strange psychology which came out of gold possession, divides and it even annuls your humility; behold your trials in life; either one is or one is not; one has an indestructible humility or one does not have it; the true humility searches for what is of the Father in silence; the true humility does not need the material adoration; for the true humility is alien to every strange form of adoration; a strange form which came out of a strange life system; it is more likely for a humble who searched in the Father's Scriptures to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for a humble who searched in the so-called religions; what came out of the Father is eternal and perfect; what came out of men is erroneous and it is not eternal; behold a Revelation which marks the end of the so-called religions; a strange psychology which divides the truth in many beliefs; being there just one God only; this strange way of understanding what is of the Father is not known in the Kingdom of Heavens; nor any philosophy which divides the Father's children; every imaginable form of division is not known.-

THE SO-CALLED CELIBACY IS NOT OF FATHER JEHOVAH'S LAW; FOR HIS DIVINE MANDATE WAS TO MAKE ONE SOLE FLESH, ONE SOLE MATRIMONY; THE DIVINE TERM: MULTIPLY YOURSELVES, IS OF THE FATHER; THE STRANGE CELIBACY CAME OUT OF A STRANGE AND UNKNOWN FORM OF FAITH CALLED RELIGION; CELIBACY CAME OUT OF THE HUMAN FREE WILL; IT IS MORE LIKELY FOR THOSE WHO FULFILLED WHAT IS OF THE FATHER ABOVE EVERYTHING TO ENTER THE KINGDOM OF HEAVENS, THAN FOR THOSE WHO PREFERRED WHAT IS OF MEN.-

Yes little son; so it is; just as you knew it since you were a boy; the so-called celibacy is a strange form of faith; the true faith is the one which does not violate what is expressed by the Father, not even in a microscopic part; celibacy is not of the Father's Gospel; such strange form of faith came out of the human free will; what is human is trialed by the Father; faith has got a free will, just as the spirit has; there are infinite kinds of faith; for the minds which feel the faith are by the millions; and they do not feel it in an egalitarian form; if it was so, the creatures would have to think equally; the law of the human free will requested the Father its own attribute and quality in its living free will; for everything imaginable is requested to the Father; the free will was never expressed to the world in their first causes; for all the human thinking requested to be trialed, by ignoring the cause of their own origin; behold the trial of the human understanding; a trial in which many things were explained, without getting to the first cause; the first cause of all the causes is given by the Revelation; for the arrival of the light was announced to the world; which means the birth of a Doctrine which shall explain everything; for being Father Jehovah's creation infinite, its explanation is also infinite; creation and explanation march parallel; behold the new Light of new Knowledge; behold the Third Doctrine which came to the world; every Doctrine represents a new psychology, which came out of the Father's Scriptures; the psychology which came out of the Father divides no one; it is the creatures who divide themselves; and this division is greater when the creature does not fulfill what is of God; what is of God has an eternal cause; and what is of the Father covers all the imaginable psychologies; that is why the most minimal violation of His law finds its fair measurement; in virtue of the human free will He has to give each one what each one deserves; there is not and there shall not be within the human mental power any knowledge which can give each thinking individuality what they deserve; no human creature requested the Father to judge another; for they knew before coming to life that the First-born Son would also come to the world; and since everyone requested to be trialed, in everything imaginable, is that no one knows the instant of the Solar Son's arrival; this is why it was written: And the truth shall arrive to the world by surprise; the same surprise which a burglar causes; I verily say unto you that all of you promised the Father not to let yourselves be surprised by the arrival of the Revelation to the world; for all of you knew in the Father's Kingdom that even for a second of time of indifference towards what is of the Father, one does not enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; even the second of time was created by the Father; Were you not taught that the Father created everything? And He created them with an infinite equality; the second of time has got in its laws of time, the same equality which the spirit has the right to, in its laws of spirit; for no one is less before the Father; neither matter nor the spirit; being celibacy of the human's free will, it is not written in the Kingdom of Heavens; that is why it is said: Strange and unknown; indeed, every evil or darkness is not written in the Father's Kingdom; none of you requested to be evil; for you requested to know a world of the light; and to respect its laws; one thing is not to wish to be evil and another to know evil, and allow oneself to be influenced by it; the latter one is what you requested; you requested to be trialed in life; that is why your kind of life is called the trials of life; everything imagined by you requested to be trialed; matter and spirit in their respective laws; this is why in your world almost all do not talk to matter; as it happens in other infinite planets; in a near future, the beings of the Earth shall do it in a progressive way; from the minor to the major; that shall be in the world Omega; a world which was announced in the Father's Scriptures; as the New World; I verily say unto you that only those who believed in the new world shall live in it; those who did not believe shall not even know it; Father Jehovah respects the beliefs of His children; He obliges no one; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of every skeptical being of all the epochs of this world; for dead and alive receive the call which they themselves requested in the Kingdom of Heavens; in any point of the universe in which the spirits find themselves, they receive the call anyway; for Father Jehovah's mandates and laws are fulfilled up above as well as down below; for what is up above is the same as down below; up above and down below came out of a same law; for the infinite worlds of up above and the infinite worlds of down below came out of a same point; I verily say unto you that all which your eyes see, were microbes; the colossal was a microbe, from times which escape your mental power; this is why no wise man of the Earth has been able to find the origin of the Earth and the universe; for every wise man commits the error of not searching in the Father's Scriptures; everything is there; starting from the own origin; indeed, those who did not search in the Father's Scriptures, shall not see the Father's Glory; for they did not take Him into account in their search; it is more likely for those who searched for the Creator of Heavens to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than those who did not want to recognize their Author; never have the ungrateful beings seen their place of origin again; the place of origin is one and infinite at the same time; for what is of the Father is not reduced to one; what is of the Father has no limit in anything imaginable; from anywhere in the universe the Creator gives life; behold a law which has neither a beginning nor an end; behold all of you come from the everything; from remote and unknown galaxies one requests to come to a world; and having one come from infinite points of the cosmos, is that one brings in his/her individualities the most varied characteristics; behold everything imaginable exists in the Father's Vineyard; behold that in all of you there are fluids and magnetisms of very remote worlds; for it is your experience; it is the salt of life of other forms of life, which you got to know; the salt of life is the same knowledge acquired in other existences in other worlds; the salt of life becomes a magnetism in the own spirit; every physical body is surrounded by a magnetism of colors; there are 318 covers of colors on you; which are virtues in your thinking at the same time; at every instant when you generate ideas daily, you are choosing by means of your free will, one of these 318 virtues; behold the ark of the living covenants in what is spiritual; the other ark of covenants is regarding matter; it is the covenant between the spirit and the elements of nature; behold the ark of covenants is infinite; it is as expansive as the own universe is; what is up above is the same as down below; the vibration of what is colossal is repeated in what is microscopic; for what is colossal was also a microbe; behold every microbe has got the eternal right to become a planet; for the divine expansive equality of the Father allows it; matter and spirit start from being microbes by being born again, infinite times; constituting themselves in universes and galactic systems of their own.-

Yes little son; so it is; the so-called celibacy is an immorality before the Father; there has been many scandals because of celibacy in the world; no one who was celibate by his own will, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; for the laws given by the own Father, shall accuse them in the Kingdom of Heavens; no one in this world requested to violate the Father's law; everything imaginable is living before the Father; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of every voluntary celibate; they had free will in life; but, the trials of life consisted in not violating the Father's law, above every imaginable thing; behold those who searched for mundane conveniences; ephemeral; these blind beings of the Gospel's laws were so by ignorance and voluntary comfort; behold the fall of those who built their hopes up in the ephemeral power of gold; for no deluded one of the strange life system, shall be resurrected into a child; the violation to what was promised above everything, before the Father, is never awarded; the thinking spirits continue being born again out of the Kingdom of Heavens; and the requested awards as the resurrection of the flesh is in your world, is kept pending to other future existences; the event which does not take place in one life, happens in another one; for every spirit is born in order to know new lives again; the awards like having eternal flesh are received when the spirit fulfills the Father's law; and you children of the Earth requested to fulfill it above everything; I verily say unto you that the strange life system which came out of gold, which was given to you by inheritance from men, led you to the tragedy; for in this unknown life system to the Kingdom of Heavens, you got to know many violations; which you should have never known about; for you requested life to the Father in order to improve yourselves in equality of rights; I verily say that the own man was your demon; for man takes advantage of man; the immoral man exploits man; and the demons of this demoniac life system teach you that it is legal to exploit; they build your hopes up with a strange earning; and you forget the divine mandates of the Father; your life system is a life system of darkness; for it did not consider the laws of the Father's light; no one requests life to the Father if it is not for advancing towards the Father; those who gave you the strange life system of gold, did the opposite; they made you go backwards; for no one who was influenced by the laws of gold, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; behold the living reality; for it is pain for the living ones; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth; behold your own way of living shall mark the beginning of one of the saddest eras, which one can have memory of in this world; an era which was being announced to you since the old world; an era which shall transform the strange life system; for every custom is also judged by the Father; it is more likely for one who did not get to know a custom to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who got to know an immoral custom; I verily say unto you that if you had just one trillionth of a second of violation, you would not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; the term requested by you which says: What is of God above everything else, includes the most microscopic thing which your mind can imagine; and that microscopic thing should not contain any microscopic molecule of immorality; behold how you shall understand that with your immoral life system, it is impossible for you to enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; no human creature has ever entered again.-

THE HIGHEST CELESTIAL SCORE OF THE TRIALS OF LIFE, IS CONSTITUTED BY WORK; THE MOST MICRO-SCOPIC MENTAL EFFORT IS INFINITELY AWARDED BY THE FATHER.-

Yes little son; there were many forms of adoration to the Father, in the trials of life; and of all the forms there were, work is the highest; if it was taught that God was in The Search for Truth everywhere, He was also in every act done in life; and of all the acts, work is the adoration preferred by the Father; for every work has to do with His divine mandate which says: Thou shall earn thy bread on the sweat of thy face; among the intuitive faith which came out of millions of minds, those which linked their faith with the divine mandate of work, are first; there is a hierarchy in everything imaginable; what was closer to what the Father said, that is the most important in the Kingdom of Heavens; the trials of life consisted in everything that came out of oneself had a relationship to what was taught by the Father; the no relationship or the no similarity makes its author be the last one in the Kingdom of Heavens; this demand is proper of Father Jehovah; it is an eternal right for the One who gives life and takes it away; it is not a human right; for the human being did not create himself; the human being was created; faith is certainly a thankfulness towards the Creator of everything; but, there is a more struggling faith than another; and as it was written that the First-born Son would judge everything, is that every kind of faith which came out of every human free will, is judged; those who let themselves be influenced by the strange religious faith, fell into many errors; among the many is not having known how to distinguish between what is of God and what is of men; if they had known it they would have searched for the truth individually; and Father Jehovah would not have any accusations against them; they would not be accused in the divine final judgment of having divided others; for the strange religious faith made converts by millions in every epoch; and all of them were attracted by imitation, more than for the sincere search; those who are influenced by what is religious forgot that the own Gospel of the Father says: He who searches shall find; which means that every faith which did not search, got distorted by itself; for it got detracted in the merit of searching; in every form of faith, all the virtues of the human thinking should have participated; no one should have been less; the strange religious faith, being imperfect within an imperfect world, transmitted all those who followed it, a strange inequality, in the own thinking of faith; for the so-called christian world, which emerged from the religious rock, never agreed on being there just one God only; they proclaimed Him just by mouth and not by fact; this shows that the strange religious faith, never understood the true psychology of the divine Gospel of Father Jehovah; if it had understood it, it would not have divided the world in many beliefs; this strange form of faith which came out of the present human evolution, did not even remotely suspect that in the Father's own Gospel was the divine warning of their own fall; the divine parable which says: Only satan divides and he divides himself; the so-called Catholic Church divided in the past and she still continues dividing in the present; for every parable which came out of Father Jehovah, is so for all the times, of infinite planets; the strange religious rock always had the custom of avoiding every teaching in respect to her own fall; the so-called religious beings shall be accused of having perpetuated the false eternity of the church; nothing which came out of men is eternal; for every trial has a beginning and an end; and it was taught that the human life is a trial; and it was taught at the same time that a divine judgment was coming to the trials of life; the members of the religious rock fell into blasphemy and slander; for no one requested Father Jehovah when they were requesting to know a new form of life, to eternalize themselves on the remote planet Earth; for in the celestial time of requesting life, everyone knew that they were going to a world in the quality of being trialed; and everyone knew that the unknown form of life, included the return to the place of origin; the human gender called this return death; and in the moment of requesting a new form of life everyone knew that they should not divide, in any imaginable way; for all of you knew that satan had divided the Father's angels; and no one wanted to imitate satan on the remote planet; all of you knew that neither one who was divided nor anyone who divided, would enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; all of you knew that the most microscopic imitation to satan is enough for you not to be allowed to enter the Father's Kingdom; the fruit of the religious is a strange fruit; for it is a fruit which contains a crying and gnashing of teeth; for no divided fruit of the trials of life, no one enters the Kingdom of Heavens again; not a so-called catholic has entered the Kingdom of Heavens again; nor any of them shall enter; it is more likely for one who searched for the truth by himself, but who divided no one to enter the Kingdom of Heavens, than for one who did it by dividing others; the other blinds who also divided the world of trials, were the so-called capitalists; these demons of ambition, divided the world in rich and poor; neither rich nor poor are known in the Kingdom of Heavens; for nothing unfair exists in the Kingdom; neither capitalism nor religions are known in the Kingdom of Heavens; nothing which divides the Father's children, nothing like that exists in the Kingdom; such strange trees emerged from primitive mentalities, on the remote planet Earth; such strange and unknown trees were created by spirits of darkness, who requested Father Jehovah to be trialed in a world of the light; for every spirit is trialed in life.-

This celestial drawing little son, represents the universal magnetism; so it is that every belief in its mental-physical essence, is a part of the universal magnetism; the everything above everything is magnetic; and being everything magnetic is that any point of the universe reverberates in the everything; the strange beliefs which are not written in the Kingdom of Heavens, are strange mental magnetisms; which give way to future planets with strange living beliefs or philosophies; truth and darkness are infinitely expansive in the everything above everything's magnetism; nothing stops in the living universe of Father Jehovah; that is why His Thinking Expansive Universe neither has nor shall it ever have any limits; the so-called religious beings who emerged from the strange life system, which came out of the strange laws of gold, when interpreting the divine Gospel of Father Jehovah, they interpreted it with the inclusion of the strange division in the own belief; which they should have never permitted; it would have been better for the so-called religious beings to have renounced as such, on time; for if it had been so, the divine Father Jehovah would have nothing against them; the strange way and the strange interpretation of teaching what is of the Father, dividing the everything above everything of faith, came out of their free wills; the tragedy of every religious being in the trials of life consists in them not having the mental ability of maintaining the world of faith unified in in one sole psychology of the divine Gospel of Father Jehovah; if they had attained it, the parable which says: Only satan divides and he divides himself, would not be a warning for them; but, the divine parables were given to everyone; and they were given in the respective proportion of each one's acts, in the trials of life; the divine parables and Commandments were given to the world before the world lived its own acts; they could be for themselves, for some as well as for others; for the human life is among other infinite forms of life, a life of psychology of trials; in the development of this or that life, one could be one or another; the free will had to choose its own way; and by choosing its own way, the spirit got distant or got closer to the divine psychology of the parables and Commandments; according to this law of the free will is that every so-called religious being should have been a revolutionary in the trials of life; just as the First-born Solar Son Christ was; the strange religious psychology always oscillated between two masters; knowing that the strange master of gold violated the Father's law in a great degree, it was treated with the same difference with which he treated the oppressed; he did not make any distinction between the true prophet and the false prophet; he divided the world and perpetuated such strange division; this strange psychology of faith was not requested by any religious spirit to the Father; nothing strange is requested to the Father; every human spirit requested the Father the imitation on the remote planet Earth of what their eyes and understanding saw in the Kingdom of Heavens; and what everyone saw in the Kingdom was the divine equality in all the imaginable rights; no one saw the strange inequality; for nothing unfair exists in the Kingdom of Heavens; this equality of the Kingdom was written in the divine Gospel of Father Jehovah; no so-called religious being defended it in the trials of life; this lack of sincerity towards the Father costs the so-called religious beings a weeping and gnashing of teeth; once more they had the opportunity of seeing the light; it is just that they once more did not know how to interpret it; for every spirit is born again in order to know again new forms of life; and by coming back to the planets again is that every human spirit has already lived in other planetary dwellings; the so-called religious beings who emerged in the strange world of gold, did the same in other worlds; they divided other humanities; they also confused other creatures of the cosmos; on remote planets they left strange beliefs and strange monuments; which were very distant from the reality of the Scriptures of those worlds; for if no one is disinherited, is that every planet of the universe has got Holy Scriptures; for what is up above is the same as down below; further up the so called religious beings shall be before the divine Father Jehovah, requesting Him once more, another opportunity; and promising Him again not to divide His children on the remote planets; behold how the spiritual history repeats itself in the planetary lives; and it shall repeat itself until the spirit succeeds in dominating the true humility; the humility which is written in the Kingdom of Heavens; the one which was written in the divine Gospel of Father Jehovah; not the strange humility which served two masters; the strange humility which divided itself; whose fruit is the no entrance to the Kingdom of Heavens; since no one requested the Father the strange division, is that no one who lived the strange mental division in the remote planets, no one enters the Kingdom of Heavens again; nothing which is divided enters the Father's Kingdom again; not even satan who in epochs which escape the mind, divided the Father's angels, has entered the Kingdom of Heavens again; for satan to be admitted in the Kingdom of Heavens again, satan has to repent first and be transformed; those who divide the Father's children in the remote worlds, are satan's imitators; and no imitator of satan enters the Kingdom of Heavens again; I verily say unto you that every faith which did not include the Cosmos within itself, is a dead faith; for when the spirit of that faith requests to be born again in order to know a new form of life; the infinite Cosmos shall not want to make a covenant of life with such spirit; for the everything above everything has got a free will; and by having a free will, it can choose; no one is obliged in the living universe of God; to oblige is a synonym of imperfection; it is a complex which the infinite creative Power of the Father does not have; the strange religious faith shall be the first one to be judged in the divine final judgment; indeed everything strange shall be judged first, above everything.-

OF THE FATHER ALWAYS TRIUMPHS; WHAT IS OF MEN TURNS INTO DUST.-

Yes little son; charity should have not existed in this world; for it is unknown in the fair worlds; there are infinite kinds of charity; in their attributes and qualities; in this world one talks about charity because one lives in a strange life system; a life system in which love and equality are in inequality; in every imperfect world, charity is taught for it is necessary for the living advance of such worlds; if one is taught to be charitable, it is because there is selfishness; the human charity gives because it senses that the own life, as a life system, is transformable; the spirit senses that its relative position has to disappear; without charity, the world of gold would be worse; each spirit came out of a place in the universe, where it saw and lived the celestial equality; this remembrance makes everyone respect charity; to give is to get closer to a way of life already lived; charity is living before the Father;

it talks and defends the spirit who cultivated it in the trials of life; all those defended by charity have got an immense celestial score; for each molecule of what was given in the trials of life, the spirit receives an existence of light; in which he/she can choose the future world, the galaxy, the universe, and the form of life; the opposite to this is the meanness practiced in life; he who was mean on Earth, others shall be mean with him/her too out of the Earth; he who took away from another in life, they shall take away from him/her too in Heavens; taking away from someone is also measured and calculated by molecules; every mean being shall have to divide him/herself; he/she must discount the points of darkness from his/her award of light attained; this discount is one by one; which means that for each molecule, idea, second, gram, pore, he/she must return one point of light; he/she must return infinite existences of future lives in the worlds of light; provoking his/her own evolutionary backwardness; every selfishness or meanness makes the spirit go backwards in its galactic advance; that is why it was written: One cannot serve two masters; either one serves the master of the light or one serves the master of darkness; he who served both, divided himself; his award diminishes; instead of getting closer to the Kingdom of Heavens, he gets more distant from there; all this humanity requested justice to the Father over themselves above every imaginable thing; this divine request includes matter and spirit; for everything was created by one sole God; a God who gave equality to matter and spirit; in their respective laws; I verily say unto you that no one requested the Father to be mean in the trials of life; for everyone knew that by imitating the demon, no one would enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; everyone knew that satan always fought against the equality taught by Father Jehovah; and in spite of knowing it, they requested the oblivion of the past; they requested to know it in the trials of life; the oblivion was requested by everyone, as a living experience; as all the sensations known by the spirits in the trials of life were requested; I verily say unto you that this strange life system based on gold gave the children who got to know it, strange customs; the own charity being great in power in the Kingdom of Heavens, came out of this immoral life system; for the rights in this strange life system were not egalitarian; I verily say unto you that if men would have governed themselves according to the Scriptures and Commandments of the Father, this world would not have any need of charity; nobody would be concerned in giving to others; for everyone would share possession in equality; the terrestrial charity is a charity influenced by self-interest; it is a strange charity; it is a charity which does not carry the seal of equality taught by the Father; the human charity divides itself; if there was no influence of darkness, like the self-interest, it would be a pure charity; I verily say unto you that the strange life system based on gold, left nothing pure on its way through this world; it influenced everyone; charity is eternal; for it is the own Father; the human free will got to know strange mental actions; the human thinking got to know thoughts and facts, which it should have never got to know; Father Jehovah was going to change this world's destiny; but, men created a strange life system; the human pride preferred the god gold; and the consequences with all their sequels of immoralities and injustices was paid by the own humanity; but, the final judgment imposes itself on all the thinking beings; for the judgment which was requested by everybody, comes out of a same God who is in all of you; behold by your own actions you shall have your weeping and gnashing of teeth; for one cannot serve two masters, and say that one is serving one only; one cannot serve light and darkness, and say that one is going to enter the Kingdom of Heavens; in other words, because of those who gave you the strange life system based on gold, no human creature shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; nor anyone from any human generation, has been able to enter the Kingdom of Heavens again.-

Yes little son; just as you knew it since you were a child; charity like every virtue, constitutes infinite living universes; each sensation has got an infinite inheritance; for each sensation constitutes a hierarchy like the ideas; in the celestial drawing, one can see a solar hierarchy; suns and worlds get attracted, for in their Alpha laws or laws of the beginning, they made divine covenants; matter and spirit met each other in a living state; the solar magnetism is a mutual power turned into language before the Creator; I verily say unto you that out of the Earth, at unmeasurable distances, exists what is gigantic; the Macrocosm; a place which the human thought shall never be able to penetrate; for the life which is left for the Earth is microscopic; it is a proper time of a dust world; whose science is not sufficient as to get to the macrocosm; the Macrocosm is the own Kingdom of Heavens; there everything becomes a reality in an instantaneous form; all that was considered a fantasy in remote worlds, becomes a reality there; what is up above is the same as down below; for what was lived in a remote world, one lives it again up above; it becomes a reality in the macrocosm; the reincarnations or being born again of all the spirits take place in the Kingdom of Heavens; the Father's creation has neither a beginning nor an end; for it is infinite in an eternal expansion; it has no limits at any instant; nor shall it never have one; behold all those who created theories of the universe said a great truth; for every idea gets materialized; just as the Earth got materialized; every mental conception, becomes a reality; what one could not prove or confirm on Earth, it is proved or confirmed out of it; if the selfish beings who attacked theories, which they never understood, had known this law, I verily say unto you that they would be closer to the Kingdom of Heavens; for they would not have infinite points of darkness against them, for from the precise instant in which the selfish being lessened the creative power of the Father, a score of darkness started to run for him/her from the first second; which were adding up second by second; during all the time in which he/she sustained the strange belief, in which he/she lessened their own Creator's power; if that time covered years or an entire life, the ungrateful and poorly evolved being must calculate all the seconds which are contained in those years or the seconds which an entire life contains; these points of darkness stop when the selfish being sees his/her error and repents; I verily say unto you that all which was mentally sustained in the trials of life, all becomes living before the Father; and those who negated Him in the trials of life in any imaginable way, are filled with the greatest embarrassment; for the Father demonstrates them that what they denied Him on the remote Earth, exists out of it; and the Father demonstrates them in an infinite degree; behold the weeping and gnashing of teeth of every skeptical being; who having Heard that God was infinite, he/she doubted anyway; infinity in the Father means that everything imaginable and unimaginable exists; every skeptical being who proclaimed that the Father was infinite and doubted at the same time, shall not enter the Kingdom of Heavens; he/she shall be accused of being hypocritical in the Father's Kingdom; these hypocritical beings served two masters; and they divided themselves between light and darkness; the own points of light become reduced by the points of darkness; all those who served goodness and evil at the same time are in this law; that is why it was written: One cannot serve two masters; for there is one sole God only; the Father's morality is only one, and it is not compromised; behold the fall in the trials of life of those who invented a strange life system; of those who built their hopes up on the gold standard; of those who created the damned militarism or fascism; for no one who belonged to their legions, shall enter the Kingdom of Heavens; it is more likely for one who was a civilian to enter the Father's Kingdom than for a military man; behold one of the living beasts; philosophies which came out of darkness; which requested to know a world of the light; by requesting to know a planet of the light, these demons promised Father Jehovah to oppose mental resistance to their militaristic tendencies; for they knew before coming to the human life that with a militaristic influence, one could not be able to enter the Kingdom of Heavens again; the force called militarism is not known in the Father's Kingdom; the true happiness, the celestial happiness does not need any form of force; that is why every life system which took refuge in the so-called armed forces, shall not remain in this world; their creators were trialed by Father Jehovah; I verily say unto you that every member of the dynasty of the force, shall curse having known the so-called armed forces; for all those who intimidated others in this world, shall be despised by the entire generation; it was written: Every self-exalted being shall be despised; and every humble shall be exalted; behold all those who stood out in this world forgetting the Father's Scriptures and Commandments, shall have a weeping and gnashing of teeth; for no idea which was generated by every mind shall not remain without justice; every mental idea generated in life, has got the same rights which the spirit has; for all are equal in rights; before the Father; each idea which came out of each mind is waiting for its creator out of the Earth; behold another weeping and gnashing of teeth; for every living idea which was not illustrated in the Father's laws, whines in the infinity; for the spirit who created it gave it darkness as an inheritance; behold it was written: Each one makes his own heaven; for the future microscopic planets are born from your thoughts, surrounded by a space called heaven; one is born microscopic and continues growing progressively; an expansive growth; growths within other growths; matter and spirit are born microbes; even the gigantic suns were microbes; the divine laws of the Father are for an infinite entirety; what is of the Father is not reduced to one sole world, nor to one sole existence; nor to one sole sun; what is of the Father can never either be measured or weighed.-
